It is already clear that the McCarthy committee, which is conducting the probe, will make every effort to whitewash its chief.

In the first place, McCarthy will go to "trial" not under the usual rules of procedure by which he harries his own victims but under special rules drawn up for his exclusive benefit.

The fascist senator will not have to confine his questioning of adverse witnesses to written questions submitted to the chairman of the committee - as he would under the regular order of procedure of his committee ---but he and his staff members will have equal rights with his accusers and the members of the committee to question all witnesses.

Thus McCarthy will have full opportunity to spring his sensational counter-charges and smears against the Army personnel before the TV audience.

"Speak Up,- Fight Back . Smash McCarthyism" will be the theme of the May Day anti-McCarthy rally sponsored by the New York Local of the Socialist Workers Party Friday night, April 30.

Featured speaker of the evening will be SWP National Committee member Murry Weiss, who has just returned from a coast-to-coast anti-McCarthy tour.

The rally will be at the Grand Ballroom of the Cornish Arms Hotel, 8th Ave. and 23rd St. at 8:15 P.M.

A guitar recital, folksongs and refreshments will follow.

Implications of the Labor Party

The formal launching of an independent Labor Party, the indicated next step in the preliminary mobilization of the American working class against a rising fascist movement, will hit this country like a bomb exploding in all directions. It will not only blow up the traditional two-party system in this country and bring about a basic realignment in the general field of American politics. It will also mark the beginning of a great shake - up in the labor movement itself. The second result will be no less important than the first, and it should be counted on.

Under the present system the political stage is occupied by two rival capitalist parties, which in reality represent two different factions of the ruling class. The workers play merely the part of a chorus in the wings and have no "speaking part" on the stage. The formation of a Labor Party will change all that at one stroke. The struggle of capitalist factions for control of the government will be subordinated to the struggle of classes, represented by class parties. That is the real meaning of politics anyway.

Inside the Unions

The political realignment, brought about by the appearance of a Labor Party on the scene, cannot fail to have profound repercussions inside the labor movement. There will be a great change there too. The break of the trade union movement with capitalist politics will coincide with the rise of a big opposition to the present official leadership. This rank and file opposition movement will most likely take shape in the struggle for a labor party, and be identified with it. To imagine that the present official leaders can make the great shift from Democratic Party politics to independent labor politics, and maintain their leadership smoothly in an entirely new and different situation, requires one to overlook the basic causes which will force them to make this shift. That is, the radicalization of the rank and file and their revolt against the old policy. No matter how it is formally brought about, a Labor Party will be the product of a radical upsurge in the ranks of the trade unionists. The more the officialdom resists the great change, the stronger will grow the sentiment for a different leadership. Even if the present leaders sponsor the Labor Party at the start, will be under strong thev criticism for their tardiness. The real movement for a Labor Party, which will come from below, will begin to throw up an alternative leadership in the

The demand for a Labor Party implies the demand for a more adequate leadership; and the actual formation of a Labor Party, under the auspices of the present official leadership, would only accelerate the struggle under more favorable conditions. As revolutionists, we advocate the formation of a Labor Party with this perspective also in mind.

It is true that the simple fact of the formation of a Labor Party, by itself, would have a profound influence in speeding up radical and even revolutionary developments. But those who are satisfied with that might as well retire from the field and let the automatic process take care of everything. The automatic process will not take care of anything except to guarantee defeats.

The conscious revolutionists, however few their numbers may be in the beginning, are a part of the process. Their part is to help the process along by telling the whole truth. The fight for a Labor Party is bound up with the fight to cleanse the labor movement of a crooked and treacherous leadership, and cannot be separated from it. Those radicals and ex-radicals who are willing to settle for a Labor Party, leaving the question of program and leadership unmentioned, are simply inventing a formula for their own be trayal.

May Day and the 30-Hour Week

30-40!

Thirty hours work; 40 hours pay! That is the clamor growing throughout the union movement.

The slogan is advanced as an immediate answer to mounting unemployment. But it is far more than a temporary expedient. American labor is getting ready to take another big cut out of the length of the working day.

