ORGAN OF WORKERS INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE FOURTH INTERNATIONAL

PRO-FASCIST GIRAUD TAKES OVER By BILL CHALK

THE ECHOES OF THE SHOTS WHICH ENDED THE LIFE OF ADMIRAL DARLAN HAD RELY DIED AWAY WHEN THE NEW SET UP IN NORTH AFRICA DEMONSTRATED E FUTILITY OF INDIVIDUAL TERRORISM. THE DEAD HIGH COMMISSIONER'S CHAIR D HARDLY GROWN COLD WHEN IT WAS FILLED BY A NEW PUPPET — GENERAL

Darlan is dead, but Darlanism is still very much alive! The actors change but the farce goes undisturbed and unimpeded by the death of the villianous "hero"; for the stage managers are yond the range of pistol shots fired in North Africa—they are in Washington and London.

WHO IS GIRAUD?

eneral Giraud—"hero of two "anti-German to the " the great General whose it is to liberate Franceis he? In what way does assumption of Darlan's role nge the character of the ree in North Africa and how s it affect the workers of ain and France?

North Africa Giraud possesses a essional army which is composed Senegales and Zouaves. This y is officered almost exclusively by bers of the Fascist Youth Moveof France. While this army no doubt be used against the army in the field at a later stage, ay as General Franco used the Moors Spain—against democracy and gainst the working class. This then is the man who the are still behind prison bars. At a sism—to kill another was the act of a later stage the "safest" of these will be "coward". released and this will be applauded as the evidence of the regime turning towards democracy.

The very method by which Giraud was "elected" leader is a reflection of the future visage of the regime which is being sponsored by the "Demo-cracies". He was appointed without the semblance of election, but by a Council-itself a bunch of anti-semites and pro-fascists-who were handpicked by Darlan. Giraud continues the traditions of Darlan.

The assassination of Darlan has caused a little flutter in the higher places of the Allied Quisling setup, and the speedy judicial murder of the terrorist, is obviously meant as a deteragoinst apyone having sipilar idesev denounces the assassination as "murder in the first degree" and describes it as a "cowardly act"; Cordell Hull echoes the voice of the master.

The foul odour of slimy diplomatic intrigue emanates from the whole affair. The faction struggles behind the scenes, the jockeying for place as leading Quisling to one or other "ally" has nothing in common with the methods of democracy or the working class. Today Giraud bears the mantle of "democracy" with "allied protection"; tomorrow it might well be the Finnish pacifist Passikivi or the pro-Fascist Riti; the Italian Grandi, or Badoglio or some others, and so with the Balkan countries as well as Spain. Laval, De Gaulle, or Giraud, Quisling or King Haakon, the Gaulieters of "European unity" or Free Europ all are but pawns Rushe ha and veashington; pawns in tic struggle for world don which these monopoly imperialists de-

BITTER PIT STRIKE 30 BOB WAGE SLASH 1,500 Cortonwood Miners Out Over a Month

By JOCK HASTON

A WALL OF SILENCE HAS BEEN ERECTED BY THE YELLOW PRESS AROUND A STRIKE WHICH IS TAKING TONWOOD COLLIERY, WOMBWELL, YORKSHIRE. THIS VOLUNTARY CENSORSHIP BY THE CAPITALIST LL AS THAT OF THE LABOUR AND "COMMUNIST" PARTY, IS IMPOSED TO COVER UP THE MOST E ATTACK TO BE MADE AGAINST A SECTION OF THE WORKING CLASS FOR MANY YEARS. THE CONTROL THESE PAPERS ARE WELL AWARE THAT IF THE TRUE FACTS OF THIS DISPUTE WERE THE WORKERS EVERYWHERE WOULD IMMEDIATELY DENOUNCE THE COALOWNERS AND EXPRESS THY WITH THE CORTONWOOD COLLIERS IN THEIR STRUGGLE.

mber issue of the "Socialist Appeal," miner correspondents from another pit in the same village issued a warning through our colb anns, that the mood of the workers at Cortonwood was bitter and that there would be an immediate down tools if the cut was in posed. The correctness of their estimation is demonstrated by the bitterness of the struggle which meant very lean Christmas dinciners for the families of the striking miners.

1,500 miners have been on strike for several weeks as a reply to a cut in the wages of about 150 filters on the Silkstone Seam by approximately 30/-per week. The reduction is the result of a slash in the price list for the Silk-stone Seam from 1/7 a ton to 1/3 a ton. This unjustifiable wage cut has infuriated all the workers at the Colliery, welding their ranks into a solid body in defence of the standards of the few who have been directly

Sharp friction has existed at this colliery for more than 18 months owing to the previous attempts by the employers to cut the price list. In November of 1941, Joe Hall, President (referred to in Wombwell as the Musso-lini of Barnsley), along with Tom Oakey, another official of the Yorkshire Miners Association, signed a new price list with the maragement without cousulting the workers who would be thus affected, and indeed in direct contradiction to their expressed desires with which the officials were familiar. By this act, Hall and Oakey demonstrated that they were not guided by the wishes of the miners who employ them, but on the contrary, they undertook to dictate terms to the miners. This they were enabled to do as the result of their control of the Yorkshire Miners Association.

When the management attempted to put the new price list into operation in May 1942, the pit struck work, the workers returning to work only when the new price list was suspended and negotiations reopened through the intervention of the then scristry of Mines, headed by D and 10 the employers and Government that they would not stand for a reduction and would strike if necessary in de-fence of their existing standards.

OUTPUT UP 50% -WAGES CUT 30/- WEEK

The price list at this Colliery has been in force for several years—"peace" years, but the employers must slash the price list in the middle of the war when they are fully aware that this would upset the "normal" trend at the pit and provoke a strike in defence of the already meagre conditions of the miners. By this action the coalowners demonstrate clearly the motive of capitalist control of the mines as maximum profit and not at all maximum production.

The workers at this seam have in-creased their output of coal from 4.41 tons per shift in 1938 to 6.61 tons in 1941. Instead of welcoming this increase of tonnage and consequent increase in wages, the coalowners set out to break the price list down so that the wages of the colliers would remain static in spite of the 50 per cent increased output. All the capitalist propaganda for "increased output" is seen to be lies and fakery—all the owners are interested in is profits, and more profits.

This was clearly exposed at the Court of Arbitration when Mr. Chorlton, the colliery manager stated that when he came to Cortonwood he "took over a legacy of trouble with £1 shares down to 5/-". Obviously under pri-

ACTS AS BOSSES' STOOGE

The Arbitration Board, which met ovember 20th to finally decide on could only be remedied at the expense their conditions and the cut in the price list. But it was further under-scored by Hall's statement that when General Franco used the Moors ain-against democracy and the working class.

then is the man who the now "honour" for his "clean and as the man who will he Free French or Fighting. Darlan was an embarrassing but Giraud who has not been y compromised to the same des less well-known figure with to bluff the masses. But far ne regime in North Africa asa more democratic colouration, ration remains unchanged. The wish laws of Vichy still remain, i-fascist prisoners and internees about Giraud and others. Roosevelt denounces the assassination as "murder in the first degree" and describes it as a "cowardly act"; Cordell Hull echoes the voice of the master.

The hypocrisy of these people is astounding. Were they not responsible for advocating and applauding similar acts against other Quislings and traitors on the continent? Who applauded the terrorist attack against Darlan's pal Laval more than the Rocsevelts and the Churchills; who was more delighted when Heydrich was killed by a similar act? To kill one filthy monster was an act of hero-and Vashington; pawns in tic struggle for world don which these monopoly imperialists de-

The workers of Europe and of England have no common ground with the Quislings or their masters. In Europe, England and America as well as among the exploited masses in the colonial world, the workers have the task of breaking through their chains; of overthrowing the iron rivetted tyranny of their oppressors. Until they do so the war will continue and the world will be drenched in the blood of millions of workers for generations to come.

ailwaymen Demand a Living Wage

By SID BIDWELL (N.U.R)

shameful wage award which nade by the National Railway ribunal has infuriated the overing majority of railway workers. months of patient negotiations h all stages of the cumbersome tion machinery, the workers ranted less than half their wage e claimed. Meanwhile their al claim has been outdated by the cost of living.

among the 64,000 members of S.L.E.&F. however, that the disction is expressed in its sharpest

These men, drivers and firemen l as their juniors had accepted a onus increase as the result of negotiations last summer. They pplied for an increase in their wage rate as well as a bonus. tribunal award, which granted an extra 1/- (!), making their increase up to 5/- and thus inthe wages of the footplate men opence a day and junior cleaners enny a day is considered by this of the workers to be a gross amounting to provocation.

deep is the feeling of bitterness espite the conciliatory policy and le adopted by the leading officials A.S.L.E.&F., they were forced ue a statement to the company overnment pointing out that unne negotiations were again opened d some concession made to their pers there might be a strike and could not guarantée to hold them at the officials were in no way asible for this feeling of militancy lid not propose to give it a lead, icated by the interview given by

Mr. W. P. Allen, the Secretary of the A.S.L.E.&F. to the "Daily Worker" of Dec. 30, where he is reported to have said, with regard to strike resolution which it was expected would be presented to a delegates' meeting held in London, "that is must not be understood that he or his colleagues will support the resolution."

The feeling among the drivers and firemen is reflected in all other grades of railway workers. They know that the railway companies are piling up huge and ever increasing profits as the result of increased traffic and speed up of their labour. Any movement from the footplate men would be supported and reflected in the N.U.R. and R.C.A.

It is this fear of action that prompted Mr. Marchbank, general secretary of the N.U.R. to characterise all talk of militant activity as "pure irresponsibility". In an interview with the "Daily Telepraph" of Dec. 30, he is reported to have said that: "there could be no argument about an award which all parties had agreed to ac-

"I cannot see any reason to placate one section of realwaymen " he continued, "when it would cause resentment to many thousands of others."

"I believe that joint consultations between the unions would find a satisfactory solution to this business. It is up to the society to make the first move because the N.U.R. has acepted the position as it stands.

Having accepted the miserable pittance on "behalf" of the 400,000 members of the N.U.R., but knowing the deep resentment felt by the rank and file of his own union, Mr. March-bank fears a lead from any quarter which might lead to an explosion among the railwaymen. He knows that if the A.S.L.E.&F. took action, they would be supported by the majorfity of members of the N.U.R.

Many branches of both unions are in favour of strike action to secure an adequate increase. These workers, the key workers in the national transport system are working under impossible conditions. Having given up many rights won as the result of bitter struggles, they see the railway company refusing to give the slightest concession.

They do not wish to take strike action and have done all they could to avoid it, but the attitude of the railway companies has forced them into a position where the withdrawal of their labour appears to be the only alternative left to gain a minimum wage concession.

