Boise, Idaho, May 24.—James H. Hawley's speech concerning Clarence Darrow's methods in cross examining talesmen, at the morning session, and the "educational" questions asked Juror W. B. Teeter by Edmund F. Richardson of the defense during the afternoon session, constituted the principal features of the Haywood trial in Judge Wood's court yesterday.

Henry Curtis, juror No. 9, who was passed the day before by the state, was the first man examined by the defense. Curtis said that he was 52 years old and was born in England, coming to Canada when he attained the age of 18.

It was in the examination of John Beery by Darrow that Attorney Haw ley released a flood of eloquence that fairly amazed the court. It was in the examination of John Beery by Darrow that Attorney Hawley released a flood of eloquence that fairly amazed the court. Beery stated that he was 57 years old, a Republican in politics and a Methodist in religion, and that while he had seen several copies of the Appeal to Reason, it was from the Idaho Statesman that he had gained the information regarding the case at bar that had biased his mind and caused him to form an opinion.

In a lengthy and intricate examination Darro wtried to ascertain the exact extent of the bias that possessed the juror's mind, and it was this that nettled Hawley and provoked him to excitedly declamation. "I object to the methods employed by Darrow in cross-examining this juror," exclaimed Hawley. "He leans on his chair and gets entirely too close to the juror, in the first place, and, besides, he talks in a way that would lead one to believe he had known the juror all his life.

His Way.

"This way he has of approaching a juror has no place in the law practice of Idaho, and I, for one, never saw anything like it before. He talks low and then loud; persuades a while and threatens a while; smooths his hair back with one hand while shaking the finger of the other at the man whom he is examining, and says and does things that are absolutely foreign to this court.

"If the juror had an opinion at the outset, Darrow's manner of questioning would either drive it out of him or drive him crazy. I object to the manner and the methods employed by the coursel for the defense."

Attorney Hawley, unconsciously, perhaps, paid a splendid tribute to Darrow's ability, and the court handed the Chicago attorney another when he sustained his challenge of the juror in the following language:

No Opinion.

"Haw were arrested for the crime, and they must have had something to do with it or they would not have been arrested."

"You are a Republican, I believe?"

No Opinion.

No Opinion.

"Iam satisfied in my own mind," said the court, "that Beery has no opinion regarding this case, and were the circumstances different I would deny the challenge, but by virtue of the record made by Attorney Darrow I will excuse the juror."

W. B. Teeter, an Ada county farmer, who made things interesting at the afternoon session, said that he was born in Iowa and had been a farmer all his life. Teeter spoke plainly and without hesitation concerning his life experience and his present mental attitude toward current questions. He said that he was a Republican and a reader of the Idaho Statesman, the official organ of the Gooding administration.

BOULEVARD ONE BLOCK MILKMEN GO AROUND

An evidence of official wisdom has just come to light on the South Side. In that very select portion of the city great care and pains are taken that the odorfferous autos of the rich shall have the very best highway conditions to the detriment of everyone else.

To provide for this there is the boulevard system. In accordance, Sixteenth street from Michigan to Prairie avenues, has been made a boulevard. In order for a milkman to make the one block to Indiana avenue he has to drive about three-quarters of a mile. Hardly a morning passes without an altercation between the milkmen and the "sparrow cop" stationed at that point. The drivers are indignant over the maiter and threaten to sue the city. It requires the constant attention of one able-bodied man in uniform to preserve one block of the boulevard.

The office of the Chicago Daily So-cialist is now prepared to take all kinds of orders for LINOTYPE COMPOSITION. Comrades and friends every-where are urged to remember this and get work coming this way.

Profit for "Respectable" Persons Protects the Red Light District

Chicago, according to Judge Sadler of the Desplaines street station municipal court.

Judge Sadler said that he could not give a bill of particulars about the people interested in maintaining a large red light district in Chicago, but from observation of the many cases which came up in his court, was convinced that there exists a ring in Chicago which protects and encourages vice.

"It is my experience," the judge said, "that whenever I fine a woman her fine is promptly paid by a person who claims to be a friend or relation.