The shorter working day - that is the most solid of all the gains the working class has achieved in 150 years of struggle against the employers.

The shorter working day means time for the worker to relax. Time to learn. Time to participate in politics. Time to be an individual instead of a constant appendage to a machine.

It means that the worker obtains in small measure the benefit of the great technological advances; that "automation" becomes in small degree a boon for the worker instead of a curse.

The demand for 30-40 is in the best tradition of the American labor movement, which has fought some of its most heroic battles over the last 150 years in the struggle to shorten the hours of work.

The greatest of these was May 1 - May Day - 1886. From that time on it has been celebrated throughout the world as the workers' international holiday.

The eight-hour day became the norm in the United States more than three decades ago. The 40-hour week has been accepted for a decade and a half.

It is time to place the union movement on record for the 30-hour week; time for the unions and Rosaura plays the part of to press this demand on the employers; time Esperanza, his wife. Together, for a Congress of Labor to be called to map out a united drive of the labor movement to win the 30-hour work week with 40 hours pay. In preparation for these tasks, May Day 1954 is the time for all union militants to dedicate themselves to the struggle for 30-40! The American workers were victorious in the past. Their great power - plus the experience and inspiration of past battles - will bring them victory once more in the struggle for the 30-hour week at 40 hours pay.

Senator McCarthy, who aims to become the American Hitler, is a bosom pal of Westbrook Pegler, most violently anti-labor columnist of the capitalist press. The close personal tie between McCarthy and Pegler, hitherto kept in the dark, was uncovered last week when reporters sought out vacationing McCarthy for his views on the latest developments of the probe into his feud with the Army.

McCarthy, previously reported merely "on vacation in Arizona," was disclosed by an April 8 Associated Press dispatch from Tucson, Ariz., to be "vacationing here at the home of Westbrook Pegler, columnist. . ." Subsequently, the April 21 issue of Life magazine, casually wrote of "Joe McCarthy . . . basking on Westbrook Pegler's ranch last week," and ran a picture of McCarthy and his wife as Pegler's Revelation of the Wisconsin senator's personal links with Pegler, made known despite reported efforts by McCarthy to keep the fact under cover, provides further confirmation that McCarthy is a deadly enemy of labor and that his chief and ultimate objective is to smash the American labor movement.

We declared editorially, March 1, that Pegler had "voiced the true aims of McCarthyism" when the widely-syndicated columnist made his brazen open declaration in favor of fascism — the exact word he used — and called for "smashing" the AFL, CIO and all independent unions.

McCarthy's Arizona host, Pegler, wrote in the Feb. 24 N. Y. Journal-American, one of the chief papers of the Hearst chain, and in other papers reaching millions, the following unambiguous call for the fascist destruction of the unions:

"I am now convinced that all that prevents

"Plain Speaking" -- and Plain Speaking

Condemning the "increasingly demagogic, / Hitler-like actions of McCarthy," the April 15 issue of Kenosha Labor, voice of the AFL and CIO unions in Kenosha, Wisconsin, announces its support of the petition drive to recall "the junior feuhrer" from the U.S. Senate.

An editorial statement declares: "The Kenosha Labor cannot and will not pussyfoot on this issue. McCarthy and McCarthyism must be cleansed from the American political scene."

Kenosha Labor's decision to finally get into the anti-McCarthy fight is a welcome one. But their excuses for the delay are no contribution to the struggle. To "explain" their shameful foot-dragging, the editors assert that if the AFL and CIO and the Democrats got into the movement at the beginning, the McCarthyites "would brand the recall campaign a Democratic or labor movement - which it definitely is not."

Thus, even in joining the fight, the editors refuse to admit the error of the AFL and CIO in not launching the recall movement, and even now, cringing and crawling, they apologize as if the labor movement were something to be ashamed of.

Their stupid and cowardly attitude is nailed down in a letter to the April 12 Labor's Daily by Stephen L. Kreznar. He's president of Milwaukee Local 5501, Communication Work-

McCarthy has found it expedient, at this stage, to keep his union-smashing program partially under wraps and to concentrate his fire mainly on "communists" and "traitors" in government. But his ventures into the industrial sexes. field with the hearings of General Electric employes, also ostensibly aimed at "reds," have begun to lay the groundwork for a later general assault on organized labor as such.

