Declaration:

By Carr [Ludwig Katterfeld] for the CEC of the CP of A (Majority) and Moore [John Ballam] for the Minority Group.

A document in the Comintern Archive, f. 515, op. 1, d. 128, l. 28.

1. The CEC (Majority) will reinstate in the CP of A every member of the Minority (including members expelled, suspended, or disconnected because of the factional controversy incidental to the development of the Legal Party) who

(a) conforms to the decision of the CEC and the EC of the CI to join the Legal Party, and

(b) pays the current month's dues through the regular Party channels.

2. Members of the Minority reinstated within sixty days will not be discriminated against in the exercise of their membership rights on account of their past activities.

3. The Party Convention will be held on such a date that all such members may participate in the election of electors within the sections.

4. The Minority Group will immediately cease all attacks upon the Majority and the Legal Party. It will not issue any more circulars or publications without the consent of the CEC (Majority).

5. The Minority will at once turn over all its records, addresses, connections, and properties to the CEC (Majority) and will then dissolve.

6. Moore [Ballam] and Carr [Katterfeld] pledge themselves to do all in their power to cooperate with the comrade appointed by the EC of the CI [Genrik Valetskii] to help carry out its decisions.

For the CEC, CP of A (Majority)

J. Carr [Ludwig Katterfeld]

For the Minority.

John Moore [John Ballam]

Moscow. March 29, 1922.