"You will find a number of women arraigned in court this rorning on a charge of disorderly conduct. Their fines or bail will be promptly paid by some one of their 'riends and the court is powerless from that moment on.

"The chief cause of this alarming spread of vice in Chicago is human selfishness. It is the profit made by certain people, some even so-called respectable people.

"There is, of course, a certain amount of politics connected with this vice-predeting and vice-protecting element, and it is this that lends it strength.

"Aldefmen of the First and Eighteenth wards have gat in the city council all these years because they could produce a definite political asset in the criminal and vicious elements under their control. Profit, profit!

The enormous revenue derived from the red light district directly and indirectly is the chief reason for the tremendous growth of vice and crime in Chicago, according to Judge Sadler of the Desplaines street station municipal court.

Judge Sadler said that he could not give a bill of particulars about the people interested in maintaining a large red light district in Chicago, but from observation of the many cases which tame up in his court, was convinced that there exists a ring in Chicago which protects and encourages vice.

Senator Clark of the Thirteenth district has accordingly prepared a law, which he tried to pass at the last session of the legislature and which he will reintroduce at the October session, handing this property over to the South Chicago corporation free of cost and clear of incumbrances.

All this trouble was caused by the inquisitive actions of J. M. Patterson at the time he was commissioner of public works. Commissioner Patterson started suit against the Illinois Steel Works to recover some $5,000,000 worth of land that had been stolen by the company.

Still Pending.

Still Pending.

This suit is still pending and it is difficult to find a way to prevent its being carried through. There is little doubt, about the law as it now stands, and the suit will necessarily end in the recovery of the land. Hence this rush to alter the law.

The present commissioner of public works, Hanberg, says that he thinks the Illinois Steel Company should receive the land and har so stated.

The Illinois Steel Company is a branch of the United States Steel Company, the largest corporation in the world. A South Chicago workingman suggested that if $3,000,000 or more is to be given to anyone in South Chicago, it might be well to distribute it among the crippled workers that have been maimed in the steel works, and to the families of those who have been killed.

Senor Don Ignacio Calderon, minister from Bolivia, said in part:

"I can confidently affirm that the principle of international arbitration is a doctrine more generally practiced and accepted in South American countries than anywhere else. Brazil has established arbitration among her constitutional precepts. The Argentine Republic also furnishes very conspicuous examples of respect for justice and peace. Bolivia, my country, has submitted to arbitration important boundary questions. LAND EXPROPRIATION WITHOUT PARALLEL

St. Petersburg, May 25.—What is be leved to be the first serious clash between the duma and government took place yesterday when Premier Stolypin in a sensational address declared that the government will never agree to the measures adopted by the agrarian committee of the duma in which it recommended forced expropriation of land. The action was taken by the committee without regard to the attitude of the government on this question, the premier asserted, and is a gross livelit to the throne. Stolypin further said that the duma has become a revolutionary body hostile to the present regime in Russia. Forced expropriation of land, he said is in itself one of the most radical demands, which will bring on a social upheaval that will be without parallel in history.

The premier's speech did not in the least influence or change the position of the agrarian committee, which will proceed to extry out their original planfor giving the land to him who works it.

The Hustlers' Column

Words From the Field

The next few weeks are the most critical in the history of the Daily Socialist. On the very edge of firm financial establishment there seems to be a slight let-up in the efforts of its friends. The subscriptions are still pouring in, but stock sales have almost stopped. Remember that a small deficit that is not met will kill a paper just as certainly as a large one.

Thomas B. Trew of Tilden, Ill., sends in four new names with an installment on his share of stock. It is this host of helpers in every corner of the country that is doing the work.