Whatever action the railworkers take, knowing the conditions under which they labour, workers everywhere will extend solidarity to the railworkers in the fight for a decent

9 = D 3 = D 3 = D 3 9

* The workers pennies keep our paper going Send the "Socialist Appeal" A New Year's Gift

To: M. LEE, Business Manager, 61 Northdown St., London N.1.

With apologies to a better Brew

ASTE AS BOSSES' STOOGE

The Arbitration Board, which met on November 20th to finally decide on the price list, was a farce from begin-ning to end. The employers were re-presented by their most conscious agent, Mr. Furness, who ruthlessly and loyally presented the coalowners' case; the workers were represented by Mr. J. Hall, who did not, indeed could not honestly or loyally put the case for the miners, since he had already agreed to the owners' terms in advance. Under these circumstances he could only act as a stooge for Furness. With the workers' "representative" already in agreement with the bosses, the decisions of this Board were a foregone conclusion. The miners at Cortonwood knew that this would be so in advance, and warned ould only be remedied at the expense of the miners. Hence the attack upon heir conditions and the cut in the price list. But it was further under-scored by Hall's statement that when he was originally called to the pit it was because the owners had given notice to the men that this productive seam was to be closed!

Instead of using this threat to indict the colliery management for deliberate sabotage of coal production, Hall used it to justify the cut in the price list!

The main claim of the Colliery owners was that the working of the seam showed a heavy loss over a lengthy period. But never have they invited representatives of the miners at the pit to inspect their books and test the truth of this assertion. What may be considered "uneconomical" by

Continued on page two

BEVERIOGE - AN EMPTY PROMISE

"Time for Revolution, Not Patching"!

"A REVOLUTIONARY MOVE- | 4. Full productive employment. MENT IN THE WORLD'S HIS-TORY IS A TIME FOR REVOLU TIONS, NOT FOR PATCHING." Around this statement, with which the working class will wholeheartedly agree, Sir William Beveridge introduces his Report on Social Insurance and Allied services. But the roar of the Lion becomes the bleat of the Lamb! Despite this bold "revolutionary" but demagogic introduction he proceeds to dish up a fraudulent patched-up plan which is completely utopian under modern British capitalism, but which, even if it were possible to operate, offers nothing but a meagre and paltry existence to the working

The Report proposes to deal with the "five grants on the road to recon-The giants are named struction." Want, Disease, Ignorance, Squalor, and Idleness. Sir William forgets that these Five "Giants" are merely a few of the many offsprings of the society under which we live. He closes his eves to the Father Giant: Private Ownership and production for profit." In doing so he fails completely to get down to the root of Social Security and Reconstruction.

The successful operation of the plan, even according to Beveridge himself, is dependent upon the following con-

1. Internation Co-operation between capitalist states. 2. Expanding prosperity, i.e. on the question of exports. 3. Full utilisation of the industrial resources of the nation.

5. The abolition of the class struggle.

"PEACEFUL CO-OPERATION" A PHANTOM

The operation of these points presupposes that private ownership of the means of production can function in the interests of the many and not the few, that it can produce for needs and not for profits. We need only look at the situation leading up to and during the present war to see what measure of peaceful co-operation is possible between imperialist nations after the war, when the contradictions will have been immeasurably sharpened. The period immediately prior to 1939 saw an intensive struggle being waged by all the large industrial countries for spheres of influence and control of markets. The U.S.A. has used the war as an opportunity to drive her main rival, Britain, from one stronghold after another in the South American markets, and has extended her tentacles to the "holy precincts" of the British empire itself. In reply to Mr. Wendel Willkie, who wants full freedom for American imperialism in the markets of the British Empire, Mr. Churchill made a statement at the Mansion House recently that he had not taken office as first Minister of the Crown to see the liquidation of the British Empire.

Apparently the two great "democracies" are not sure of their ability to co-operate between themselves, let alone co-operate with other nations. In the recent debate on air policy in the House of Commons, Mr. Perkins (Conservative) expressed his fear that Britain . . . had practically no machines with which to compete in the race with America for control of the world's air lines, which would come with peace." (Daily Telegraph, 18.12.42).

BY LESLIE KING

While they attempt to fool the people by smooth phrases about their peaceful, co-operative intentions after the war, the capitalists have no illusions among themselves and are already girding their loins for the intensification of the economic struggle with their imperialist rivals. In a world dominated by an economic system whose driving force is the profit motive, a constant struggle for spheres of influence, sources of raw materials and markets, is inevitable and there can be NO "peaceful co-operation". Under capitalism "peace" is an interlude, a truce between wars, which get "bigger and better" successively, and which are a continuation by military means of the constant economic struggle that is inherent in the system.

In view of these irrefutable facts, we can only come to the conclusion that the fairy tale of Sir William and the Five Giants is no more related to reality than any of the previous utopias of the capitalists.

But even assuming that the Plan is workable as a temporary expedient "after the war", what does it propose to grant the workers?

WORKERS WILL PAY

The whole plan has been worked out on the basis of a redistribution of the income of the working class. Sir William went to considerable lengths in his report to demonstrate how 'Want could have been abolished before the present war by a redistribution of the income within the wage earning classes, WITHOUT TOUCHING A PENNY OF THE WEALTHIER CLASSES" (Our emphasis). The fact that he does not state it will cost the wealthier classes a penny after the war, presupposes that the workers would have to shoulder the whole of the burden. And this of course, is exactly what is being proposed. According to the report, "The first view is benefit in

(continued on back page)

HE SAID IT!

" If we have mass unemployment we may not be able to carry out the proposals in my report. We may give people the money, but there will not be the goods for them, and so there will be want. I do not know how we shall continue productive employment after the war. When people say we cannot abolish unemployment, however, I say we have abolished it twice in my lifetime-during the last war and during this war. I simply will not believe it is impossible to abolish mass unemployment but I do not know how it is to be done, and I do not know whether anybody else knows."
Sir William Beveridge,

"Times" Dec. 7th, 1942.

What the 'Socialist Appeal' Stands for

An end to the coalition with the bosses. Labour and Trade Union leaders must break with the capitalist Government and wage a campaign for power on the following

- 1. Immediate despatch of arms and material to the Soviet Union under the control of the Trade Unions and factory committees.
- 2. Nationalisation of the land, mines, banks, transport and all big industry without compensation.
- 3. Confiscation of all war profits—all company books to be open for trade union inspection.
- 4. Workers' control of production to end chaos and mismanagement in industry to be exercised through workers committees.
- 5. Equal distribution of food, clothes, and other consumers commodities under the control of committees of workers elected from the distributive trades, factories, housewives committees and small shop-
- 6. Sliding scale of wages to meet the increased cost of living with a guaranteed minimum.
- 7. Repeal of the Essential Works Order and all other anti-working class and strike-breaking laws.
- 8. Clear out the reactionary pro-fascist officer caste in the Army and Home Guard. Election of officers by the soldiers. Trade union wages for all workers in the
- 9. Establishment of military schools by the Trade Unions at the expense of the state for the training of worker
- 10. Arming of the workers under control of committees of workers elected in factories, unions and in the streets against the danger of invasion or Petainism.
- 11. Freedom for Ireland, India and the Colonies.
- 12. A Socialist appeal to the workers of Germany and Europe on the basis of this programme in Britain to join the Socialist struggle against Hitler for the Socialist United States of Europe.

BUILDING WORKERS MUST CLOSE RANKS

FROM A SITE OFFICER ATTACHED TO THE N.F.B.T.O.,

(National Federation of Building Trades Operatives)

deal conditions of employment, but since the outbreak of war those conditions have degenerated at an alarmng rate. A cool calm and collected view of the onslaught of the employing class upon our working conditions com pels the inevitable conclusion that the employers aggression must involve us sooner or later in revolutionary tur-

Building workers have never had amended the previous Agreement in the employers' favour to be followed by the youth and women agreements. Travelling and lodging allowances, the acceptance of the bonus system, designation of craftsmen to do labourers work without consultation with the rank and file of the unions are examples of trickery which militants

Open Letter to the Yorkshire Miners

On Wednesday, 23rd December, the Council of the Y.M.A. carried a resolution which stated:-

"That this council meeting authorises the officials to take legal advice as to what action, if any, can be taken in regard to the articles which are continually appearing in the 'Socialist Appeal'."

This resolution is aimed to silence our criticism of Hall and the present leadership at Barnsley and its policy. It carries the campaign to suppress the "Socialist Appeal" initiated by Hall last July a step further. It is a police substitute for an open discussion before the miners of Wombwell

The "Socialist Appeal" has had some hard things to say about Joe Hall. So also do we say hard things about any working class "leader" whose policy is against the interests of the workers. These are mild, let it be said, in comparison with statements made to the "Socialist Appeal" by hundreds of miners about their

Although Hall has had every opportunity to reply to a public challenge which was issued on July 18th, 1942, he has not availed himself of the opportunity and attempted to refute our

His latest move is an act of desperation.

Meanwhile the so-called Communist Party members and sympathisers in the Yorks area are peddling the story that the Trotskyists and their paper, the "Socialist Appeal" are responsible for the present strike at Cortonwood. Every miner who is familiar with the events leading up to the strike will immediately recognise this as a lie, and will brand it as such.

In peddling these lies the "Communists" echo the slanders of Joe Hall whose allegations were completely exposed as lies that they were in Parliament when the Coal owners and Tory representatives attempted to use his allegations to get the "Socialist Appeal" suppressed.

"Why does a political organisation interfere in an industrial dispute?" is the trick question which the fakers ask. Any miner who deludes himself that it is possible to separate industrial from political questions is making a grievous

When the coal owners say that the present strike "holds up production and helps the Nazi were responsible for firing the first shot in the ustrial field, attempt to throw the political onsibility for the outcome of the dispute on to shoulders of the workers. The action of the vernment in allowing the courts to be used to timidate the colliers, is a political action. The ation of Hall and his colleagues, of tying the ands of the miners behind their backs, giving hat the right to strike, and collaborating with the lowners and their capitalist government, is a contical action. So also is the action of the reneide "Communists" who have deserted the orkers and appealed to the miners to accept the

It is no accident that the coalowners who are pries in politics embrace Joe Hall who claims be Labour. Nor is it an accident that Joe Hall to no was the most bitter opponent of the Stalinists months ago, now embraces them and enderses e political activities of the Communist Party d Young Communist League, while the Stalinos quote Joe Hall with great favour. For all se people have the same political aim: support r the present capitalist coalition and its represve legislation against the working class. No atter what they may say in private or in the droom about "Socialism after the war," ther blic activities and present day actions is trimental to the interests of the working class. The "Socialist Appeal" is the organ of Workers ternational League, a Trotskyist political organation which continues the policy of revolutionary cialism. The policy which made the Russian volution. We oppose the present capitalist alition, its repressive legislation against the orkers, and all its other actions detrimental to e working class We do not believe that this pitalist coalition is interested in conducting a ar for democracy nor that it is capable of doing , since it uses repression against the people in e colonies as well as at home. We believe that e only people who are really interested in or pable of conducting a war against fascism and action are the working class, and for that reason e say that political power must be in the hands

In our view, the only way in which coal proction can be thoroughly organised is by the tionalisation of the pits without compensating e present owners, who have sucked the blood of miners for long enough, and by the operation the pits under the democratic control of miners d technicians, who are the only people really pable of solving the question of production,

In the present dispute we believe that any nest working class organisation must come out enly in defence of the Cortonwood miners and ist them to the maximum in their present > e actions are political acts for which we be re the mirkers.

