Shocking Brutalities Continue

PRICE: 10 CENTS

By Art Preis NEW YORK, Feb. 24 -New evidence about the killer-cops who terrorize the workers and poor here, especially Negroes and Puerto Ricans, has strikingly confirmed disclosures of wholesale police brutalities and atrocities, including not less than 10 murders, published by The Militant almost two years ago.

Bit by bit, shocking facts long ago publicized by this paper are again coming to light following revelations of the secret deal beween a top-ranking U.S. Justice Department official and Police Commissioner George P. Monaghan's office to remove New York's "finest" from the normal BI investigatory procedures inder the federal civil-rights laws. The effect of this sordid compact, which has brought denunciaion from 19 Negro, labor and civil - rights organizations here, has been to deprive 8½ million people of such federal civil-rights protection as the law provides. It raises the question of what "un-lerstandings" may also exist between Justice Dept. and FBI officials and local police in other parts of the country, particularly in the South.

NEEDLESS OPERATIONS, "GHOST" SURGEONS AND SPLIT FEES By Harry Ring

The recent exposures of crime on the New York waterfront demonstrated that the pursuit of profit can assume some pretty grisly forms. It was established that for the sake of a dollar, knives flash freely, pocketbooks are tapped through wage "kickbacks," "phantom" workers are nently on the growing lists of the spiracy center in Czechoslovakia maintained on company payrolls and loading charges are accused. On the international pushed for all that the traffic will bear, often for totally unnecessary services.

I was reminded of all this when I read in the February 20 issue of U.S. News & World Report how the quest for a fast buck animates many in the medical profession. convenient pretext.

With Dr. Hawley's assertion that "You'd be shocked. . . at the amount of unnecessary surgery that is performed," the following questions and answers are recorded: Q. Why do you suppose a doctor makes an unnecessary in Israel and throughout the operation? A. Money. Q. Just plain dishonest money making? A. Why, of course. Q. Do you think there are doctors who would do that just for the sake of money? A. I don't think it. I know it - and I can prove it.

That was no obscure, unethical fraud talking, but this type to reach this country is Dr. Paul Hawley, director of the American College of Sur- a three-column feature article geons. The amount of unnecessary operations performed, according to him, is indicated by pathological tests of tissue removed in operations. "...Within the normal limits of human error there will always be some normal appendixes taken out," he said, "but when you get over fifteen percent - and I can show you places where sixty and seventy percent of the appendixes removed are normal then there is something wrong there."

The normal rate of caesarean operations in child birth should be three to four percent, he said, but "there are hospitals where it runs to fifteen percent. If that many babies born are through caesarean section, that is unnecessary surgery."

Another widespread racket in the medical field de- world which the Zionist leaders scribed by Dr. Hawley is the use of "ghost" surgeons. He did not try to contact" and deal with. illustrates "ghost" surgery with the following example: "Out in the Polish neighborhood of Chicago, which is a the German Kaiser, the Sultan of monstrous offensive. very large neighborhood, there died about six months ago Turkey, the Pope, Chamberlain of a doctor who in his own neighborhood was reputed as being the greatest surgeon in the world - but he didn't know one end of the scalpel from the other! He goes in, sees a big tumor, rushes you to the hospital, operates. But in the person of its leaders and did he operate? No - he gets some young doctor starving inspirers was not averse to to death. The patient is anesthetized. . . never sees this other surgeon. The surgeon who has never seen the patient does the operation, is slipped $50, and the big shot who doesn't know how to operate collects up to $500 from the family.'

Aside from the financial injustice to the "ghost," the following questions and answers indicate that the patient should be a bit concerned with such a procedure. Q. Does where to cut? A . . . Nine times out of ten he just takes the word of the doctor who tells him what he thinks is wrong. Q. He is like a butcher? A. A meat cutter. One of my friends likes to call them, "hewers of flesh and drawers of blood."

The fastest growing swindle in the medical "profes-sion," according to Dr. Hawley, is that of "fee splitting." Here's how it works: "You have a pain in your side. You think you have appendicitis. . . Well, it is agreed (by your physician) that Dr. Jones is the best surgeon, around here. to the Communist Party, who not of overheard conversation. 'Well, Dr. Jones charges $300 and will take care of everything.' Dr. Jones collects the $300 and kickbacks $150 to the family doctor." Like the stevedoring operators who are concerned with regulating some of the "excesses" of the waterfront racketeers, Dr. Hawley is concerned with curbing the "unethical" practices of some of his racketeering colleagues. It is also interesting to note that just as the stevedoring interests are vigorously opposed to the elimination of the shapeup from which most of the waterfront evils flow, so is Dr. Hawley an ardent defender of "private" medicine, and an outspoken opponent of socialized medicine.