McCarthy is not the columnist's crony and guest merely because he likes Pegler's liquor and sour personality. They are tied by powerful political bonds. Those bonds are the belief that only brutal totalitarian dictatorship can save American capitalism and crush American labor and that McCarthy is the man to do the

The Negro Struggle By Jean Blake

A McCarthyite Smears the NAACP

Last week we discussed the dangerous consequences of the McCarthyite smear of The Militant and five other organizations and publications by the West Coast Regional Office of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and its secretary, Franklin H. Williams. We said that the NAACP must disavow the criminally irresponsible publication of a "subversive list" by the West Coast office, and retract it.

If we were not convincing enough, perhaps George S. Schuyler will be. Schuyler, for the benefit of those who do not know the "gentleman," is an associate editor of the national Negro weekly, the Pittsburgh Courier, and an avowed McCarthyite.

Mr. Schuyler has been the ideological leader of reaction in the Negro press for a long time, a supporter of red-baiting, witch-hunting, thought-control and now McCarthyite fascism.

In his column, "Views and Reviews," in the March 27 issue of the Courier he wrote: "Senator Joseph McCarthy of Wisconsin was the loudest, most dramatic, most courageous, most persistent of the many patriots determined to save America from the fate of the 800 million behind the Iron Curtain."

This praise of the fascist demagogue from Wisconsin was in keeping with Schuyler's consistent role as glib Negro press agent for official and unofficial character assassins and destroyers of civil rights.

Part of his job has been sniping at Negro leaders who have resisted to any extent the ism Mimicking his hero's slanderous attacks on all who disagree with him, Schuyler has opened up on the NAACP. In his column of April 10 he put this largest Negro civil rights organization on his "subversive list."

He cited as evidence that "such loud and persistent Negro anti-McCarthyites as Walter White, Earl Brown, Judge Delany, et al" have "made some headway in corrupting the thinking of other Negroes ... the increasingly frequent, gratuitous attacks on McCarthyism by resolutions passed at NAACP conferences and other gatherings.'

Then, with a typical McCarthyite insinuation, he explained: "This is understandable since there are top brass of the NAACP who could not survive a security check. They, along with some of our reverend clergy, have been in more fronts than a burlesque house brassiere."

This type of underhanded smear is the logical fruit of acceptance of the witch-hunt, 'loyalty program," subversive list techniques for dealing with critics and opponents.

And it underscores our point, that the NAACP must reaffirm its traditional opposition to such methods by dissociating itself from such procedure and guard against its infiltration into the organization by an educational campaign in its branches and by instructing its representative, Mr. Williams of the West Coast office, to withdraw his "subversive list" publicly and at once.

No Deal for Children

By Joyce Cowley

Mayor Wagner's budget for 1954-55 hit a record high of $1,639,388,325. To an ordinary man this sounds like a lot of money but it's apparently not enough to provide essential services for New York City's children.

The Citizen's Committee on Children reports that all city departments and agencies serving children will continue to be handicapped by insufficient funds.

"From prenatal clinics to high school student guidance offices, from nursery schools to courtrooms, the pinch will be felt.'

The Commissioner of Welfare made a request' for ten new day-care centers. Not one additional center or additional position in the day-care division was granted.

The Commissioner's request for 25 additional mothers' aides in the visiting housekeeper service was also denied.

No funds were allocated for 27 vacation playgrounds requested or for new teachers and supervisors for such recreation activities. Funds were granted for only ten of the 68 new after-school playgrounds. Fifty-two more counselors were proposed for the Bureau of Child

About a month ago Mayor Wagner made a nice talk on television about the need to wipe out juvenile delinquency. There was a good deal of publicity in the press about a committee that he set up. All agencies dealing with delinquents were to map out a comprehensive plan of action. For several weeks, reports in the press indicated that the committee was hard at work studying the problem.
