

The long fight against Jim Crow segregation in the Jim Crow system as a whole.

But saying that segregation is unconstitutional is not the same thing as effectively prohibiting it. The Court ruled that school segregation is illegal, but it put off any ruling on WHEN or HOW this illegal practice should be stopped. Some hard fights will have to be fought and some difficult obstacles will have to be cleared away before Jim Crow will actually be driven out of the schools.

The Court had the power to rule on May 17 that since segregation violates the Constitution, it should be discontinued at once. In that case children in the South would have been given the legal right to attend mixed schools at the beginning of the new term in the fall of 1954.

But the Court did not exercise this power. Instead, it refused altogether to make any ruling on the time when segregation should be ended or the method that should be used to end it - postponing these questions until next fall, when they will be put back on the court docket and argued all over again. Until new arguments are completed and a new Supreme Court decision is reached, the Southern die hards are relieved of all responsibility for making any changes in the Jim Crow school setup, and are given an extended breathing spell in which to work out techniques for evading the Court's rulings.

One of the questions to be re-argued is: Should a decree be issued requiring that "Negro children should FORTHWITH be admitted to schools of their choice" or should the decree merely "permit an effective GRADUAL ADJUSTMENT ... from existing segregated systems to a system not based on color distinctions"?

That is the question of WHEN. The question of HOW is even more' important because it will help to determine whether or not the proposed anti-segregation decree will be effective and fool-proof in abolishing segregation in real life, and not merely on paper.

The Court also still has to decide what "specific issues" the decree should contain, and who should issue the decree - should it be issued by the Supreme Court itself, or should it be turned over to the lower courts in the South (which are more subject to the pressure of the Southern ruling class)?

Supreme Court has no power to formulate a decree that would alter state laws, and that if Jim Crow schools are unconstitutional it is up to the state governments to alter their school systems so that they come within the law. It is a foregone conclusion that there will be endless delay and evasion if the right to "interpret" and "enforce" (Continued on page 4)

The long fight against Jim Crow segregation in the public schools won an important legal and moral victory on May 17 when the U.S. Supreme Court ruled that such segregation is unconstitutional. But the fight is not yet finished or won. The Court decided unanimously that the pernicious 58, year old "separate but equal" doctrine is unconstitutional when it is applied to public schools. This knocks out one of the props of the Jim Crow system. Its effect will be to strengthen the movement of the Negro people and their allies to get rid of other legal props and to increase their confidence in their ability to achieve the abolition of the Jim Crow system as a whole.

MAY 20 — Determined to protect his underground fascist cells which honeycomb the government, McCarthy succeeded in winning a one-week moratorium in the Army-McCarthy hearings at the very point when he and his lieutenants were scheduled to go on the witness stand.

It is possible, considering Eisenhower's strategy of appeasement, that the wouldbe American Hitler will even succeed in eluding the witness stand altogether. But even if he takes the stand, he doesn't face accusers who charge him with his real crime --his plot to worm his way to power and establish a fascist dictatorship in America.

How does McCarthy get away with it? The fact is that the Republican and Democratic leaders in Washington are too steeped in complicity with McCarthy, too bulldozed by his blackmail, and too addicted to political quackery, to understand that the cancer eating the capitalist government in America dooms them too.

Reuther's Attack on Local 659

For daring to criticize policies of Walter Reuther, United Automobile Workers President and CIO head, the Flint Chevrolet Local 659 has been placed in the hands of a dictatorreceiver appointed by Reuther's International Executive Board. Fourteen members and officers of Local 659 - which has one of the proudest records of militancy in the UAW --have been placed under charges and will be given a hearing before a special trial board of the International Executive Board on May 25. The charges against the 14 include "failing and refusing to conform" to the International Board's directives on matter published in the Searchlight, Local 659's hard-hitting news- - paper. This is the real heart of Reuther's case, although a cooked-up charge of financial irregularity is thrown in as an extra smear. Reuther and his lieutenants claim that the Searchlight's attacks on him contained "antiunion propaganda." We don't want to defend every line and word ever printed in the Searchlight, we haven't read it with a magnifying glass like Reuther has. But we have often been impressed by progressive, solidly pro-union proposals contained in the Searchlight.

Among these is its advocacy of the 30-hour week at 40 hours' pay, the most immediately effective answer the unions can raise to the growing problem of unemployment. Is it mere coincidence that a union-local which has raised this slogan against the opposition of the Reuther machine has been selected for bureaucratic suppression?

We note that UAW Vice President John W. Livingston, who heads the UAW's General Motors department, has complained that the Searchlight had denounced the Reutherite executive board's review board on GM grievance procedure as "anti-union, unethical, unjust, inefficient, incapable, and [makes] the direct inference, if not the direct charge, that the board is in collusion with management." Reuther's answer to these serious charges which reflect an opinion held by a high percentage of GM workers - is to gag the union, remove its duly-elected officers, threaten them with trial and expulsion, and put the membership under a hand-picked dictator.

