Statement by National Executive Committee of Chilean Revolutionary Communist Party

- Support for the Czechoslovak people's struggle to overthrow Czechoslovak revisionist rule and expel Soviet revisionist invaders.

IN a statement issued on August 23, the National Executive Committee of the Revolutionary Communist Party of Chile condemned the Soviet revisionist clique of renegades for their armed occupation of Czechoslovakia and expressed the warmest support for the Czechoslovak people. The statement expressed the belief that the Czechoslovak people will, through their struggle and unity, overthrow the renegade clique riding on their backs and drive out the Soviet revisionist invaders from their territory.

The statement said: "Neither the Soviet Union nor Czechoslovakia is led by Communists. They are controlled by cliques of renegades who have betrayed Marxism-Leninism and by enemies of the world proletarian revolution. All the policies of both governments are directed at the restoration of capitalism in their countries for the benefit of their respective bureaucratic capitalist classes. The armed invasion of Czechoslovak territory ordered by the Soviet leading clique corresponds to its policy of big-nation chauvinism and is not for the defence of a proletarian regime; it corresponds to its ambitions for expansion and domination, to its conception of the world as zones to be divided between the U.S.S.R. and U.S. imperialism."

The statement of the Chilean Revolutionary Communist Party said that the barefaced invasion of Czechoslovakia by the revisionists proves the decomposition of revisionism in the whole world. The statement appealed to "all honest militants who are still in the old Communist Party (revisionist) to abandon the corrupt leading clique and re-embark on the Marxist-Leninist road."
