Have the U.S., British and French imperialists precipitated "the gravest international crisis since the Borlin blockade and the Korean' war" merely because Egypt nationalized the company which operated the Suez Canal? No. Far more is behind it. Imperialism aims to prevent the colonial revolution, which has swept over Asia and Africa with such elemental force, from rising in the Middle East.

Suez raises the specter of colonial revolution in all the oil-rich Arab countries. The imperialists fear the breakaway of their hitherto pliant puppets, through whom they have so long ruled these countries, or - far worse yet - their replacement by representatives of the poverty-stricken Arab masses. They fear nationalizations of the world's richest oil fields for the benefit of the undernourished, disease-ridden people of these countries and the consequent loss of super-profits

In addition to the mass upsurge of anti-imperialism in Egypt the whole surrounding Arab world has rallied to Egypt's defense. Great demonstrations in the various countries of the Middle East show how Egypt's fight is considered the cause of all the sign "loyalty oaths." On Aug. 3, The Public Housing oppressed Arab people. This great mass solidarity is reflected in the stands taken by all the Arab nations against the imperialist threat to attack Egypt.

WILL CUT OIL OFF

In Syria workers have declared hat if Egypt is attacked they will cut the Western-owned oil pipe lines that cross their coun-'ry. The Syrian Defense Minister has announced that Syria was in a state of "general mobilizaion" because "the battle of the Suez Canal is the battle of every Arab." In Washington the Syrian ambassador warned that Dulles volicy was leading "headlong to war" and that if Egypt was invaded the Arab countries would "fight to the end" by guerrilla means.

In Lebanon the President backed the nationalization of the Suez Canal and warned that an attack on Egypt would lead the Arab nations to cut off relations with the Western imperialist nations and "break all concessions and agreements." Since the poverty-stricken Arab nations are treasure houses of oil - all owned by the imperialists - the threat means the imperialists would not only have to occupy Egypt but the other Middle East countries as well.

Even the government of Iraq, notoriously a paid stooge of U.S. and British imperialism, has had to bow to the feeling of its people and come out in formal support of Egypt.

-JAPANESE POW'S REPORT The Revolt in Prison Camps of Siberia

This report of the revolt of the prisoners in the Norilsk prison camp in the Soviet Union was received by us from a Japanese Trotskyist. He obtained the information contained in the report from a group of returned Japanese war prisoners who were in the Norilsk prison camp at the time of the revolt.

Last year we published Brigitte Gerland's reports as a participant in the great Vorkuta prisoner uprising of 1953. The present account fits in with and rounds out the picture she presented of the situation in the Soviet prison camps in the period following Stalin's death. - Ed.

The Role of the Liberal Democrats

As election time approaches, union leaders, liberal and social-democratic organizations, and the Communist Party are stepping up their efforts to sell the Democratic Party to working class and Negro voters.

Salesmen of a shoddy ware, they do not describe their whole product but dwell on the alleged virtues of the Northern liberal Democrats, and Adlai Stevenson, the most probable candidate. This emphasis, it is hoped, will win the votes of labor militants, fighters against Jim Crow and socialist-minded workers. Great promises are being made for what the liberal Democrats can accomplish in cleansing their party and, if elected, in reversing the tide of reaction which has engulfed the country.

Such promises are false and consciously hypocritical.

The Northern liberals cannot, nor want to, renovate the Democratic Party. To get rid of either the Southern white supremacists or the corrupt machines would mean the party's death. The liberals well realize this and have consistently backed down from any real fight with the arrogant, anti-labor, anti-Negro Southern wing or with the city bosses.

Any reader, beguiled by the propaganda that the liberal Democrats are fighters for civil liberties and civil rights, should ponder the two following facts.

Okay Smith Act

First, on civil liberties. The penalty for violation of the Smith Act — the cornerstone of the witch hunt — has just been increased from five to 20 years. As Murray Kempton ably demonstrated in the New York Post (Aug. 1), although all the liberal Democrats except Kefauver were present in the Senate when the bill was proposed there was no debate and it passed unanimously.

After the House passed the same bill, it was again voted unanimously by the Senate. Thus without a peep of objection from the whole roster of liberal Democratic Senators. Americans can now be imprisoned for two decades for "conspiring to advocate," i.e. express ideas or say words prohibited by the witch hunters. This is how the liberal Democrats defend. civil liberties!

Second, is the record of the liberal Democrats on civil rights. Despite repeated platform planks and countless promises to way serious fight to pass civil rights laws. Recently they staged a disgusting sham battle in Congress to provide themselves with a fig-leaf record on civil rights for ber.' use before labor and Negro audiences in the coming campaign.

Even by Congressional standards the spectacle was so cheap that Democratic Senate leader Lyndon Johnson and Repub- the Democratic Party in the 1956 lican Senate leader Knowland treated the election, while "professing devomove with open contempt instead of worry. Johnson taunted Lehman and Douglas by asking why they had not made the move in April rather than in the 84th Congress' closing hours.