This anti-democratic action occurs, moreover in the midst of savage McCarthyite-type witch-hunt hearings being conducted in Flint and Detroit by the House Un-American Activities Committee. These hearings, run by Rep. Kit Clardy (R., Mich.), have been directed primarily at the auto union. Even Reuther and his executive officers had to admit. in an otherwise generally weasly statement, that these smear hearings "have denied citizens their democratic rights . . . have scorned the Bill of Rights."

Yet it is precisely the moment when the government witch-hunters are trying to weaken the UAW, turn member against member with slanders and red-baiting, that Reuther has chosen to move against Local 659. It is amidst the hysteria and lynch atmosphere created by the Clardy hearings and the incitements of the menace. anti-labor daily press that Reuther has acted.

Obviously, Reuther has deliberately taken advantage of the anti-labor witch hunt to strengthen his personal machine and reactionary policies in the union. He is trying to silence those who are doing no more than exercise their elementary union democratic rights to criticize the leaders. The historic tradition of the UAW cries out against Reuther's action.

McCarthy's Social Demagogy

Fascism does not win a mass following by an appeal to anti-"communist" prejudice alone. This movement to save capitalism through brutal, open dictatorship and the violent destruction of organized labor resorts to the most flagrant social demagogy to win popular support. It promises all kinds of reforms and does not hesitate to issue the most radicalsounding programs.

It was not by accident that Hitler named his party the National Socialist Workers Party. Thus he appealed to the working class, as well as to the lower middle-class that formed his main base, and promised "socialism" while preparing to obliterate the parties that traditionally advanced the socialist idea. Our characterization of McCarthyism as "American fascism on the march" has brought the query from a number of quarters, "If Mc-Carthyism is fascism in its American form, where is McCarthy's social demagogy?" It is true that McCarthy has leaned heavily, thus far in his drive for power, on the issue of "reds in government" and "20 years of treason." But this is by no means his exclusive theme and he has shown himself quite able to employ more positive themes in his social demagogy.

When he did speak, he waved aside the ques tion of his dispute with the Army and "communists" in government. Instead, McCarthy dwelt on what was o prime interest to his audience and told then that the farmers were entitled not to "75, 90 or 95 per cent of parity but 100 per cent of parity." He told his eager audience further that 'one bankrupt farmer would put seven town or city dwellers on the breadline." And he added that the dust storms from the West "do not bother me as much as the dust storms from liberation struggle in Asia conthe East" caused by "very well meaning peo- tinues unabated, simply falling ple who know nothing about farm problems." back to new lines from which

The Union Leaders'

The AFL and CIO leaders have worked out similar "grand strategies" for the coming fall elections. It's true their "grand strategy" of supporting pro-war, anti-labor Democrats against the pro-war, anti-labor Republicans did not work out so well in November 1952. But they think they have some of the wrinkles ironed out. They've now figured out, scientifically and mathematically, how to attain their political objectives with a minimum of time, energy, money and votes.

They propose to concentrate their campaigns and resources in districts where they claim the shift of a few thousand votes -based on the 1952 returns, of course - will elect enough Democrats to give the Democratic machine control of Congress next year. Through this device, according to CIO President Walter Reuther, it might be possible to retire "about three dozen reactionary politicians" and tip the balance of power in Congress toward the Democrats.

The AFL leaders, for their part, frankly admit that their political action program has never been able to arouse enough enthusiasm among the AFL's 10-million members to raise more than $600,000 in contributions for political activities. The AFL tops have decided, however, not to advance the kind of political program which will evoke financial sacrifice from the ranks, but to campaign in just a few areas where the vote has been close in the most recent elections.

Let us assume that these political slide-

The Negro Struggle By Jean Blake

In Reply to a Reader

[Note: This writer has received an unusual letter - five pages, typed single-spaced, attacking this column in particular and The Militant in general for our support of the Negro struggle for equality and justice. While it is obvious from the letter itself that its author is extremely prejudiced against Negroes, and his thinking is by no means typical of the readers of this paper, I think it may prove worthwhile to answer him in this column. His letter contains a type of confusion that unfortunately is all too common among many white workers. I know I have had to deal with it where I work, and I am sure many of you also have faced this problem. Your comments on the discussion will be welcomed.]