Correspondence ON LEEDS TRANSPORT DISPUTE

FROM SOLDIERS

To the Editor, 'Socialist Appeal' Dear Comrades,

We were very glad to read in the last issue of the "Socialist Appeal" of the class-conscious stand taken by some soldiers over the threatened transport strike at Leeds. We would like to express, as another group of soldiers, our complete solidarity with the attitude of our fellow soldiers at Leeds, in their leaflet distributed to the workers, in which they expressed their resentment at being used as strike breakers against their fellow

When we soldiers were called up, we were told to defend democracy and fight for a better life for ourselves and our children. Now we find that we are being used to break the democratic rights and conditions of our fellow workers. The capitalists ask us, in the interests of 'national unity' to accept sacrifices and renounce the right to strike but in the meanwhile the capitalists, through their control of the Government, are continuing to amass profits and striving to undermine the trade unions and depress the workers' power of resistance. When, in self-defence, the workers are compelled to strike, the army is immediately brought in against them. In this way we soldiers are being used to undermine our own conditions for when we return to industry after the war.

The capitalists and their agents are, by elever propaganda, trying to pre-judice the soldiers against their fellow workers in 'the factories by tales of "high wages" etc., which we are expected to fight and die for three bob a day. But we soldiers are not fooled. We know that the people responsible for our low pay are not our fellow workers, but the Government. We also know that it is up to us to fight for better conditions ourselves.

We would like, through the "Socialist Appeal" to tell the civilian workers that we do not want to be used as cheap labour and strike breakers against our own class. But we are victims of military discipline. To disobey orders is mutiny, punishable by leath or penal servitude. There are many class conscious workers and trade unionists in the forces who are doing their best to educate their fellow soldiers in the spirit of class solidarity but they also need the support of the labour movement a a whole

We say to our fellow workers in civvies—the best way you can help us and yourselves is by pressing in your T.U. branches, Trades Councils and factories, for the following:

The right of men and women in the forces to organise in their own committees and union to represent their

The right of men and women in the forces to read and distribute work-victimisation.

3. Representation of the forces rank together in a spirit of comradeship the soldiers and workers will together defeat all attempts of capitalism to ensure the continuance of its profits and privileges by placing the whole the working class.

Long live the solidarity of the workers ni civies and the workers in uni-

For a forces' union!
Signed, "A Group of Pioncers.

FROM A LEEDS BUS DRIVER

A reporter writing under the name of Stanley Paige, Industrial Correspondent, has written an article in the "Leeds Weekly Citizen" the organ of the local Labour Party entitled: "Trotskyists But in on Leeds Transport Dispute." He undoubtedly proves to the Leeds Tranport Workers that he has no right to the title of Industrial Correspondent. He shows threighout the article a complete lack of know-ledge of industrial problems, the rules of the T.&G.W.U.', the local conditions of Leeds Transport Workers and the non-Traffic Section. He has not even torubled to ascertain if the claims that the Soldiers' Letter printed in the last issue of the "Socialist Appeal" is authentic or not. One or two enquiries locally would lead him to the original and the circumstances surrounding its receipt by the Strike Committee. A further inquiry would prove to him that in the opinion of Leeds Transport workers, the report appearing in the "Socialist Appeal" is a precise statement of events and has not been exaggerated by one iota. A self styled Industrial Correspondent who is not even aware of the conditions in his own city, in spite of the fact that he should be in contact with his party councillors, and questions the number of members present at the meetings, caretakers of the Salem Hall, he would receive the official capacity of the rooms in question, added to the fact that members had to stand at both meetings, a point again easily proved—all this displays a complete disregard of the principle of fair criticism, and demonstrates his prejudice and distorted autlook.

He draws notice to the fact that the resolution of November 26th neutrons Secretary, Chairman and Trade Group Secretary had left the meeting, apparently he is not even aware that all strikes are unofficial according to the national policy of the trade union movement, and it should be obvious that provisions had been made in the Resolution for the contingency that did arise. Again, a few inquiries would have proved that this was the actual motion moved at the acceting that the Industrial Correspond at requires a far deeper experience of in-dustrial affairs before he is competent for his position, and will have to estruction have been let 1 cale which threatens to destroy man ind, it is not surprising that the milding industry whose primary funcion is to construct, finds itself in its resent plight.

resent plight.

The policy of the National Government to restrict social building work as forced men into contracts, of a ulitary nature.

Workmen are being irected under 58a which has been nowked by the Ministry of Labour to ubject the building workers to a most ident and unlimited attack upon theiriolent and unlimited attack upon their ocial and economic liberties.

The lack of enthusiasm for the war an be measured by the methods dopted by the ruling class to force nen on the sites. The prospect before s promises an even greater intensifi ation of reactionary methods. Men re being driven at a few hours notice rom their homes and families, to live n sites where conditions are on the u sites where conditions are on the owest possible fevel. It is blandly sumed that the building workers can but up with anything. They can enture cold, rain and frost, hunger, atigue, improper feeding, sleep under cretched conditions, packed in shanters, plough about muddy fields, with theither baths, drying rooms lights in either baths, drying rooms, lights in he shanties or mess rooms. Hygienic rrangements are of the most primitive Men are expected to do their ype. Men are expected to do their ard and intricate work in sodden dothes. The latest edict is that no subber boots can be provided even it nen are working in trenches full of vater. It is impossible to describe in words the hardships and privations the ouilding worker is undergoing on these sites. The Welfare and Safety order of January is contemptuously ignored by the employer and so-called factory inspectors, but to date no employer as been prosecuted for refusing to

The master class, through its class aws, works increasingly to crush the spirit of the building worker. Summonses for lateness, absenteeism, and failure to obey directions are rife today on the contract. This is the price being paid for co-operation.

Sunday,

Jan. 17th

1943

6 p.m.

adhere to the above order.

Meanwhile, let us examine the economic position. The first agreement to cover this type of contract was the Scheduling Agreement. As this was relatively a good agreement it was soon smashed by the Civil Engineering infamous Uniformity Agreement which over his exploiters.

Britain enlisted trade union leaders, E. Bevin, R. Coppock, Luke Fawcett, George Hicks. Building trade workers know to their cost the meaning of the policy of class collaboration. The N.F.B.T. leadership is keeping its promise to co-operate with a vengeance, even though it means sacrificing stanlards that have taken a century of The entry of Russia into the conflict has created a further danger to the hard wen standards of the building worker. The Communist Party in this ountry now support the war, cynically claiming that it is now a just war and that the interests of the building workers must be sacrificed in the interests of the national front. The London Division of the A.U.B.T.W. workers which is controlled by C.P. elements have a united front with the leaders. of the N.F.B.T.O. in their eloquent silence, during this period of acute struggle. The cowardice and treachery of these betrayers of the working class principles is manifest on many But fortunately for the building worker, the rank and file are beginning, albeit slowly to sense realities; are realising that only by their own active struggle, will they deternine their future fate.

The apostles of "work harder", "go anywhere", "do anything", "no strikes however much provocation" are losing whatever prestige, and respect they once held amongst the building trade workers. The advanced workers in the industry are not allowing themselves to be carried away by the "everyone must sacrifice" propaganda is shown by their attitude on some big contracts in many parts of

The shattering of old craft illusions. the passing away of the old landmarks, the opening of the new era is transforming the consciousness of the building trade. The C.P. and the N.F.B. T.O. leadership are incapable of workers adjusting themselves to the change that is taking place. The workers are beginning to realise that there is no possibility of a real leadership coming from these quarters.

In face of these realities the militant and revolutionary elements inside the industry should endeavour to build a new leadership on the jobs and in the union before it is too late. This is and building employers with the aid of the Ministry of Labour. This took place without even a protest from the place without even a protest from the N.F.B.T.O., and was replaced by the ing worker go forward to final victory

Conway

Hall.

Red Lion Sq.

CORTONWOOD MINERS INCREASE PRODUCTION—OWNERS SLASH THEIR WAGES

Continued from page 1.

the bosses, may be considered highly profitable by the workers. A miners' leader who was genuinely concerned with establishing the just claims of the men he represented, would have made this a key issue in any negotiations ing the books of the Company in conjunction with elected representatives from the Silkstone Seam. Failure on Hall's part to demand such investigation at the Court of Arbitration was worth a panzer column to the owners in their attack.

MINISTER OF FUEL NOT INTERESTED IN THE DISPUTE

During his recent tour of Yorkshire coalfields, Major Lloyd George, Minister of Fuel, visited Cortonwood Colliery in company with a host of other officials. He undoubtedly knew that a dispute existed at the Colliery which would very soon vitally affect produc-tion. But although he "had lunch with the miners" and praised them as a "fine body of men" who were doing their best, he did not ask them what they thought of the proposed 30/-wage cut. He did not ask them if they thought that the wage cut would interfere with or hold up production. In this, he demonstrated the impotence as well as on whose side the Ministry of Fuel stands in face of vicious wage cutting by the owners.

JONES FAILS TO FIND QUISLINGS

A few days after the commencement of the strike, Ernest Jones, one time Secretary of the Y.M.A. who deserted the union for a "better" job with the Government, addressed the miners at the Reform Hall, Wombwell in his National Sowice Officer capacity as National Service Officer. He proposed that the workers go back to work. Failing to get a response to this appeal, he then suggested that since only a proportion of the miners were directly affected, the rest should go back. This attempt to split the miners was given a hostile reception and one miner put the policy of Jones in a nutshell when he stated: "Jones is looking for Ouislings Theorems." is looking for Quislings. There are no Ouislings in Cortonwood!'