Chiang Troops Prepare

Engaged in their latest maneuvers, Chinese counter. evolutionary troops in Formosa are observed (top) by Gen. Chou Chi-jou, Gen. George H. Olmstead and Gen. Sun Li-jen. At bottom, soldiers take part in "mock attack" on Chinese mainland. Chiang Kai-shek's feeble forces, driven out of China by enraged population, cannot launch effective attack. Gimmick is that they may be used by Wall Street to trigger Asian war into which U.S. forces would be thrown.

Jacob Jackson's Nightmare

Jacob Jackson is a truck-driver, 32 years old, colored. He's a quiet-spoken man and says of himself, "I'm not a fighter. I like to let people alone and be let alone. I never had any trouble with the police in my life."

Not, that is, until the warm Saturday night of last August 9. Jackson had started in the direction of a grocery store, strolling slowly so his wife, Geneva, could catch up with him. She was coming down the steps of their home at 437 W. 52nd Street, midtown Manhattan.

Jackson noticed a group of men playing cards on the curb. The game suddenly broke up and the men ran past him. The next thing he knew he got a violent shove in the back, a big fist smashed into his mouth and nose and the blood started spurting. The owner of the fist was police officer William Brennan.

'Officer, rather than beat me around in the street, why don't you take me to the station house and find out what right you have to beat me?" said the shocked victim. The cop told him he was under arrest and he was taken to a patrol car.

A man named Samuel Crawford came up and asked Brennan for his badge. He was placed under arrest. Jackson's wife came up and anxiously asked what was wrong. She was seized and hauled off in another patrol car.

At the W. 54th St. Station. Brennan promptly began to beat up the two arrested men. An inspector was in the police station and was heard to tell the policemen to take the two to a hospital. "The inspector went away and we were handcuffed. They started kicking us and shoving us toward the door." Jackson later told a N.Y. Post reporter in the offices of Edward W. Jacko Jr., Chairman of the Legal Redress Committee of the New York Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. The NAACP is pressing Jackson's case before a Federal grand jury.

'They knocked me down seven or eight times. Crawford only went down twice and he stayed down. I kept getting up and each time they knocked me back down. I was dazed. I was crying, I hollered. I begged Brennan to stop kicking me but he only told me to shut up. Finally they took us to Roosevelt Hospital. We were there about an hour. My head was paining so that I just passed out."

He was discharged from the hospital without treatment, taken back to the station and another cop started beating him. "The officer said: 'I want some more of him, too,' and he hit me right in the stomach with his fist and I went down," Jackson said. "He told me to get up and then punched me in the jaw real hard. My jaw was sore. My tooth hasn't stopped aching yet. Then they locked us up - my wife, Crawford and me."

Jackson's boss from the Tempesta & Sons trucking firm bailed him out three days later. On his second day back on the job, Jackson collapsed. He was taken to the Roosevelt hospital, then brought back home. He went into a coma for four days, waking up in the St. Clare hospital. The doctors operated twice on his brain to remove blood clots

He's back on the iob now, but as a helper, not a driver. 'I'm afraid to drive." he explained, "because I get terrible eadaches and I don't want to hurt anybody.

Our Interest in Bolivia From sources in Bolivia we have learned that. Washington is bringing powerful pressure to bear from behind the scenes against the Estenssoro government. First of all, the Bolivian government is threatened by a boycott on tin. Representatives of the tin trust calculate that industry and the war-machine can get by for a considerable period without buying Bolivian tin by relying on sources in Malaya, Indonesia and Africa. Meanwhile, Washington has made some purchases in order to bolster up Estenssoro and keep him on the hook. Besides these purchases Washington is dangling a still bigger carrot - heavy loans that will help the Estenssoro regime stabilize itself. But the price demanded for such aid is . a heavy one. .

First of all, guarantees are asked that will open the door to de-nationalization of the tin mines. To make it more palatable, funds would be provided for reimbursement of the expropriated tin trust barons and these hated symbols of foreign exploitation would retire from public view in Bolivia. However, they would be replaced by a different set of exploiters - American companies - who would ease their way into control through some official U.S. government sponsorship formula.

Even more important is the requirement that the Estenssoro government vigorously oppose the rising tide of revolution. Even if American Big Business felt it advisable to let the nationalizations in Bolivia go by for the time being with nothing more than angry protests, it is alarmed about the repercussions of the revolution throughout the rest of the world, above all in the other countries of Latin America, and wants to crush this possibility before it develops.