"It is only kidding the minority groups and the American people," Knowland jeered, to make a move in the last hours of the session, "which everyone knows as a practical matter cannot be accomplished."

Not Even a Fake Battle

These then are the deeds - not the words - of the Democratic liberals on civil liberties and civil rights. What about labor legislation, such as repeal of Taft-Hartley promised in the Democratic platforms of 1948 and 1952? The liberals don't bother any more even to make a sham battle on it. Yet these are the people for whom union militants, anti-segregationists and socialist-minded workers are being asked to vote. Voting for them is not a mere negative choosing of the lesser evil. It is a positive blow to labor and the Negro movement for it serves to continue the disaster-producing alliance of the workers' movement to a corrupt, reactionary capitalist party.

Those who want to destroy the witch hunt, restore civil liberties and make civil rights for the Negro people a reality, should dedicate themselves to making labor an effective political force in this country. This can be done today by build- | in his entire history with the rule ing an independent labor party based on of Stalin in the Soviet Union. the unions, the Negro people and the The hatred of the masses for the small farmers.

DETROIT - Statistics show that colored persons earn higher incomes in the Detroit area than anywhere else in the country. But on the other hand, economic discrimination is still in evidence in the Motor City.

Proof of the above statements is contained in the annual reports of the University of Michigan's "Detroit Area Study" published recently. The study is based on 1955 incomes and the following table, based on these reports, has been converted from annual to weekly figures:

DETROIT MEDIAN FAMILY INCOMES Weekly, 1951-1955

Year	White Families	Colored Families	Differential	Ratio
1951	$ 92	$ 67	$ 25	73%
1952	102	71	31	70
1953	117	77	40	66
1954	110	71	39	65
1955	117	79	38	68

("Median" as used in this table means that one-half of the families covered in the reports earned more than this amount, and one-half earned less.)

It is noted in the report that with the exception of 1954, which was marked by widespread unemployment, colored family income, like white family income, steadily increased during the five year period.

Weekly income of colored families rose $12 during the five years, but at the same time white family income increased by $25 weekly, pointing to inequality of income opportunity or progress.

The "differential" between the two groups in 1951 was $25 a week. In 1952, the gap widened to $31; and in 1953, to $40. In 1954, a year of recession, the incomes of both groups declined and the gap was reduced for the first time, to $39; and again in 1955 to $38.

VOLUME XX

According to these figures, while colored income has been rising, the differential with white income is much larger now than it was five years ago.

Finally, the ratio between the two groups, giving colored family income as a proportion of white family income, shows more inequality.

The university study noted that for every $1 a white family got in 1951, a colored family received only 73 cents. In 1952 the colored figure fell to 70 cents. And in 1953 it dropped to 66 cents; a penny less in 1954 and up to 68 cents in 1955. But even then, lower than in the first two years of the period surveyed.

In conclusion the study shows that the average white family in the Detroit area has an income one and one-half times larger than the average colored family, and the differential is higher than five years ago.

This points out that discrimination against colored wage and salary earners is still very much alive here.

The differential is the result of the existence of biased employment policies that bar colored people from most of the betterpaying jobs and occupations.

Which means also that those who want economic equality still have a big fight on their hands - not only in Mississippi but in Michigan too.

Dope and Death Sentences

By Della Rossa

Throughout the world, there is growing opposition to the use of the death penalty with its vindictive and final nature. But the U.S. government has chosen to extend the use of this barbaric penalty to yet another field. And this time to a field in which crime could be eliminated entirely by means of cooperation between the government and the medical profession.

In July, President Eisenhower signed the Narcotics Control Act of 1956 which sets the death sentence as the maximum penalty for traffickers in narcotics.

Dr. Laurence Kolb, who has spent a lifetime studying and treating narcotic addiction and who, in 1935, opened the U.S. Health Service's Lexington Hospital for treatment of addicts, tells what's wrong with the new law in the July 28 Saturday Evening Post.

Narcotics addiction in itself, Dr. Kolk

This view is supported by the Chief of Los Angeles Police, who, according to the L. A. Mirror-News, Nov. 16, 1955, stated that | can put them over the top by "an estimated 50 percent of all crimes in Aug. 15. this area is caused by addicts who burglarize in order to pay the exorbitant price of their habits." Dr. Kolb calls these "law induced" crimes.

The New York Academy of Medicine in effect also rejects the notion that drugs induce crimes. For the Academy favors supplying addicts with the drugs they need while being prepared for treatment. And Dr. Kolb adds, let incurables also have the drugs they need.

With 60,000 known addicts in the U.S. the narcotics problem is certainly a serious one. But it will not be improved by the ed like the fight would begin in apparently quite happy over the present hysterical, ignorant and vindictive earnest-it ended, with all conact of Congress.