BOSSES WANT PROFIT NOT PRODUCTION

Expressing the thoughts of the Cortonwood miners, a miner at the colliery wrote to the "Socialist Appeal"

"The miner is in a dilema. He is told by the Government that he has to beat the Fascists on the Contin-ent so he goes all out. What hap-pens? He receives more money. pens? He receives more money. Then the bosses get together and say: "These miners are earning too much money. We will cut the price of the contract and keep a bigger margin of profit: We will cut their wages: Exactly! The "Socialist Appeal" has consistently pointed out that the management and owners are not concerned with production but with profits. While the miners are forbidden by law to strike to defend their existing standards, the owners are left free to upset production by driving against the miners and slashing their wages. When the Ministry of Fuel was set up to co-ordinate and organise a maximum production and the Miners' Executive accepted the policy of complete collabaccepted the policy of complete collaboration with the owners and responsibility for holding the workers back and emasculating their struggles, it was the "Socialist Appeal" alone of the workers' press, which explained the impotence of the M.O.F., called this act of Lawther, Hall & Co. by its right name: BETRAYAL.

The conduct of the management and Government over Cortonwood has de-

Government over Cortonwood has de-

STALINISTS ATTACK CORTONWOOD MINBRS

REPRODUCED FROM THE "DAILY WORKER" 29. 12. 42.

A dispute lasting several weeks in the Cortonwood Colliery has prevented the miners in the entire county from being entitled to a bonus under the Greene Award, for their output over the current four weeks.

This was disclosed at a recent meeting of the Yorkshire Miners' Association Council, which by 2,036 votes to 232 recommended the men to return to

The Independent Latiour Party and the Trotyskyists, in complete indifference to the fuel crisis have been engaged in persuading the miners to remain on strike-against an agreement made by their own officials.

The attacks on the officials by a Trotskyist paper have been of such a virulent character that the Council authorised the officials to take legal advice as to whether action could be taken against this sheet.

IT SPEAKS FOR MISELF!

view. Despite the squeal which was put up by Hall and Lawther and their lying slanderous attack against the "Socialist Appeal" for its plain speaking, events have proven our estimate of their actions to be correct—THEY ACT AS QUISLINGS IN THE RANKS OF THE MINERS. The struggle at Cortonwood is likely to be one of the most bitter in the Yorks coalfields for many years, and the Cortonwood miners need all the assistance they can get from other sections of the working class. In the past the workers could always turn to their union for ome measure of solidarity and assistance against the boss. In the present period, however, the workers have arranged against them not only the coalowners and the Government through the Ministry of Labour and the Ministry of Fuel, but also their own trade union machinery through its bureaucratic officials. Hall and the "leadership" of their trade union at Barnsley declares their strike unconstitutional and refuses to grant them solidarity and strike pay The miners are therefore isolated through the officials from their own machine and are forced to take "extra" trade union action to gain the solidarity of their fellow workers.

They have decided not to make the same mistake as they did in previous struggles by not publicising their grievances. They have set up a strike committee—the first for many years in the district—and circulated all the branches in the Union in the Yorkshire area, seeking their moral and financial support. They also decided that runners should go out to the pits in the district and seek financial aid as their brother miners come out of the pits on pay day. Yorks miners will assist their fellow workers as they have done

But these activities of the miners while they are a big advance on their previous actions during their last strike, are limited and can only be properly carried out if they are part of a thought-out organised campaign to shift the bureaucratic clique who control the union at Barnsley. The widespread hostility to Hall which exists throughout the country, must be organised. Side by side with the demand which has already been made that Hall resign, the miners should demand the re-election of their officials at Barnsley every two years

OPEN THE BOOKS AT CORTON-WOOD COLLIERY FOR EXAMIN-ATION BY THE MINERS AT THE PITT

FORCE THE RESIGNATION OF HALL AND OAKEY AND THE RE-ELECTION OF OFFICIALS EVERY TWO YEARS TO THE HIGHEST POSTS IN THE UNION!

TRADE UNION SOLIDARITY WITH THE CORTONWOOD MINERS!

 Raise forces pay to the level of civilian workers and adequate to keep their families and dependants. in comfort without having recourse to charity or hardship grants.

No cleap labour or strike breaking.

Where soldiers are employed on civilian jobs they should get the rate for the job.

We are sure that by standing solidly

If the corresopndent had sincerely desired to report the dispute no doubt he could have had the opportunity of gaining exclusive reports, and can probably still do that, providing he gives an assurance that interviews or reports shall be strictly in line with statements made to him.

Yours fraternally

Read an A.B.C. of Trotskyism THE CASE FOR SOCIALIST REVOLUTION

The Evidence of J. P. Cannon in the U.S. Trial.

INTERNATIONALLY APPRECIATED

J. P. CANNON

FROM BELFAST COMRADES

"Send as many copies of Cannon's Testimony as you car. We are completely out of them. The last bundle of 6 dozen are sold.'

FROM EGYPT

"Cannon's Testimony goes over in a big way. Egyptian nationalists are proposing to translate it into Arabic."

FROM A CANADIAN CAMP IN ENGLAND

"I am glad that another copy of Cannon's Trial I asked for is on the way. I rather wished for another of those booklets—the evidence presented at the trial makes it so easy to spike the lies of the Stalinists, for after all, the attitude of the American bourgeoisie to the American section of the Fourth International is the best refutation of the slander that Trostkyism does not represent a genuine proletarian tend-Cannon's trial is going like wild fire around the campyou should hear the arguments it has started . . .

Rhodesian Miners Leaders Arrested

The South African Trades and Labour Council which represents 36 trade unions, have protested the continued detention without trial and deportation of two officials of the Northern Rhodesian Mineworkers Union by the Rhodesian authorities.

These officials, Bro. Maybank, Secretary-General of the N.R.M.U. and Bro. Macyer, Vice-Chairman of the Mufulira Branch of the Union were arrested last October on the pretext of "complicity in subversive activities." This probably means that these officials refused to sell out the mineworkers as their less worthy fellow officials in the mineworkers and other unions in this country are doing, and that they were prepared to support the struggle of the Northern Rhodesian Mineworkers to improve their conditions and wages.

The feeling among the miners in Rhodesia as well as in various parts of the South African Union is rising and there is the possibility of general stoppage of work. This is reflected in the telegraph which the Secretary of the South African Mineworkers Union has sent to the Australian Mineworkers Union, stating that there is "a serious possibility of industrial upheavals" if the matter is not settled, and asking for their assistance to get a democratic

The Committee of the South African T. & L.C. has cabled to the Secretary of the British Labour Party and to Sir Walter Citrine as representative of the British T.U.C. protesting the arrest and describing the action as "an insidious attack against trade unionism and a misuse of extraordinary

Rhodesia is a paradise for a section of the most degenerate of Britain's capitalists who live there to avoid taxation. A big section of the aristocrats and retired military officers who control the area were closely bound up with the Mosley Fascist movement in Britain. These parasites are loud in the acclaim of the "war against fascism", but they brutally suppress the coloured miners and arrest their white officials who are loyal to their inter-

WORKERS'

LEAGUE

INTERNATIONAL FOURTH INTERNATIONAL)

LONDON DISTRICT

PUBLIC DEBATE:

Do the Workers

Need a Party?

LIBERTARIAN YOUTH (Anarchists)

BRING A FRIEND

as so effective.

n no fighting

the Twelfth

der bombard-valls and open

SOCIALIST APPEAL

ORGAN OF WORKERS' INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE FOURTH INTERNATIONAL

PUBLISHED MONTHLY

EDITOR: E. Grant

BUSINESS MANAGER: M. Lee

61, Northdown Street, London, N.W.1.

EDITORIAL

1943—Our Party and Paper

As a new year begins and as the war pursues its course through the fourth year the "Socialist Appeal" pauses to take stock and to survey the broad scene in which its activities are set.

What is the principal feature of the period through which we have just passed? This: that the British working class, numbering 75 or 80 per cent. of the population, has been deprived of its voice and its weapons. The policies of the leaders of the British Labour Movement have led to predisely the opposite of a strengthening of true democracy. Class collaboration and the political truce have simply meant that the Labour Movement has been bound hand and foot and delivered C.O.D. at the door of the Conservative

The voice that has given orders during the whole of the war has been the voice of finance capital, the voice of a microscopically small minority. The voice of the great majority, the voice of Labour, has been unheard, even in the distorted tones that used to be imported to it as it passed through the lips of the Labour

This process has been labelled "national unity," and its alleged purpose has been to "defend democracy" and "smash Fasc'sm."

During the greater part of the period in which the Labour leaders have participated in this farce the "Socialist Appeal" has bent its main effort to exposing the true nature of this deception to the workers. It has pointed out that "national unity" has meant that only one side makes sacrifices and gives up rights and that side is not the capitalists. Besides this it has shown that the aims for which the sacrifices are wrung out of the workers cannot ever be won while capitalism is in command, whether these aims be the destruction of Fascism, the establishment of a lasting peace, the defence of the Soviet Union, or making the best use of the productive resources of the country.

Not only have we had to expose the policies of the Labour leaders, but have also had to take up in turn the three different war-time policies of the Stalinist leaders and show that not one of them had anything to offer the British (or the Soviet) workers, since they were based solely on the needs of the Kremlin bureaucracy. In some ways this has been the more difficult task, for the Stalinist leaders not only put over their policies in the name of the Russian Revolution but also under the cover of the heroic resistance of the Soviet masses to Hitler's advance.

How Lenin's Propaganda Won German Masses By JOHN REED

article shows how the Bolsheviks used class propaganda and of conducting the war was historically demonstrated by the waged a revolutionary war against Imperial Germany. The success of the Bolshevik method the German army but also the armies of all the combined imp the Proletarian Revolution.

The Bolshevik propaganda of 1917-21 was INTERNAT, the German workers and soldiers against their own exploiters DNALIST AND REVOLUTIONARY. It was class propaganda aimed at securing the support of CHAUVINIST, reactionary in its content, and which is limite

Now that Imperial Germany is over-thrown, we are told by the capitalist press of all countries that the Allied armies did it.

The pressure of superior Allied arms undoubtedly broke the power of the German offensive in the West, but that Soviet Russia conquered Imperial Germany.

Two months ago our government warned us that the war might last five years longer. At the very height of German retreat, the Armp and Navy Journal and the military experts of the New York Tribune and the London Times pointed out that the German armies were falling back in perfect order, according to well worked out strategic plans. When the Allied armies entered Lille they were not even in contact with the German rear guard. Germany could have defended her frontiers almost indefinitely

It, was not the Allied armies which broke the morale of the Central Powers, but something else, something internal. It is generally admitted that Germany had plenty of men, plenty of arms, and even food . . . Why couldn't she answer Bulgaria's call for help? And Austria's? Because in Germany itself, in the heart of the greatest military machine in history, was a more powerful enemy than the Allies—the rising of the proletariat.