Nearly every stockholder knows some friend that would be willing to take a share if he were urged by some one in whom he had confidence. Is it too much to ask those who already own stock to seek out some friend tonight and tell him of the need and the opportunity and ask him to subscribe for a share of stock? It is a remarkable fact that whenever a Socialist who can afford it comes into the plant and goes over the books he invariably offers assistance. In several cases a visitor has passed earliesty through without telk. lays later sent in money and mention-ing that he had just looked over the plant. All of which goes to show that it is ignorance of the actual macts that prevents many from helping. If those to know will do their best to tell ners of the situation there will be ittle trouble in raising the necessary

Public Policy Club's Warm Session Last Night-Mayor and Press Roasted Warmly

At a meeting of the Public Policy Club, held last night, some caustic ut-terance, indulged by elergymen who espouse the Sunday closing ordinances and lawyers, created a decided sensa-leged, by a narrow marsin because of of the invited speakers of the evening. the Rev. Dr. Bartlett, referred to Mayor Busse as "Bedslat" Busse, and said he wished he could have the unalloyed pleasure of playing sacred music on the executive's rotund torso with Seymour Stedman took the floor and arraigned the Chicago newspapers "untruthful and unreliable." He said they could not be induced to support any public measure that was opposed to the interests of those controlling them.

"One paper," he said, "is too be engaged in robbing the school chi and people.

"You cannot expect Mayor Busse to be disloyal to the interests that elected thin, for office. He is paying a political debt to the Tribune and to Hinky Dink. In April more than 13 per cent of the people of Chicago committed suicide and on election day the city was a mena-gerie of raving maniacs." Stedman then paid his respects to the clergy, virtually charging them with in-sincerity.

clergy, virtually charging them with unsincerity.

When he clused the Rev. Dr. Harding assailed Dr. Bartlett by saying that until he had 2-sard his explanation of the interview with Mayor Busse he had deemed him "either a fool of a knave."
He said the liquer question was not the only one with which the clergy had to deal, and rather deprecated Dr. Bartlett's interest in the Sunday closing movement.

He also took a fling at the Chicago press, which, he said, "no man, woman or child had any faith in, or believed a single statement made in their col-

YARD CREWS STRIKE, GIVEN "DEATH" ENGINE

Tucson, Ariz., May 25.—Ail of the day and night switching crews struck owing to a difficulty regarding the kind of engine to be used in doing switching. From what can be learned a road engine which had no footboard on either the front or the rear of the engine was sent out to a yard crew to take the place of a disabled switch engine. The crew refused to work with the engine, and, according to report, three of the members were laid off. When the other crews heard of the difficulty they struck, and as a result last night none of the crews was working.

The switchmen's reason for refusing to work with a road engine is that it is extremely dangerous. They claim that the danger of injury is sufficiently great with the safeguards of running board on the front and the rear of the engines, which afford the switchmen a good footing.

LOYAL TO BROTHERS

Liberal Donations from This State to Defense Fund for Western Federation of Miners

J. Edward Morgan, special representative of the Western Federation of Miners, today received good news from a number of mining camps in the northwestern part of Illinois.

A letter from H. C. Otthoff of the Lasalle Datiy Post to Morgan contains information that locals have contributed to the defense fund as follows:

Jonesville local, $50.

Oglesby local, $50.

Rockwell local, $160.

Black Hollow local, where the Illinois Zinc Company has its mine, a per captia tax of $5 cents, which will total $40 or $50.

Ita tax of 35 cents, which will total $40 or $50.

About two weeks ago Morgan made addresses at Peru. Shirrard and Lassille, and the interest then aroused has grown steadily, with the result that liberal contributions have been made and others are yet to be made. One of the most earnest workers for the cause of the officials of the Western Federation of Miners is Duncan McDonald, a member of the state executive board of the United Mine Workers of Illinois, who is a Socialist.

When Morgan was visiting the nuning camps he called on President John Mitchell, who was then in a hospital at Spring Valley. The two discussed thoroughly the situation in the west and Mitchell promised to do all he could to arouse interest in behalf of the officers of the Western Federation. Mitchell at that time was reading "The Pinkerton Labor Spy" from the press of the Wishire Publishing Company, and was eager to get all the information obtainable in regard to the mine owners' conspiracy.