If Bolivia can get away with it, then what ing for a pole of unification and command, created the Central about Chile, Venezuela, Guatemala and the Obrera Boliviana in the heat of others? Washington fears, and rightly so, that the triumph of the insurrection the revolution in Bolivia can spill down out of of April 9. ## Atomic Grab by Monopolies

A warning comes from the CIO that America's private monopolies are trying to get their mitts on the atomic energy resources and facilities. Pres. Elwood Swisher of the CIO Gas, Coke and Chemical Workers said in an NBC radio interview, reported in the Feb. 23 CIO News, that "we are convinced there will be a drive for private ownership and operation of atomic energy resources. . . Not perhaps, the bomb production facilities, but certainly the facilities for peace-time use of atomic energy. And its peace-time potentials are simply fabulous."

What is planned, of course, is an outright steal. As Swisher points out, "we fail to see the justice or fairness of allowing any private interest to profit from a resource which is owned by all the people of the United States and which was discovered and developed at the taxpayer's expense. That, it seems to us, would be creating a welfare state - for the welfare of the very rich."

control so they can exploit the workers to the limit and milk every possible dollar out of the industry paid for by the people.

So the big corporations are campaigning, as a N. Y. Times editorial puts it, "to modify the be used by the masses to overcome Atomic Energy Act so as to give private enterprise the right to develop atomic power." The Times. expresses especial concern, however, about their "right" to develop profits - about whether the private companies will be "permitted to erect atomic power plants where they will be economically profitable or only where the Atomic Energy Commission in--dicates," etc.

Instead of its potentialities as a source or unlimited cheap energy being realized, atomic power in the hands of private corporations, like other public utilities when privately controlled, will be operated on a monopoly basis to maintain high prices and big profits. The monopolies would strangle atomic develop-

There is encouraging evidence of a growing and deepening concern about the witch-hunt threat to civil liberties. More and more people of liberal and progressive views are daring to speak out against those who would smother our rights under a poison cloud of "loyalty" oaths and purges, Congressional inquisitions, political trials and character assassination.

The fighting tone of Mrs. Agnes Meyer in her speech denouncing the current assaults on academic freedom, delivered last week before the national convention of the Association of " School Administrators, was welcome and inspiring. She struck the right note in calling on the heads of educational institutions to "act in unison" to protect free learning against the inquisitors and in summoning "the people as a whole" to battle for a free school system.

Mrs. Meyer did not, however, spell out in detail the steps to be taken and the form in which an effective organized fight can be made to preserve civil liberties. We suggest that she

The Negro Struggle -«World on View» By Jean Blake

One of the interesting things about the Negro press is its tendency to be unorthodox on many questions on which nothing but official views can be found in the daily capitalist press.

The reason for the difference is not hard to find: The "white" dailies exist as capitalist, profit-making institutions to serve and maintain the status quo - the government, the economic and social system as it is today; the Negro press, while also a capitalist, profit-making institution, only exists because Negroes are discriminated against in the United States and therefore must have their own institutions and agencies for struggling against many aspects of "the American way of life."

Since the Negro editors and journalists do not approach all questions with the same premises and preconceived notions as those in the white press, we frequently find more objective reporting and interpretation of foreign news developments.

An example of this is the column "World on View" by Charles Loeb, managing editor of the Cleveland Call and Post. In his February 21 column, Mr. Loeb has a statement on the colonial revolutions going on all over the world that is a refreshing relief from the blatant lies and propaganda of the daily press and radio.

"In the light of the great emphasis that has been placed by our national leadership on the Communist aspect of the revolution sweeping Asia and Africa, we thought it timely that we reproduce for our readers a part of the report made by Morse Saito, a missionary of the Methodist Church in Japan to the Board of Missions of his church.'

Then, following some very interesting quotations from the report on Mr. Saito's 1949 trip overseas, Mr. Loeb concludes that like Mr. Saito, many Americans "are realizing, none too soon, that most of the unrest in Asia and Africa springs from long dissatisfaction over exploitation and prohibitions imposed upon the peoples by 'foreign' rule, rather than from some vast conspiracy directed from the Kremlin, whose principal role in the nasty business has been simply to fan the flames of resentment which we and our allies have ignited."

The logical conclusion from this view, one would think, would be opposition to the foreign policy of imperialist domination of the world by the U.S. government. But the Negro press cannot afford to come to such clear-cut revolutionary conclusions. For that kind of logical consistency, you will have to read The Militant, which is not a pro-capitalist, profit-making institution.

The Negro press has the space and the will, however, to provide much more factual and truthful information about the colonial struggles than the large metropolitan dailies. The Call and Post, for example, in addition to lengthy news stories by foreign correspondents, has a regular column by an "African Interpreter." Can you name any large daily paper that does as much for its readers?