The German imperial government. the German bourgeoisie, preferred sur-render to the bourgeois nations of the West, which respect private property, to the social revolution . . Even now, as the Russian bourgeoisie before them, they are appealing to the Allies for help against their own "red" work-

EFFECTS OF GALICIAN OFFENSIVE

In July, 1917, after three months of maction, the Russian armies were ordered to advance in Galicia. During those months there had been almost continuous fraternisation on the Eastern front. The German an lies were becoming demoralised — whole regiments refused to fire on the Russian ines, were reorganised, and many oldiers executed. There was alarn throughout Germany. But the Galic-ian offensive broke the spell Nothing could have been more welcome to the German high command.

In Stockholm, in August, I saw a etter written by Rosa Luxemburg to

"So, you Russians have broken the peace! The Russian Revolution

It was because of th man advance on Riga although there had in that sector since the Army Committee Army evacuated th soldiers went about ment, posting on all spaces this proclamat German Soldiers!

"The Russian soldie Army draw your atten of the Twelfth that you are carryin tion to the fact autocracy against rev on a war for and justice. The vie lution, freedom will be death to den ory of Wilhelm dom. 'We withdraw fi eracy and free-m Riga, but we know that the forces will ultimately prove powerful than the f We know that in th ce of cannons. conscience will over long run your and that the German ne everything. march to the victory Army, will are at present stron freedom. You but yours is only the than we are. force. The moral for rength of brute is on our side. letariat went against ary brothers, and international working heir revolution at they forgot This crime you can ex means. You must ate only by one versal interests, and immense power aga and go hand in hand strain all your st imperialism, ith us—towards life and liberty!"

A month later m of the Russian ba el. The sailors Baltic, in convention leships in the assembled, sent

'The revolutionar Baltic fleet . . . send s that the Gerrades who have taken part in the insurrection at Kiel.

oduced from the American Magazine "Liberator" where it originally appeared, in 1919 this ollapse and disintegration of the Army of German Imperialism. Not only did it disintegrate ialists, who, previously warring between themselves, UNITED AS A CLASS in order to smash

This contrasts sharply with the propeganda of the Stalinists which is NATIONALIST AND by the war aims of the bureaucracy and its capitulation to its imperialist "democratic"

> "The Russian sailors are in complete possession of their battleships. The Sailors' Committees are the high command. The yacht of the former Czar, the Polar Star, is now the headquarters of the Fleet Committee, which is composed of common sailors, one from each

"Since the Revolution, the Russian Fleet is as busy as formerly, but the Russian sailors will not use the fleet to fight their brothers, but everywhere to fight under the Red Flag of the International for the freedom of the prole-fariat throughout the entire world."

BOLSHEVIKS APPEAL TO WORKERS

The first act of the Bolshevik uprising in November was to order all company regimental and army committees on the Russian front to begin fraternisation with the Germans and to conclude immediate temporary armistice treaties with the military units opposing them.

On the night of November 8, in the Congress of Soviets, Lenin read the decree of peace, part of which said:

"Addressing this proposal for peace to the governments and peoples of all the belligerent countries, the Provisional Workers' and Peasants' Government of Russia addresses itself also in particular to the concious workmen of the three most advanced nations of humanity and the greatest of the powers participating in the present war—England, France and Germany.
The workers of these countries have rendered great service to the cause of progress and socialism; the Chartist

At the same time a proclamation to the German soldiers was drawn up, printed in millions of copies and not only smuggled across the front but dropped from airplanes inside Ger-

"To the German Soldiers!

"Soldiers, Brothers!
"On October 25 (old style), the workmen and soldiers of St. Petersburg overthrew the imperialistic government of Kerensky and placed the whole power in the hands of the Soviets of Workers', Soldiers' and Peasants' Deputies. The new government, under Congress of Workers' and Soldiers' Deputies. Our programme, to the execution of which the government has immediately proceeded, consists in a proposal of an immediate democratic their governments, in the transfer without compensation of all the land to the peasants for their use, and in the realisation of workers' control over will in the future leave none untried, in order that all the belligerent governments and peoples shall be informed of the full content of our peace negotiations. In addition to the abovementioned peace proposal, we consider it our duty to address ourselves particularly to you, as representatives of a nation which is at the head of the coalition engaged in war against Russia on an extensive front.

in the struggle for immediate peace

greetings to their heroic German com- | movement in England, the series of revolutions carried out by the French proletariat, and lastly, the heroic proletariat, and lastly, struggle against the laws of exception in Germany, and the long, stubborn, disciplinary work of creating proletarian organisations in Germany, which ought to serve as a model for the whole world-all these models of proletarian heroism and historical creation are guarantees that the workers of the above-named countries will understand their duty, which is to deliver humanity from the horrors and results of war. These same workers, by their decisive and energetic action, will help us bring to a successful conclusion the fight for peace and at the working classes from slavery and ex-production and industry.

"We have taken all measures and "Soldiers. Brother! We ask you to stand by socialism with all your might as that is the only means to secure an equitable and permanent peace for the working classes of all countries, and to beal the wounds which the present most criminal of all wars has inflicted

700 ALLIED SEAMEN IN U.S. JAIL-

The United States Immigration authorities, with their Storm Trooper minds, have established their own concentration camp on Rikers Island in New York's East River. This camp has been dubbed, by the inmates. 'Dachau - on - the - River' and 'Devil's Island''. The Immigration authorities have thrown into this camp, not German or Italian Fascists, but 700 seamen from the "United Nations" of Norway, Greece, Holland and China. The crime these men committed was to protest against the miserable living conditions aboard their ships.

The existence of this concentration camp has been known along the waterfront for some time, but the conditions within the camp were revealed for the first time in an exclusive story appearing in the N. Y. Post on October 2. The Post revealed that the men live under the most primitive conditions in cold bar-racks and are denied the most essential health services.

"Each prison building contains four overhead radiators, totally inadequate in winter," wrote the Post reporter. "There are 100 men in each building now, and they sleep on steel cots without mattresses. The bedding consists of two small sheets and four dirty cotton blankets, one of which serves as a mattress.

"The men are subject to strict prison discipline. They are marched to and from the mess hall in formation and while eating must maintain silence. Most of the detainees have lost weight and many complain of weakness be-cause of poor food. They are not allowed to receive mail, food or cigarettes from outside.

"There have been several small demonstrations of protest . . the leaders of these demonstrations have been put in solitary confinement on bread and water. One man died after pleading vainly for medical attention."

CHARGES AGAINST THE SEAMEN

Some of these men are held for the crime of losing their seamen's papers, others for over-staying shore leave, others for insubordination aboard ship, others for outright desertion of their jobs which had imposed upon them slave hours and wages and working conditions.

What the Post story did not reveal was the miserable condi-tions aboard the "United Na-tions" ships and the fact that this "Dachau-on-the-River" is a deliberate campaign of terror on the part of American authorities in an effort to drive these seamen back to their jobs.

The United States government has pledged to England and to the governments-in-exile located in London, that the comparativespips will not be allowed spread to the "United Nations" ships coming into American ports. It has pledged further

N REED AND THE MMUNIST PARTY

with never slac Shoof the World the world. Her millions of cop

Instead of

is a book which I should like to see published in and translated into all languages." rrying out Lenin's wish, the Stalinists suppress "Ten uppress every truthful or contemporary history of rehashed bourgeois "historians' o impressed with the truthfulness and vigour of ngs on the Russian Revolution that he wrote in the teed's best work: "With the greatest interest and ning attention I read John Reed's 'Ten Days that Unreservedly do I recommend it to the workers of epared to allow the "News Chronicle" to years before the outbreak of the war in OUT OUT ALL REFERENCE TO

Through the long menths of the war these tasks of exposure and clarification have been carried cut. But also as the months have passed, a more positive aspect of our work has increased its specific weight in the paper—the positive alternative which our Party holds out as against the treacherous policies of Transport House and King Street.... Exposure, vital as it is, and necessary as it will continue to be in the future, is not enough.

Great masses of workers and soldiers have been moved inexorably to the Left by the events of the war. Industrially, politically, militarily, they have found themselves becoming more and more disillusioned in the capitalist class, its Government and its officer caste. More and more that independence and initiative which built up the Labour Movement has sought to find expression in the conditions of the war, and to burst the chains of hypocritical "national unity." But the traditional channels of expression have been closed and sealed up by the leaders of the unions and the Labour Party.

Sporadically in one place or another this movement has tried to find expression by pushing a so-called "Independent" candidate into Parliament. But these gentlemen have proved one and all to be no different from the official candidates, except in their promises. This path has ended in a blind alley. In this situation the earlier feeling of frustration among the workers has given place to a process of regroupment particularly among the left socialist and militant sections. The disillusionment with the Labour and Stalinist policies has given rise to the desire to create and build an alternative policy and party.

It is to the building of that alternative that the "Socialist Appeal" and Workers International League have devoted themselves. The policy of W.I.L. offers the only guarantee to the British masses against the forces both of Hitler and the capitalist class at home.

The lessons of the recent period of history in one country after another can be focussed on the same point—that there was in these countries no closely knit and soundly built party with a firm policy taking of power "Popular Fronts," "national unity," every sort of unprincipled amalgamation: but never a genuine workers' party prepared to take the power, and with a programme that could win the masses.

W.I.L. sets itself the task of building such a party. The programme is no dead set of rules and tenets but a live instrument of power which responds to the changing situation, though never losing its firm Marxist foundation. The nucleus of the party-is already formed, and as it grows it turns outwards more and more towards broader circles of the workers.

The first stage of the struggle for a party is over. W.I.L. has left the narrow discussion circles which are an inevitable stage on the way toward the building of a fresh movement and leadership, and is already taking its place on the actual field of battle. W.I.L. now places itself directly before the workers and offers its pregramme as the only solution of their problems.

A year is just beginning. It will see mighty events and portentous changes both on the international scene and on the field of the class struggle at home. Those events will sharpen and crystallize the moods and demands among the British workers. They will impress on the workers more and more the iron necessity for an independent class policy. It is the historic task of the Fourth Internationalists in Britain to provide that policy and to build up the party that will lead the way to its successful application. It is on this road that there lies the true continuation of British Labour's militant past.

thing in Germany was falling . . . For months the of the two armies had frater. and our officers were powerless . . . Then suddenly, without a word of warning, the Russian fired on their German comrades! After that it was easy to convince the Germans that the Russian peace was a lie. Ala, my poor friends! Germany will destroy you now, and for us is black despair come again . . .

uppress every truthful or contemporary history rrying out Lenin's wish, the Stalinists suppress "Ten pared to allow the "News Chronicle" to years before the outbreak of the war in TROTSKY! OVIDED THEY CUT OUT ALL REFERENCE TO made this provi is not hard to understand why the Stalinist falsifyier functionary in the hen only as joint signatory to some documents as a to Lenin and T he state machine, while the pages teem with references rotsky as the leaders and inspirers of the October in the struggle for immediate peace, as that is the only means to secure an equitable and permanent peace for the working classes of all countries, and to most criminal of all wars has inflicted on humanity . . . "

This was followed by the "Appeal to the Toiling and Exploited Peoples of All Lands", and the texts of the de-cree on peace and the decree on land.

