
Soviet Russia Called by Communist Worst Tyranny in World [Morris Zucker]

Published in the Milwaukee Leader, v. 10, no. 104 (April 8, 1921), pg. 8

REVEL, Estonia.— Soviet Russia was depicted as the worst tyranny in the world by Dr. Morris Zucker, known here as a leader and organizer of the Communist Party in the United States and whose home is in Brooklyn, NY, on his arrival here yesterday from Moscow after nearly 5 months in Russia.

“Conditions steadily are becoming worse,” he declared. “What little foreign trade Russia is able to get is of no help to the people, who everywhere are the victims of tyranny and go about in a hopeless attitude because of the great and constant red terror.”

Dr. Zucker last June was pardoned by President Wilson after having been sentenced to 15 years’ imprisonment on being found guilty of sedition. He left the United States in September [1920] and arrived in Russia in November. Three days after his arrival in Moscow he was imprisoned and spent most of the time he was in Russia in confinement.

Inside the prison walls, Dr. Zucker said he met victims of Bolshevik tyranny.