His fellow brass convicted him on charges of failing to submit his manuscript for review in advance of publication and disobeying an order to withdraw the manuscript from his publisher. They sentenced Col. Voorhees, a former editor of The Tacoma (Wash.) Times, to dismissal from the Army, forteiting all pay and allowances due.

nothing on the nature and objectives of U.S. imperialist intervention in Korea that would not delight the most reactionary generals. But it commits the "crime of crimes" of offering some in Korea.

The court-martial of the chief censor himself made it plain that Army censorship is not so much concerned with protecting "military secrets" as protecting the prestige of the military caste and providing the Big Brass immunity from public criticisms or control.

Children Have No Lobby By Joyce Cowley

According to a report in The New York Times, 4,000,000 children will receive an impaired education in 1953 because of lack of teachers, inadequate buildings, double sessions and part-time instruction. Almost 10,000,000 children are now in overcrowded class rooms.

In North Carolina, for example, 43,000 pupils go to school in hallways, basements or auditoriums, 10,000 are in churches, lodge halls or rented quarters, another 11,000 are in barracks and over 9,000 on split shifts. In Minnesota, over 100,000 pupils attend school in buildings which should be abandoned - barracks and similar structures not designed for school use. According to the U.S. Office of Education, 600,000 new classrooms and other school facilities are needed immediately.

"To obtain enough funds to construct these buildings," says the Times, "many educators believe it will be necessary to turn to the Federal government."

Just eight days after the Times report, the Federal government took some action on funds for schools. On February 16 the House Appropriations Committee cut $24,-000,000 from the Federal aid given to education in defense areas.

like expenditures for the atom bomb or jet planes, but education for our children is obviously one of the luxuries that people can do without. I wonder what's next on their list. Perhaps public health services?

Walter Reuther, speaking at the annual convention of the American Association of School Administrators, attacked the cut in school funds as "false economy" - which seems like pretty mild language to me. He went on to say that the children of the country have no lobby and that if educators stand up to fight the battle for better schools, labor would back them to the full.

Voorhees on Feb. 21 was convicted by a jury of seven colonels, who deliberated 48 minutes, of evading Army censorship in the publication of his book, "Korean Tales."

Voorhees's book gives away no military secrets. It contains mild criticism of General MacArthur, including the general's verbal indiscretions, and complains of press evasion of censorship

Notes from the News

A CURIOUS ITEM in the Feb. 20 Seafarers Log, official organ of the AFL Seafarers International Union, states that Harry Lundeberg, president of the SIU. "rejected an invitation to serve in the Eisenhower cabinet as Secretary of Labor.' Lundeberg visited Eisenhower early this month. When solicited for his opinion on the question of a China blockade Lundeberg "said that ships trading with Red China should be 'blown' out of the water." (N. Y. Times, Feb. 6). Maybe Lundeberg was offered the wrong job?

NEWS AND VIEWS is a new publication of the Cleveland Civil Liberties Union. In its first number, News and Views calls for state - wide action against witch-hunt legislation introduced by the Ohio Un-American Activities Commission and patterned after the notorious Michigan Trucks Law. Such legislation is characterized by News and Views as "fundamental tenets of a police state." The CICLU has opened a new office in Cleveland located in the Perry Payne Building, Room 714, at 740 West Superior Ave. Dr. Edwin A. Brown is Executive Director.

TROTSKY ONCE SAID that Norman Thomas, recognized head of the American Socialist Party, still calls himself a socialist as a result of a misunderstanding. Thomas now corrects that "misunderstanding" in an interview with a reporter for the Republican New York Herald Tribune. "The concept of the class conflict basic to Marxism needs modification," says Thomas to the reporter, who adds: "Mr. Thomas disputes the contention that capitalism is the cause of war. He also says 'socialism is not a panacea against war." The interview was based on a new book written by Norman Thomas correcting the entire "misunderstanding." It is entitled "Democratic Socialism - A New Appraisal."

COST OF WAR in Korea is computed by the magazine U.S. News and World Report as follows: "Veterans of the Korean-war period, entitled to veterans' benefits, now number 1.5 million. Bombs dropped by U.S. planes in 2 years and 8 months of this war are approaching the tonnage of bombs dropped in the entire 3 years and 8 months of the Pacific war against Japan. . . Casualties in Korea, now exceeding 130,000, are more than a third of the total U.S. casualties in World War I. Americans mobilized now number close to the total of World War I. . . Dollar cost to U.S. taxpayers of one 'little' war in Korea exceeds 20 billions. This is strictly the direct cost in Korea itself. Indirect costs resulting primarily from war in Korea are much greater." If this is the cost of what Truman called a "police action," what will a real war cost?