A proclamation printed for the Austrian trenches hailed Friedrich Adler, arrested for assassinating a reactionary Minister in Vienna, as the "Eagle" (ADLER) of the international social

The United States governme has pledged to England and to governments-in-exile located in London, that the comparative spread to the "United Nations" ships coming into American ports. It has pledged further that all steps possible would be taken to prevent desertions of the exploited and desperate alien "Dachau-on-the-River" is the S. Government's method of fulfilling these pledges.

Salute to Three Great Revolutionaries

It is fitting, at the beginning of another year, to pause amid the mad whirl of events and pay homage to three of the greatest of all proletarian revolutionists, Lenin, Liebknecht and Luxemburg who all died during the month of January.

The first imperialist war of 1914 found Lenin, Liebknecht and Luxemburg solid in their political opposition to all the warring capitalist governments. And that opposition was based on socialist internationalism and the lass struggle.
Karl Liebknecht and Rosa Luxemburg, heroic leaders of the revolution-ary wing of the German Labour Movement, were murdered by Police Officers on January 15th, 1919. And this dur-ing the Social-Democratic regime of Ebert, Noske and Scheideman—the Bevins and Morrisons of pre-Nazi Germany. Lenin died on January 21st, five years later.

These three revolutionists often differed on tactical questions but they were in unison on the fundamental issue. They were internationalist to the marrow of their bones, and the lass struggle was the basis of their

Luxemburg

Karl Liebknecht and "Red Rosa" founded and led the Spartacus League which later became the German Com-munist Party. The ideas of its leader-ship was graphically expressed in the following passage from the programme of which Rosa Luxemburg was the

"The workers mu form themselves front learn to transwhich the capitalisty mere machines, processes of product employ in the active-thinking directation, into free, cesses. They must fors of those proof responsible and a acquire the sense the Commonwealth, ctive members of owner of all social which alone is the develop zeal at work ealth. They must of the employer, the without the whip ivity without the spu drivers, discipline wir of the capitalist order without dominate a yoke, and idealism in the ination. Highest strictest self-discipleoples' interest, spirit of the massesine, true civic the moral basis of s—this constitutes

There you have dialism." tion that mankind's nshakable convicbound up with the historic destiny is ers to take the powbility of the toil-hands and establisher into their own Karl Liebknecht, Socialism. his book "Militan 1919, wrote in

ism and Anti-Militarism"

"The proletariat wars which are wa knows that the classes impose on ged by the ruling of life and properit heavy sacrifice rewarded with misy for which it is the disabled, functable pensions for ans, and kicks of in aid of veterhas done the wor all kinds after it tariat knows tha . . . The prole-for which it must the fatherland, fatherland, that i fight, is not its has only one real every county it class which oppros—the capitalist ses and exploits easy for pacifist one knows it is fakers and traitors or indbags, labour of all kinds to mouthe working class of all kinds to mouthe working class war in time of peah phrases against of war itself so but the advent counterfeit "socialists volutionary socialists war provided striki It found the tiny leg proof of this scious internationand of class controlled with sciolated in their principled psts isolated in 'leaders' of the Euition from the Labour Movement pean and British the camps of these turned up in gangsters. The secrival imperialist International were as of the Second trenches and Rosapparated by the nounced the "ILuxemburg prostinking corpse". Jernational" "a only possible conclain, drawing the nons from this dorsed, busie^A himself with the pre-parations for the building of the Third International which was founded Liebknecht also maintained his earlier attitude and carried on open political struggle against the war even within the army into which he was drafted. In September 1915, he wrote to the Centrist Anti-War Conference which was held in Zimmerwald, Swit-

"Not civil peace but civil war! International proletarian solidarity against pseudo-national, pseudo patriotic 'class harmony'; national class war for peace, for the Socialist revolution! It is necessary to discus in detail how precisely this war must be waged. Only in close collaboration, only by joint work in ing each other to strengthen the fight can we develop all our forces and achieve the maximum possible results."

He suffered tremendous persecution as did all those who maintained their revolutionary stand and finally, in struggling to guide the German revolution of 1919 slong the same path as the Bolsha viks trod in October 1917 He and Rosa were brutally murdered by the same thugs who later formed the vanguard of Hitler's military organisation which destroyed the German workers' organisations and did not spare the Social-Democratic leaders in whose name they butchered the revolutionists.

Karl Liebknecht

The results of the life work of Lenin stand out clearly for all to see. The Soviet Revolution, despite every obstacle placed in front of it by a hostile capitalist world, and despite the terrible degeneration of the politregime since Lenin's death, has I he unveiled the statue of Lei revealed in practice during the past eighteen months the incontestable supremacy of nationalised means of production coupled to a planned econ-omy over private ownership and cap-

When todal in capitalist Britain we have the traducers trying to inspire the working masses here to the same level of effort in fighting the bosses' war against German imperialism as is being displayed by the heroic Soviet toilers in defence of nationalised property, it is well to recall some words of Lenin directed against the Men-shevik predecessors of Stalin and his agents. In the opening passage of his amous pamphlet "State and Revolu-ion". Lenin wrote of the falsifiers: "Marx's doctrines are now undergoing the same fate, which, more than once in the course of history, has befallen the doctrines of other revolutionary thinkers and leaders of oppressed classes struggling for emancipation. During the lifetime of great revolutionaries, the oppressing classes have invariably meted out to them relentless persecution, and received their teaching with the most savage hostility, most furious hatred, and a ruthless campaign of lies and slanders. After the death, however, attempts are usually made to turn them into harmless saints, canonising them, as it were, and investing their name with a certain halo by way of "consolation" to the oppressed classes, and with the object of duping them; while at the same time emasculating and vulgarising the real essence of their revolutionary theories and blunting their revolutionary edge. At the present time the bourgeoisie and the opportunists within the Labour movement are co-operating in this work of adulterating Marxism. They omit, obliterate, and distort the revolutionary side of its teaching, its revolutionary soul, and push to the foreground and extol what is, or seems, acceptable to the bourgeoisie." Lenin could well have addressed hese remarks to characterise the actions of the present day Mensheviks, the Stalinists, who, participate in such obscene ceremonies as Maisky, in company with a host of bourgeois politicians, recently took part in when and Luxemburg.

Whilst doing this they or obliterate and distort" the revolution ary side of his teachings to jus their support of "democratic" ialism which they claim is ident with the defence of the workers' sta

The Labour leaders, the Liber the Stalinists, the Beveridges and the rest of the flies around the Chur ill dung-heap come forward with e less promises of a better world "a the war". In the interests of "war for freedom" the masses asked to sacrifice all their class in ests now to the bosses, whom t well know, despite the buzzing of flies, will serve up the same rew to the toilers as they did last the 'miserable pensions for the disab funds in aid of veterans, street org and kicks of all kinds . . . '

A genuine war for freedom w merits the support of the masses only be waged under the control the toilers themselves. There can no relaxation in the struggle power which alone can give that trol to the working class. Our to during the present period could not better formulated than in that el cal sentence of Rosa Luxembi "Either the class struggle is the perative law of proletarian existe also during war . . . or the class str gle is a crime against the natio interests and the safety of the fat land also in time of peace!"

That is the answer to those fifeaders' who say "abandon class struggle until the war is then we can fight for socialism" more concessions the workers during the war to the class enemy harder the struggle for socialism be after the war is over.

The Third International, like its decessor, is today also a "stinl corpse." On a world scale the part and cadres of the Fourth Internati are the continuators of the policy the revolutionary international Their ideas, their traditions and work is carried on by the Fourth D national. In continuing the stru for the building of the revolution socialist party in Britain, World International League is proving action that only we, the Trotsk; are the genuine inheritors of the mortal traditions of Lenin, Liebkn

HEALY.

toil for the war

now linked to-

.W.O. persecution.

problems demands

m unity between n demands of the

OM WITHIN

ovement, as well

for the coming ent embarks on strial regimenta-leaders actively power to paraesistance. If it a straight fight

there would be osing the main traitors from the barrier to ion bureaucrats.

nmunist Party

e unionists. The are brought into

Anti-Soviet Talk Among British Officers

BY A. SCOTT

The Montgomery-Von Thoma and Eisenhower-Darlan incidents are only two of many recent indications of the leanings and sympathics of the British and American officer caste.

In Egypt at least, they have not troubled to hide their attitude to the Soviet Union. Philip Jordan writes in his book, "Russian Glory" about:

"Garrulous army officers, too many of whom have been going about saying that they suppose one day we shall have to clean up Russia as we are cleaning up Germany . . . General Auchinleck has had to put a stop to such immoral chatter among the officers of his staff; but he has done it with that sort of faint-heart edness that leaves matters rather worse than they were before. quite understands that officers should feel as they do about supplies going to Russia, and appreciates their point of view, but he insists, none the less, that all comments on the subject shall cease. In other words 'go on being a Blimp, by all means, my dear fellow, but for Christ's sake keep it under your hat for the time

In the same book Jordan points out "It was not very sensible to invite the White Russian colony in Cairo long known for its rabid anti-Sovietism-to organise a ball in aid of the

Russian Red Cross.'

The same attitude to the Soviet Union was displayed by "a Cabinet Minister's son who stated openly that no stick is too dirty with which to beat a German'.

When Philip Jordan visited General Weygand in Syria before the fall of France he found that:

"The old gentleman was infinitely more concerned with the hope of an attack by the Allies on Russia than he was concerned with the necessity . . The first of beating the Germans and largest maps that I saw in his headquarters . . . were maps showing how best and most easily British and French troops could move up to the Armenian plateau and attack the oil wells at Baku.'

Weygand's subsequent history known to everybody. He handed France over to Hitler rather than risk the danger of the workers taking

The British soldiers are now fight ing under an officer caste which has precisely the same class basis, sympathies and fears as Weygand.

