Dear Cynthia Williams --

Thank you very much for inviting me to judge the Kino-maagew-gamig Cultural Center/^{exhibition of} the local artisans' work which I am sure will be both artistic, beautiful and done with heart.

Unfortunately, I cannot come Oct. 8th since I am on lecture tour for the whole month of Oct., so do with your Fall Fair the best of luck.

Under separate cover, we will be sending you the book
News & Letters reviewed: The Hidden Half: Studies of Plains Indian Women, but do remember Universities Press are very tardy, and so i U.S. Post office, so it may still be a few weeks before you get it. The authors, Patrician Albers and Beatrice/Medicine, whom I met in Utah on my last year's lecture tour, would be most happy to hear your comments, so do please, send me any reference you may make to their work.

Naturally, I am most happy you liked the snapshots we took at your Pow-Wow this summer.

In friendship and Humanist viëws of world relations --

Dear Raya

Through the generosity of your heart many people have been able to get a glimpse of the Pow-Wow activities this year. The photographs you gave us are so clear they have been mistaken for postcards. Then there are others who most seriously wanted to purchase them. For all of this we thank you.

We most heartily appreciate the review which you sent us. We who have read the review are looking forward to the book.

This Thanksgiving (Canadian) marks Emaandaawchigejig Arts & Crafts group's 3rd Annual Fall Fair. During the weekend of October 7th, 8th and 9th, 1983, we will be having a concert featuring our local talent and an evening of dancing and Sunday is set aside for all of the fun.

We will be having local artisans submitting their crafts (that they have made with loving hands) for judging. This is where you come in. We would be honoured to have you to come out and do some judging for us at 4 p.m. on Saturday, October 8th, 1983. You're guaranteed to have some fun as well as catching a premiere of Walpole Island's talent.

If you have any inquiries please feel free to contact us at the Kinomaagew-gamig Cultural Centre at (519) 627-6988.

Peace and Friendship

Cynthia Williams