THE SICK MADE WELL WITHOUT MEDICINE

OXYDONOR Cures All Manner of Disease With Oxygen from the Air

It is no longer necessary to suffer the pangs of pain and disease or die prematurely. The time is now at hand when it is as easy to get well as it is to get sick. Think of the blessings of laving a way at your own home to cure all sickness of the family without doctors or drugs. The application of Oxydonor compels the body to absorb oxygen through the lungs, membranes and pores of the skin, thus oxygenating the whole volume of the blood, instilling new life and vigor into the system, causing all of the vital organs to act naturally. When the blood is filled with the living fire of impossible.

When the blood is filled with the living fire of oxygen, disease is absolutely impassible.

It carries the vital force of animation in every pulse-beat, and when made adequate it moves any function, throws off any disease, causing the precess of life to prevail. The nature of the disease makes no difference—this natural animation overcomes any form of disease. Case after case the Leen cured of Stomach Trouble, Rheumatiam, Nervous Prostration, Insonania, Ridney and Liver Trouble, Dropsy, Blood Diseases, Ulcers, Abscesses, Tumors, Scrofula, St. Vitus' Dance, Lung Diseases, Catarrh of the Head, Throat or Stomach, Change of Life, etc.

The Parting of the Ways

The fight over the Chicago School Board has upset many a cherished idol and brought the existence of the class struggle home to many that have been blind to its existence.

When the present phase of the fight started-when Mayor Busse determined to save the Tribune Lase steal, protect the coal contract, tinl measure of Trish home rule, its insure the profits of the American Book Company and crush the Teachers' Federation at all hazards-it was necessary for him to ride lords in the upper chamber, rough-shod over bourgeois law and morality. This did not trouble him much personally, since he had had long practice in these lines.

Yet it was necessary that the process be not so raw that the workers should recognize it. To assist him in his work he had the tury ago and discover just what an united support of the Chicago capitalist press, with the wabbling, Irish parliament meant to the Emerald occasional exception of the Hearst papers. dodge issues.

In the last few years she has been taking an active part on the political side of the class struggle. Soon occasions arose where she was forced to decide. Although she was seldom confronted with the direct, clear-cut question between capitalist and laborer, since labor was never represented on any body where she appeared, yet her half- not truly representative-a hearted allegiance to great capital was frequently challenged.

Until within the last few weeks she was still able to maintain her apparent balance between contending forces.

To all the forces of plunder she gives the one thing that is necessary to enable them to get away with the goods-the sheltering man-

We do not denounce, we do not criticise, we do not moralize over this action. We simply relate the facts, some of which may well be invibile to Miss Addams herself, so long has she practiced the habit of blindness toward the clash of contending interests.

With the very best of intentions, with the greatest desire to do justice, she has finished by becoming the tool of an unscrupulous

The one thing which is clearly shown in this is the absolute impossibility of being impartial in a fight such as the class struggle. It is almost certain that Miss Addams never consciously chose to enlist upon the side where she now finds herself, and from which escape will constantly grow more difficult.

The battle is on. You cannot serve capitalists and laborers alike. CHOOSE WHOM YE WILL SERVE.

Saving South Chicago

South Chicago is owned by the Illinois Steel Company, a branch of the United States Steel Company. It owns the only means of livelihood of the population and therefore owns the people. It has exploited these people to a degree seldom equalled. It has crushed nearly every attempt at organization. It has maintained a slaughter house where men and boys are maimed and murdered at a rate that would shock humanity if the killing and crippling of workers had not long ago ceased to shock.

Now because some objection was raised to the stealing of some five million dollars worth of submerged land by this corporation it threatens to move its shops over the state line to Gary, Indiana.

As a result the little merchants and some of the laborers of South Chicago are panic-stricken. They are hastening to revise the law so that stealing of the submerged land will be legal strike. has crushed nearly every attempt at organization. It has main-

But we have never thought to work Socialism in with the dough and the meats and the vegetables. But why not? Don't we try to reach the workingman when he is in the factory and the "ill".