Even before Weygand, Churchill himself expressed the opinion that foreign conqueror was to be preferred to Communism. In his "World Crisis" he wrote in regard to the invasion of the Ukraine by the Germans at the end of the last war: the ukraine these same Germans came as deliverers and were spontaneously recognised as such, not only by the general population, the iron heel of the foreign soldier than unresting persecution by a priesthood of blackguards and fan-

The pictures of Montgomery shaking the hand of the "Butcher of Guernica" are symbolic of the real attitude toward fascism of these fine gentry who officer the army-sons and brothers of the capitalist class, products of Eton and Harrow. For them war is a game played with the lives of the workers and soldiers. They will fight against their fellow capitalists of Germany for Empires and the right to exploit the colonial masses, but immediately a threat arises from the direction of the workers they are one. And even when this threat is not immediate, they show by their treatment of each other that they are really good Hess, von Thoma, Darlan are only three of many. But the same generals and capitalists who are so kind to their fellow-officers are the loudest in demanding the sternest punishment for the German people.

FOR WORKER OFFICERS -

The Labour and Trade Union leaders never tire of exhorting the workers to greater efforts in the "war against Fascism." But what sort of struggle against Fascism can be waged under the control of officers and generals who come from the capitalist class, and who have every sympathy with the totalitarian methods of Hitler and Mussolini? An officer caste which uses the same methods as Hitler in the colonies. An officer caste which finds common language with Fascism in the twinkling of an eye. An officer caste which would turn on the British workers with the greatest of ease if he capitalists required this.

The alternative is officers who are truly anti-Fascist and pro-Soviet. And such officers must come from the ranks of the soldiers and workers themselves. For they have a genuine interest in smashing Fascism whether at home or abroad. Real militants elected from the ranks themselves and trained in special schools set up by the Trade Unions would offer an entirely different leadership from the present officer caste. They would never make deals with Darlan and his like, or show anything but implacable hatred for the Hesses and von Thomas.

WE DEMAND THE RIGHT OF THE RANK AND FILE TO ELECT THEIR OWN OFFICERS.

WE DEMAND THAT THE LABOUR AND TRADE UNION LEADERS FIGHT FOR THE SET-

-Industrial Militants-Need a Programme

BY GER

Directly or indire is certain from the events of their memberships 1942. The mounting wave of effort, and as such conflict with the "unofficial" strikes, headed by which arise. Engir the miners, shipbuilders and dockers, has paved the way for gether by a se problems, such as resurgence of militant trade wage demands and union action in the teeth of the This unification of in turn the maxim united opposition of the bureau- all rank and file tr erats, the Government and the key to its mobilis formulation of a fi Communist Party. And it is catering for the ma

A big struggle lies ahead in only the beginning. The grow- as a united strateg the field of industry; this much numerous wage issues unfold.

eight months it is estimated that 17,000

dockers alone have been transferred.

Here again the workers must suffer.

electricians 9/- a week in wages. All this on top of the fact that many of these workers have been torn away from their families and thrust into overcrowded lodgings, hundreds of

The Essential Works Order has become known as the Employers

Charter. Under its legislation the workers have lost the right to strike and all disputes which cannot be solved through negotiation are referred to the National Arbitration

In return for losing the right to strike the trade union leaders made great play over the fact that employers were denied the right to sack workers. But out of 773 prosecutions under the E.W.O., and only were employers, whilst there were 91 cases of imprisoned, even the imprisonment. Not one employer was 1. Withdray miles away from home.

ing dissatisfaction of a large struggle. section of trade unionists at the THE ATTACK FR

Whilst the Gover paltry pittance doled out by the Arbitration Tribunals, finding its tion, the trade uni assisted by the " most advanced expression in the do everything in th lyse rank and file A.S.L.E. & F. deadlock, comes were only a case increasingly to the fore as the against the employ little difficulty in enemy, but it is The Transference of Labour Scheme within that constiis now in full swing. During the last this exposure. In the past «tewards movemen to the left of the the job has been In the case of shipyard transference, steelworkers have lost up to £1 and trading a demagog succeeded in exerc amount of influence the war the Nation Stewards was exte in most of the imp tries, which can be mid-summer confere

> Russia's entry into inmasked the count the Stalinists; over the extreme right v Their National Communist Party was a god-send to the bureaucrats. They knew that the whole of Stalin's men would be willing candidates for their dirty work. It suits them to take a back seat whilst the numerous issues Pollitts and the Len Powells rush from rs, miners, ship- the Tyneside to South Wales exhortctricians, transing strikers to blackleg and scab. The union leaders want if possible to let ies of common the Communist Party "hold the baby" haos in industry, whilst they keep well in the background. They also know that the Stalinists who in the past exercised a far greater influence over the shop stewards than themselves, are a far greater strike-breaking force, particularly since they masquerade under the banner of "Defend the Soviet Union."

> During the past twelve months the Communist Party have "run wild" in the unions. They openly boast of the campaign against Trotskyism which they have started in the A.E.U. (see "Worlds News & Views" 28 Dec. 1942). By Trotskyists they mean trade unionists who pursue a militant policy. In the T.G.W.U. and the E.T.U. a similar drive is in progress.

Stalinists are far more thorough in hounded in this campaign. Even their persecution of trade union mili-skilled men who have hitherto held tants than the union bosses. They craft prejudices and would perhaps be have much more experience in dodging classified as "right-wingers" are now such persecution, since at one time victims of similar methods. Consethe workers on quently they utilise their experience Communist Party. ng a considerable trol over the General Purposes Comover its leading mittee of the A.E.U., and behind the ssia's entry into scenes they scheme to have the shop Committee of Workers' International militants. Before Plussias entry into ling its influence all militants who refuse to toe "the rtant war indus- Party line." Many cases have come to en from the 1940 light where this method has been used nce at Birming .- in attempts to smash up well-organised departments. The E.C. of the A.E.U. he war quickly are aware of this and silently consent, feit militancy of Tanner, Smith and Co. are happy to ght they became let the Communist Party go ahead g of the unions. as long as they do not menace their incil of Shop jobs. The preservation of democracy refuge for strike- inside the trade unions against the attacks of the leadership and the Communist Party is one of the most urgent tasks ahead.

Industrial Organiser Workers' International League.

UNITY GROWS

The drive to victimise and frame-up militants has not gone un-noticed. It must be acknowledged that the Every good trade unionist is being openly denounced as "Trotskyists' has always stood or another they themselves have been because they oppose the "Shock Brigade" rate-cutting policy of the In fact there is sponsible for an to carry out the most filthy attacks developing right throughout the outlook. By possible against leading Trade Union- country an opposition to the Stalinists leftist policy for ists. In the London district, it is well and the trade union leaders. What is unist Party have known that they have complete con- needed at the moment is a movement

> This need prompted the Industrial League to approach the Independent Labour Party and the Anarchists for united action on the industrial field.

This action resulted in the London Division of the I.L.P. calling together a meeting of all trade union militants irrespective of political affiliation to discuss the situation brought about by the "Anti-Trotskyite' campaign. The response, considering the short notice, was extremely gratifying. Leading trade unionists and shop stewards from all the important unions enthusiastically responded to the call; the keynote of the discussion was the vital necessity for a defensive front against the C.P. and the trade union leaders in their campaign of victim-

The discussion, however, revealed a certain amount of confusion insofar as a method of work and a perspective was concerned. This was not surprising, but by a united effort it will Repeal of all anti-working class be quickly overcome. Some comrades displayed a negatively hostile approach

THE JEWS ACTION NOT WORDS BY ROSE CARSON The Nazi persecution of the Jews

PLIGHT OF

seems to have reached a new high level. From the Continent come reports that quote Nazi leaders as saying "Hitler means to literally exterminate the race." Various other sources state that a million Jews have already been massacred.

Knowing the Nazi record of brutality it can be readily accepted that the persecution of the Jews has been savage and terrible in the extreme. But this has been going on more or less consistently for ten years. Yet only now is it being given widespread publicity by the Allied capitalist press.

EXAGGERATIONS CAN ONLY HARM JEWS

Remembering the official statements of the British press and various responsible politicians who nonchalantly admitted after the last war that most of the atrcoity stories such as, Throwing babies onto their bayonets for sport, and boiling the dead bodies for fat", was necessary war time propaganda; remembering this, it is essential that the Jews throughout the world shall not allow themselves to be used as mere anti-German propaganda. Especially is this the case, since precisely these hypocritical 'atrocity mongers" do not hesitate to foster anti-semitism in Britain. They consistently whip up race hatred by playing up reports of Jewish black marketeers and other profiteering offences, and playing down the offences of the non-Jews.

The stories circulating of the babies of 500 Jewish mothers being used as footballs, and of babies being used for bayonet practice, can only tend to harm the plight of the Jewish victims by making honest and intelligent people sceptical. We believe that such stories come from the same laboratory as those of the last war. These parliamentary hypocrites who hold up their hands in horror, and stand trembling with deep emotion in the House of Commons in sympathy with the victims of Nazi persecution, have not in the past, nor will they in the future raise a finger to save these unfortunate people.

BRITISH DENY REFUGEES ASYLUM

Industrial Programme of Worker International League

portant firms as B.T.H. and Barr & Strouds refused Government Departoreign conqueror was to be preferred Communism. In his "World Crisis" he wrote in regard to the inasion of the Ukraine by the Germans t the end of the last war:

Germans came as deliverers and were spontaneously recognised as such, not only by the general population, but by those patriotic elements most hostile to the invaders of Russia. A dose of Communism induces a desire in any population to welcome any other form-even the harshest-of civilised authority. With the arrival of the German 'steelhelmets' life again became tolerable . . . Better hatred for the Hesses and von Thomas.

WE DEMAND THE RIGHT OF THE RANK AND FILE TO ELECT THEIR OF THEIR return for contribution, rather than free allowances from the state, is what the people of Britain desire", and receipt of the benefits that are proposed would necessitate the payment of contributions that on the average would be more than double those now paid workers under the National Health and Unemployment Insurance

WE DEMAND THAT THE ABOUR AND TRADE UNION LEADERS FIGHT FOR THE SET-FING UP OF MILITARY TRAIN-NG SCHOOLS FOR THE TRAIN. ING OF WORKER OFFICERS. THESE TO BE FINANCED BY THE STATE AND RUN BY THE TRADE UNIONS.

BEVERIDGE— Empty Promise

PROMISES LESS THAN DOLE

We have not the space to deal with each single rate of benefit, nor is it necessary. But we can safely assume that all the payments are based on Sir William's assessment of a "minimum" standard for the subsistence of a single person. The payment for a single man or woman of 21 or more, would be £1. 4. 0 per week. There is no suggestion that the cost of living is going to decrease from its present standard. On the contrary, the capitalist press as a whole points to the fact that it will be higher. What with the steady rising of the bank note issue, the soaring of prices and accumulation of a huge war debt internally (war savings) and externally (lease lend), inflation is inevitable with a consequent rise in the cost of living.

