vertised "friendship" for labor, the net result has been that Big Business has an undisputed strangle-hold on our local, State and federal government. We've seen the very parties that labor has supported, use their political power to organize campaigns against the trade unions. The Taft-Hartley law, authored by the Republicans and used by the Democrats is just one example. Hardly a session of the State or Federal legislature takes place without a new batch of anti-labor bills being passed.

As+a member of organized labor in Los Angeles for over 16 years, I've never seen it fail. I know and you know, I'm sure, that many workers are beginning to ask the question: Why don't we organize independently on the political as well as on the economic field?

Who Threatens War?

Try to imagine a situation in which the Soviet government established military bases in every nation of Europe except two, and in most of the North African and Asian nations. In addition, imagine that the Soviet Union had military bases or missions in almost every country of North and South America. Imagine further that the Russian government had long-range bomber bases in Greenland, Iceland, Cuba, the Bahamas, Panama, Newfoundland, Trinidad, Puerto Rico and several other nations and islands of the Western hemisphere close to U.S. borders.

Imagine further a Soviet Army of six divisions stationed in South America and Soviet officers actively and openly organizing a Latin American army, air force and naval force having an avowed anti-U.S. orientation.

In addition, imagine that half-a-million Russian troops had been sent to intervene in a Mexican civil war under the pretext that they were going to punish the people who "started it" in the interests of international law and order. This Soviet Army, you must imagine, is fighting against Mexican soldiers only a few hundred miles from the U.S. border, and is bombing just south of the Rio Grande.

Finally imagine that this vast outflung Soviet military machine is being increased every month, and that at the same time the Soviet press is filled with maps and diagrams showing the bombing range from these various Soviet bases to New York, Chicago and other cities, the types of Soviet bombers that could make the bombing runs, etc.

After you have imagined all this, turn the entire picture around, and you will have some slight idea of the present world situation. You will see from which nation the threat to peace comes.

The Pentagon has approximately a million-and-a-half U.S. Army, Navy and Air Force personnel spread around the globe. Every nation of the Latin American region except two contains a U.S. military mission or military base or both. Almost every nation close to the Soviet Union, in Africa, Asia or Australia, with the exception of those countries that are directly in the Soviet orbit, has a U.S. military mission, is getting U.S. arms, or has a U.S. army, navy or bomber base on its territory.

In all, there are 27 nations or islands that have one or more U.S. military bases, mostly bomber bases, and 43 nations which are getting U.S. arms and military missions. In addition, there are 53 countries receiving so-called U.S. economic aid.

These are startling facts, but the State Department propagandists say they have an explanaion for all of them. They say that these bases and warlike actions are not aggressive, but are aimed at "stopping aggression." But we have a right to be suspicious of any explanation that is so much in conflict with the facts themselves. The facts CIO OFFICIALS ENDORSE show all the military aggressiveness on the U.S. side; all the invasions and occupations of foreign countries by U.S. troops. The facts show that the U.S., when it talks about "Soviet 'aggression," usually means internal upheavals that take place entirely within a nation when the people become hostile to the old reactionary regimes. The revolutions in China, Indo-China, Malaya, Indonesia, Korea, etc., are thus called "Russian aggression," but in reality they are no such thing, and have become the excuses for a vast military terror campaign of U.S. capitalist aggression. Which brings us to our second point.

How We View Progressive Party

A number of interesting and important questions are asked by some of the hundreds of letter writers who responded so inspiringly to the television and radio broadcasts by Myra Tanner Weiss,

Why Don't Masses Back U.S.?

This is a very important question. It comes up in this connection because the Pentagon imperialists make the following alibi for their aggressive war-drive. They say: "Maybe we have all the troops, bases, missions, etc. abroad, while the Soviet Union has practically none, but their aggression takes a different form. They whip up the people in Asia and Africa and Europe to fight for them. That is Soviet aggression, and that is what we have to counter."

Of course this is a lie. The conservative Stalin bureaucracy hasn't "whipped up" the revolutionary wave. As a matter of fact, it stood flabbergasted by it for a long time, and has only managed to get along with the revolutionary masses for the present because the uprisings are not directed against the Soviet social system.

Mr. Farrell Dobbs: But let us for a moment descend to the level of the .. I have just finished seeing State Department hacks and take the argument they you on television, and it was present. The "reds" whip up the people to fight for them, interesting to note that there they say. All right, we answer, why don't you do that? are other people interested in How come the popular revolutions that have swept and the labor movement. However, up to this point I have been are spreading in Asia and Africa, and that threaten tounable to do much about it. I morrow in Europe itself, are against you? If you are such will be perfectly honest with democrats and Stalin is such a dictator, why do you give you and say that although I the people to him, and send troops and planes to fight believe in a labor party I also against them?

The answer to this is really very simple and contains the clue to the nature of World War III. The revolutions are against Washington because Washington is against the revolutions. And Washington is against the revolutions because the popular movements of Europe, Asia and Africa threaten the very foundations of the capitalist system.

That is why only U.S. troops, sent out from the only capitalist land that can still boast of social stability at home for the present, can be depended on to fight for Wall Street.

Nowhere in the whole world is there any sizable section of the population that is willing to fight and die for Wall Street. Nobody wants the war but Wall Street; nobody is backing Pentagon war plans but a few tiny cliques of imperialists, landlords and capitalists who are the only cnes that stand to lose from the world revolutionary wave. Only the American people are still confused.

We must ask ourselves: What do we have to gain from Wall Street's atomic war?

U.S. Imperialist Eruption Predicted 30 Years Ago

By Thomas Raymond For more than 16 years, from world. Looking back today, a dozen years after his death, we have renewed reason to be impressed by the freshness and vigor of his thought.

So penetrating was his attention to trends of world development that he sometimes anticipated and predicted them many years in advance. One of Trotsky's most remarkable achievements in this respect was his prediction of the role of American capitalism. His analysis, formed thirty years ago, has been borne out with remarkable fidelity.

PROPHETIC WORDS

In the April, 1934 issue of the U.S. magazine Foreign Affairs Trotsky wrote: "Sooner or later, American capitalism must open up ways for itself through the length and breadth of our entire planet. By what methods? By all methods. A high coefficient of productivity denotes also a high coefficient of destructive force.' Around the same time, in his pamphlet War and the Fourth International, he amplified this