Dear Mr. S.:

In concluding your lengthy and, I believe, serious letter of April 28, you attempted to anticipate my response with the following:

* * *

"Naturally in your reply to my letter - if you have the courage to reply, that is - you will SMEAR me by calling me a racialist, a Fascist and a McCarthyite. You will not consider any of the proven facts which I have included in my letter, but you will go off half-cocked, shouting vile names towards me because I said something unfavorable about vour 'sacred cow' - the Negro. You, doubtlessly, will use GUILT BY ASSOCIATION, comparing me to a Hitler or a Coughlin. I will be VILIFIED as a paid or misguided capitalist lackey. (Maybe you Marxists are the misguided - poor malcontents that you are.) While it might be very nice to be a paid agent of the Capitalists, I am of a working man's family and was up to the time of the accident a worker - and am now much poorer. Therefore I think I am on solid ground when I say that racially prejudiced, murderous and drunken members of a minority group who go about attacking, murdering and near-killing others are very definitely violating our civil rights."

First, Mr. S., let me assure you that I shall ignore your vilification and slanderous attack on us since we have neither the space, the time nor the inclination to reply on that level. am more concerned with understanding --- and helping you understand, if at all possible -why you think as you do, and where you are in error.

Toward that end I propose to deal (1) with your notion that we consider the Negro a 'sacred cow," (2) your "proven facts" which you cite as evidence that Negroes violate "the civil rights of Caucasians," (3) the related "problems" which you cite to refute the Marx-ist approach to the Negro question and (4) your questions as to what a socialist United States would be like if our program is successful.

On the first point — if, as you say, you have been reading the Militant for many months you should have learned that we have no "sacred cows." In my column, as well as other articles in this paper, you must have read many criticisms of actions, policies, and perspectives with which we disagree - whether by Negro leaders or organizations, labor groups, the government, so-called radical groups, politicians or anyone else.

As for Negroes, we do not generalize about them as a superior group any more than we accept the generalizations of those who consider them inferior. We consider them human beings, no better and no worse than any others.

What we do generalize, and here we bas ourselves on "proven facts," not sentiment o prejudice, is the fact that they are unjustly discriminated against in our society. As a group do not enjoy equal rights and opportunities with the rest of the population.

opportunities, and that is what we support not every act of every individual simply because he is a Negro.

'Graphic Demonstration'

A sensational example of how easily wiretapping can be used in frame-ups is reported by I. F. Stone in the May 17 issue of his Weekly. It is an extract from testimony given by Robert Coar, director, Joint House-Senate Radio Facility, U.S. Congress, on May 6 before the special subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee considering legislation to authorize the use of wire-taps as evidence:

Mr. Coar. Some 20 years ago I was District Plant Engineer for the New York Telephone Company, and in that capacity one of my assignments was to make searches for wiretaps. . . Mr. Coar. Yes, I have a graphic demonstration of that. . . Simply by playing it back on to a plastic tape, recording on the tape and re-recording from the tape back to the wire, there is no way at all that anyone can tell that there have been changes made in what was on the original wire. . .

Notes from the News

'VOICE' BOASTS TOO SOON: Within 35 minutes after the Supreme Court ruled that segregated schools are unconstitutional, the official U.S. propaganda radio network, The Voice of America, had beamed the news to all parts of the world in 35 languages. The broadcast claimed that educational segregation of the Negro children has been "ended" by the "democratic process." The broadcasts have been aimed especially at the colored people in Asia and Africa who are bitterly hostile to Jim Crow America. The "Voice" failed to report that not a single Negro school child has been "de-segregated" by the Supreme Court decision, since it said nothing about how and when the ruling would take effect.

THEIR CHIEF DIFFERENCE: A May 18 London Times explained: "Indeed, it has been said that the chief difference (between the U.S. and Britain on Indo-China) seems to be that the British have no policy and are keeping quiet about it, while the U.S. has no policy and is talking about it at the top of its voice." Their chief agreement, however, is that Indo-China must not belong to the Indo-Chinese people.

TWO GUILTY OF NEGRO SLAVERY: Two white brothers, owners of a prosperous west Alabama farm, were convicted in a federal court on May 15 of holding terrorized Negroes in outright slavery. Fred and Oscar Dial were charged with paying fines of Negroes in Alabama and Mississippi jails and then forcing them to work without pay on the Dial farm. One Negro worker, Hubert Thompson, was beaten so badly after he tried to escape that he died, according to government charges. Sentencing of the convicted slave-holders was postponed to June 4 and they are free on bond.

FAMOUS REVERSAL: One United Press account of the Supreme Court ruling in the school segregation cases called the decision "probably the most important in U.S. race relations since the famous Dred Scott decision of 1857, which held that a Negro was not a citizen." The UP dispatch added: "The Civil War reversed that

THE AFL EXECUTIVE COUNCIL meeting in Chicago on May 18 rejected the government claim of less than 31/2-million unemployed and declared there are now more than 51/2-million out of work "and the figure is growing and will continue to grow if something isn't done to stem the recession immediately."