When we consider that to date food prices have increased by about 70 per cent since 1939 and other articles for sale by about 55 per cent, a process of simple arithmetic shows that even now 11. 4: 0 would be less adequate than the amount received by a single personone the dole before the war. Consequently it is not difficult to appreciate that, not only would the plan be no improvement on pre-war conditionsbut in fact it would be worse!

On top of all this, the rightly detested Means Test (which Sir William says must go), is to be replaced by compulsion of "attending a work or training centre." There is no guarantee that these centres will not take on the form of the hideous labour camps and if a worker refuses to go, he would once again be confronted with his old friend "Want" because he would not have fulfilled the "conditions of con-tinuous benefit"! These labour camps re to be instituted because Sir William laims that "Idleness . . . corrupts men whether they are well fed or not." We ere entitled to ask what is intended to ec done with the handful of corrupted idle rich, who never work but live off the fat of the land?

The avoidance of mass unemployment, which Sir William has stated is necessary for the successful operation of the scheme, is dependent upon the prospects of "expanding prosperity." ir William Jowitt has stated that "we should emerge from this war a much poorer nation, a debtor nation, and not a creditor nation." Driven out of her one time markets, faced with the competition of her highly developed Amcrican rival, mass unemployment is invitable in the coming period.

Why then, it may be asked, has so much publicity been given to the Beveridge plan? Why has the capitalist press boosted it so loudly? The answer can be found in the nightmares that haunt the ruling class. When they give full publicity to Sir William Beveridge's statement that the plan "is a British revolution", they do so because they know that the workers look forward to a radical change at the conclusion of the war, and they fear a genuine independent revolutionary movement on the part of the workers to achieve that change. But the workers will not be so easily sidetracked and misled as they were twenty years ago. Indeed, already scepticism and distrust prevail, in particular among the most advanced sections of the working class.

"DAILY WORKER" READERS "PERPLEXED"

In the "Daily Worker" (22.12.42) in an article headed "Neither Empty under the E.W.O., 26 only were employers, whilst there were 91 cases of imprisonment. Not one employer was 1. Withdra imprisoned, seen theugh such portant firms as B.T.H., and Barr & Strouds refused Government Depart ments permission to enquire into their 2. Democratisation costings systems.

In almost every instance similar lessons and experiences are being drummed into the minds of the advanced militants. The Arbitration Tribunals work in favour of the employers; the Transfer of Labour Scheme is being used to victimise active trade unionists and workshop militants; the Massive legislation of the Essential Works Order is being utilised in its most vicious form to regiment and discipline the workers, MOBILISATION OF whilst the employers are allowed to MINIMUM DEMANLSETS FOR reap untold profits out of the misery 1. and suffering of the war. The collaboration between the bureaucrats and the Government has transformed the trade unions from weapons of in- 2. dependent class struggle into playthings of the employers and their Government. Task number one for the future is the ending of this disastrous 3.

COMMON PROBLEMS

It would be a mistake to imagine that problems which arise out of this process are confined exclusively to the engineering unions. The war has cut 5. sharply across the sectional existence of the vast majority of trade unions.

bell admits that the attitude of the Communist Party "perplexed a number of our readers". He complains about "those readers who express a more sharply antagonistic attitude to the Report", and accuses those workers who are saying "they will trick us again" of "rank defeatism". The truth is that these workers who criticise the Plan know instinctively that behind all the phrases and verbostity of the Report and the press campaign to popularise it, lies another attempt to pull

FALSIFIERS LINK

REVOLUTIONARIES

WITH REACTIONARIES

Instead of giving a lead to leftward moving workers, the Communist Party, who obviously are fully aware of the fakery behind the Beveridge Plan, are attempting to cover it up and assist in swinging it on the workers, because of their servility to Churchill and his class, and in line with the 20 years

Pact between Stalin and Churchill!

They use the traditional language of the reformists, and instead of placing socialism as an immediate perspective arising from the war, they say this is an "unreal alternative" (Campbell).

In their traditional role of falsifiers the wool over their eyes.

Promise nor New Trick", J. R. Camp- | of Frank Pitcairn, stat

BEUINCE

the replacement one unions and cracy with miline top bureau-is from the 100 per cent. trac

A factory comr

every factory.

Union organisatio industry instead oo be based on

Area and Maraft. Councils to be for al Workers' Councils and fact from Trades committees

Workers control o profiteering, misnudustry to end chaos. agement and

Confiscation of al company books to ar profits-all union inspection. open to trade

Nationalisation w tion of arms indutt compensaways and banks, y, mines, rail-

Sliding scale of w increased cost os to meet the guaranteed minimiving with a 4.

Equal pay for penalisation of Wal work, no in industry.

oppose the Plan "provat those who store of political am an enormous enemy" and attempt iition to the working class criticislink genuine with that of Big Business.

bution of food, clothes, under control of price-fixing committees to be set up from representatives of distributive employees, co-operatives, housewives and small shop-keepers.

organisation in WORKERS TO CONTROL TRANSFER OF LABOUR

- ee in every 1. No transfer of labour from Government factories to private enterprise.
 - 2. No transfer of labour to be carried out at financial loss to the workers.
 - Transfers to be under the control of shop stewards and factory committee to avoid victimisation.
 - Trade union control of hotel accommodation to house transferred workers.

WORKERS MILITARY POLICY

- 1. For military training of all workers under trade union control.
- Establishment of military schools under trade union control at the expense of the state for the training of worker officers.
- For access to arms for all workers.
- Home Guard into the trade unions'
- for all workers in the armed forces. part.

to the C.P. which tends to lump the rank and file with the leadership. This must be corrected if we are really to smash Stalinist influence in industry. Unfortunately there are a number of workers who still hope against hope that the C.P. will remain faithful to the communist principle. They do not like the present line, but they believe it is only a temporary 'tactic." Whilst every organisational step will be taken to guard against the victimisation policy of the Stalinists, it must be understood that what these renegades fear most is a correct industrial programme, because they know that this is what appeals to their most class concious militant rank and filers, as well as to trade unionists as a whole.

Instead of confining itself to the organisation of the engineering workers, the committee must embrace representatives of all the basic industries. In this way it will be possible to develop agitation inside these industries and at the same time unite the maximum number of trade unionists.

A committee which is composed of representatives of all the trades, armed with a fighting programme, will be a great factor in assisting the process of knitting together the greatest possible number of militants and shop stewards in every industry, whilst at the same Dissoultion of capitalist controlled time catering for the demands of workers in each particular industry.

1943 will be a decisive year for the British labour movement. Let all en and youth 5. Trade union wages and conditions trade unionists resolve to play their

READ:-

The British politicians responsible for this spate of horror stories first make sure that the gates of Britain and the Empire are tightly closed against any attempt of these unfortunates to find refuge within its borders. Let us recall the horrible story that went unmentioned some months ago; a story which equals anything perpetrated by the Nazis, actually or allegedly. The "Struma", a small ship packed with 765 men, women and children, harried victims escaping from Nazi terror, sailed via Turkey for Palestine. (Palestine was promised to the Jews as well as to the Arabs in the last war, but this has since been admitted also to have been purely for "propaganda purposes"). They were ruthlessly and heartlessly turned back by the British authorities. Appeals to the other "democracies" were of no avail. Eventually they were blown up at sea, where all perished.

ROLE OF STALIN

Not only have the capitalist countries closed their doors to these victims for whom they piously proclaim sym2 pathy, but the Soviet Union under Stalin's leadership, has also refused admission, not only to the Jews but to the International Brigaders fleeing from Franco, as well as the antifascist and socialist refugees from Germany. This failure on the part of the Stalinst bureaucracy to conform to one of the first principles and rights of working class democracy: the right of asylum for persecuted individuals and minorities, is one more crime to be laid at its door.

THE TEST

Meanwhile, the Jewish peoples, and particularly the Jewish working class, must not allow the atrocities which the Nazis undoubtedly inflict on the Jews of Europe to be made use of for reactionary ends. I hesitated to say it before, said a leading Church hypocrite at the height of the campaign, but at last the war has become a crusade. That's it. To cover up their imperialist war of plunder they make use of the Jews for propaganda purposes. Later they will inform the world that this was necessary for 'propaganda purposes."

None of the panaceas put forward by middle class utopians to succour the Jews can be effective. Antisemitism is an outgrowth of a decaying system and can only be uprooted with the system that breeds it. The only immediate step that can afford aid to the victims of persecution of whatever colour, race or creed, is for every country to open its gates: this is the test of their sincerity

ONLY SOCIALISM SECURITY "A REVOLUTIONARY MOVE-

A section of Big Bi opposes the Report beess of course. believe in giving evere it does not sions to the working erbal concesprefer to impose a dict, and would iately. But those wo ship immedise it do so because the who critic-R. Campbell that now, despite is an Empty

LABOUR LI SELL OUT DERS

The Labour leaders AIN the scheme as a treme also lauded ward They attempus step forworkers with coloure present the say that the "Plan" pectacles and that the Government lurther proof ment its statements ods to implecoming after the ware good times the Labour and Tradfaving bound ations hand and footion organisstate machine, they the capitalist voice of their masterin echo the know what the schenThese fakers that there will be eally means: operation after the wpeaceful cocontent to co-operationt they are these scoundrels, through the medium enemy in the deception the class

CAN ENSURE SOCIAL

MENT IN THE WORLD'S HIS-TORY IS A TIME FOR REVOLU-TIONS, NOT FOR PATCHING"! That is the idea which must motivate our actions in the struggle for social

"after the war". The "Socialist Appeal" repeats that the only condition under which freedom from Want and the other "giants" can be achieved, is Socialism. The present system which expends £12,000,000 a day on war, but haggles over a few paltry pence for the welfare of the workers in peace time, must go! We declare uncompromising war on the politics of the capitalists who seek to place the whole burden of the crisis on the shoulders of the workers, and threatens to cast them into the pit of pauperism. The workers in the Labour Party, the Trade Unions and other working class organisations must give their answer to the Beveridge Report: Raise the demand that the Labour and Trade Union leaders break the coalition with the reactionary capitalist class and wage the struggle for power for socialism as the only basis for social the people. ' security.

Preparing The working class will reject the Beveridge Plan as not being the kind of for social security to which they aspire Power Tasks and Perspectives of the Fourth Internationalists in Britain Three pence

Published by E. Grant, 61 Northdown Street, N.1 Printed by C. A. Brock & Co., Ltd., (T.U.), 79 Southern Row, Kensal Road, W.10