Part II—The Concept of Life & Existence in Hegel pp. 3-32

Self-Consciousness in Hegel
Jena Phil

p.17 "At this point (Self-Consciousness) we have entered human history & it was for the understanding of that HIS & OF THE LIFE OF MAN that Hegel constructed the dialectic (from p.52 to p.237 of Phen. Hyp says: "Here we can see the concrete significance of the Hegelian principle of negativity... Hegel's system, far from being a logomachy, is a logic of the life of thought.") p.23: re Phen. & such open references as Renaissance, Tasso, Antigone etc. "He (H) penetrates to the heart of experience as LIVED BY MAN."

p.24 "self-consciousness, or what we would call human existence."

Part II. The Concept of History in Hegel

The Significance of the Fr. Rev. in H's PHEN.

"Similarly, (to 18th c. Enlightenment Fr. Rev.) for the oppressed Ger. peasants & the wretched town brdl. the Reformation which H calls the Ger. Rev., was not simply a ques. of justification by faith of Christ & the Profets, but the realization of Justice according to as agents Puritan p.44 "Here (as Marx observed) it is imp. to overlook the REV character of the Hegelian dialectic. Whatever the conservative implications of his system, the consequences of the dial. are REV, whether or not intended by H."

p.47—The mood of pre-rev. society: the disintegrated consciousness AB (EN 90, Jr. 68) REF TO HEGEL ON (sansculottismus) in Dokumente zur Hegel Entwicklung p. 269

p.62, Q Phil. of His. p.447: "Never since the sun had stood in the firmament & the planets revolved around him had it been perceived that man's existence centers in his head, in thought, inspired by which he builds up the world of reality.... This was accordingly a glorious mental dawn. All thinking beings shared in the jubilation of this epoch.... a spiritual enthusiasm thrilled thru the world as if the reconciliation bet. Divine & the Secular was now 1st accomplished."

Alienation & Objectification on G. Lukacs! The Young Hegel "p.70ff p.75: "The Hegelian dialectic aspires to be both a philosophical & CONCRETE DIAL..."

p.76: "It was in the course of tracing this concrete dial. thru the whole of human life, then translating it onto a logical plane, that H struggled to reconstruct the VERY NOTION OF DIAL reconciling the life of thought the thought of life."

p.86: Specifically, Hegel retains the notion of alienation even within his conception of the ABS. It is only in appearance that the ABS transcends contrad., that is, the movement of alienation. There is NO SYNTHESIS FOR THE ABS, apart from the presence of a PERMANENT INTERNAL ANTITHESIS. Indeed, it is natural to think that ABS ITSELF contains Alienation, along with movement to transcend it. This contradiction is revealed in the 3 moments of the system: Log., Nature, Spirit.

Part III Marxism & Phil. p. 92-1

Part IV The Problem of the Absolute Truth

"The Human Situation in the Hegelian Phenomenology"

"For man is spirit, that is to say, his self-dev. & the truth to which he may aspire appears in & through that dev. The quest which man himself, we believe, is the problem of how to ground human his. & a possible truth, or reason, within the dev. of his, so conceived."

p.176 " & thru this rise of consciousness creates itself the new DIMENSION OF BEING, generating this in which consciousness makes & reveals a rational truth."

O'Balized "The desert is God without man."

"On the Logic of H" pp.169-182

p.169 "In the strict sense of the term, the Logic is a RIGOROUS poetic of Being which unfolds thru the agency & mediation of man. It is the manifestation of a U self-consciousness in the singular consciousness of the philosopher. It is the Idea which is manifest in human judgment & is not simply its arbitrary or subj.creation."

p.170 "Hegelian philosophy... is a rigorous phil. attempt to remain on the GROUND OF IMMANENCE... it is Being itself which finds expression & testament in man. Phil, as AK, is this expression & the phil. of phil. is simply the consciousness of the function of phil. to express Being."

p.178 "The proof or dial. is not external to its obj., the Abs. IT IS ITS OWN MOVEMENT." (cf PHEN. p.62) "Of the Abs. it must be said that it is essentially a result." p.179 "CONCERT OR MEANING."

p.183: "End of history... or at least the appearance of an abs. new phase of human history."