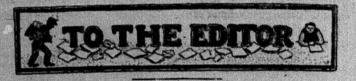

While the housekeeper is wreading with her work and trying to make one pound of pork do the work of two pounds—that is a very good time to impress upon her mind the necessity for a change in existing affairs. While scanning the list of receipts under "Meats," in the hope of finding one that will tell her how to make her one pound of pork go farthess, her eye will suddenly run upon something like this: "Under Socialism every producer will get the full share of his bibor." What will be the effect upon ber mind? She will, wish we might have Socialism to-morrow, if it would settle her meat and bread problem like that.

Take three square, thin slices of white bread and two corresponding slices of whole-wheat bread.

Butter a slice of white bread and cover it with a filling made of egg paste, then put upon it a slice of whole-wheat hread and butter that, and cover with egg paste.

On top of that place another slice of white bread, and repeat the operation with white bread and whole-wheat bread, alternating, until you have used all your five slices.

It is almost a certainty that within the next decade some kind of a Parlia-ment will sit in Dublin once more. The progress of Socialism in the British Isles brings true comradeship in its wake. Every Socialist and Labor member of the House is a consistent friend of Ireland and the Nationalist members in turn support every movement to ameliorate the condition of labor.

It requires no prophet to tell what this mutual assistance will mean in a year or two. The late Michael Davitt's death was as sincerely regretted in England and Scotland as it was in Ireland and Davitt was practically a Socialist. The absence of a legislative assembly

Cheaper Rails and Cheaper Life

Seldom has there been a more cold-blooded murderous situation than that exposed by the Railroad Gazette in connection with the manufacture of poor rails by the United States Steel Company.

The staggering sacrifice of human life on the railroads of the United States is all due to the fact that human life is of far less importance than profits in the scheme of our present society.

When Socialists make this statement it is usually denied, yet there are times when even the innermost organs of capital are compelled to admit that they know the Socialists are telling the truth. But read this, it is a better editorial on Socialism than we

It is perhaps safe to say that there is no more striking example in this country of the dangerous and harmful possibilities of a great corporation than that which is now being afforded by the United States Steel Corporation in its attitude towards demands for sound rails. There is no individual, or combination of individuals, which knows better how to make good rails than does the United States Steel Corporation, with its splendid army of experts. Nevertheless, it knowingly makes rails which break and was a measure introduced in that body kill people. The top of ingots are not being cropped off below the point where high phosphorus and impurities are found; specifications, as furnished by railroad companies, are totally disregarded, and rails, especially in the new and heavier sections, are furinshed with spots in them so full of impurities and so brittle that they must of necessity break when subjected to the strain of traffic. The Steel Company knows this quite well. The railroad companies also know it quite well. The Steel Company declines to take cognizance of the fact, because this would mean considerable reduction of output although no important loss of material. The railroad companies fail to take a firm stand because, in the interests of the tremendous traffic, which they derive directly and indirectly from the steel companies, they have not yet dared to do so.

Two points here are specially noteworthy: first, the criminal willingness of the Steel Corporation and the companies allied with it to manufacture rails that cost human life; second, the attitude, almost equally criminal, on the part of many high railroad officers, to ignore the plain truths that are being brought before them by their superintendents and chief engi-

At the recent meeting of the American Railway Association in Chiago it was asked by G. L. Peck, General Manager of the Pennsylvania Lines West, that any representative of the 230,000-odd miles of railroads in the United Crates present at the meeting who was satisfied with the rails he was receiving, should get up; nobody got up. The representatives of the steel manufacturers who were asked to defend their processes of manufacture had nothing to say.

It is obvious that such a state of affairs as this cannot continue, for public safety is involved. Since the year 1901, it has been impossible for railroad companies to have their specifications adhered to. The tremendous increases in rail breakages during these five years, when the Steel Corporation has had the matter in its own hands, are well shown in the tables of rails broken and taken from track in New York State. During January, February and March, 1907, 836 rails, rolled in the previous year, were broken and taken from track in the state of New York as against 29 rails, rolled in the year 1901, which broke during the same period. This record may be directly characterized as disgraceful-a disgrace to the reputation of the rail manufacturers, who are fully able to remedy the known defects if they wish to do so. The only answer which the rail manufacturers have brought against the charge is that traffic has grown materially heavier in the last few years, and ... at track structures, ballast, etc., are insufficient for the strain which is put upon them, with the result that high spots and low spots occur in the track, causing breakages which cannot be voided. They suggest as a remedy the use of a still heavier rail section, weighing perhaps 150 lbs. to the yard. But it has been conclusively shown that the 100-lb. rails of 1905, 1906 and 1907 have made a far worse record in breakages than the 80-lb. rails rolled five years ago; therefore, it is evident that no help is to come from increased weight of section until better processes of manufacture are co-ordinately employed. Heavy rails of the present day are materially deficient owing to three causes, capable of coniderable subdivision, which can be outlined roughly as below:

(1) Phosphorus and impurities which collect in the top of the ingot during cooling require that about one-third of the ingot should be cut off before the rails are rolled. Present practice in the steel mills cuts off a much smaller amount than this, leaving the ingot full of impurities, and with its phosphorus much higher than that allowed by the best specifica-

(2) With the Bessetner process and the ores now used, it is extremely difficult to keep down the phosphorus. A high phosphorus content with high carbon added to give hardness and wearing qualities makes brittle steel. Open hearth rails, of course, furnish the solution of this difficulty.

(3) In the efforts for output, rails are being finished at too high a temperature, and are not receiving enough work in the rolls. Before this can be completely remedied, it is probable that some change in the form of the cross-section will be necessary, but many of the gravest defects arising from rolling can be remedied while the section remains in its present

Railroad Discrimination . By W. M. Conway

There has been much said for and station and post it on the train youragainst the railroad system during the newspaper campaign against them which followed the magazine exposures of mismanagement, etc. But there is one phase of railroad discrimination and swindling of the public which no writer has touched upon very fully as effects and post it on the train yourgagainst them your said some chance of getting your stand some kind of time, otherwise you will have the satisfaction of seeing your letter take two or three days to cover the distance between Chicago and New York. There is no train between Chitance in less than 25 hours which is not an extra fare train. Not only does charge must be paid in addition, as there are no coaches on the best trains. On the 16-hour train to Philadelphia the fare is $22. On the Penn-sylvania Limited it is $27; on the Manhattan Limited it is about $24, and so on down until we come to the trains which are provided for the common secople where the fare is from $15.50

The schedules are so arranged that a poor man who has a wife or child lying somewhere must pay the exorbitant excess fare or drag along. stopping at way stations all the way to New York. Every possible subtertuge is resorted to to discriminate against the poor people by the roads train," New York to Chicago, lays two nours in London, Ont. Another dumps is passengers in Buffalo at 8 o'clock in the evening, where they have to wait until 11, when the western connection leaves. This train is due in Chicago at 2 p. m., but it is always from one to three hours late. All sorts of de-lays due to mismanagement are ex-perienced on these slow trains, while the extra fare trains have the right of way over everything.

mails the same evil state of affairs is noted. The Pennsylvania Ratiroad has a practical monopoly of mail and pas-senger traffic from the southeast and from Pennsylvania points to Chicago. The mails on this road are so delayed that if this government was not run by and in the interest of the railroads the and in the interest of the railroads the postoffice department would not stand for it a single day. There is only one train on the Pennsylvania system that carries the mail to this city—in the time it should be carried, and that is the Pennsylvania Special. This train carries only first-class letter mail.

If you take your setter over to the writer has touched upon very fully as letters were posted in Philadelphia durof the transportation companies with ident of this city. One of them was It make: no difference whether a mark, at 1 a. m., on a Monday, and man pays a first-class fare or not, he arrived in Chicago on Wednesday aft-must ride in the Pullman car if he ernoon. The other three took from 36 wishes to get anywhere in any kind of to 48 nours each from point to point. One mail train, No. 10, on the Pennsylago and New York covering the dis- vania, leaves Chicago about 10 p. m., reaching Pittsburg at 2 p. m., dragging along and stopping at local stations, arnot an extra fare train. At the riving at Harrisburg, Pa., only 249 the railroad exact from $3 to $11 extra riving at Harrisburg, Pa., only 249 for the fast time, but the Pullman miles from Pittsburg, at 1 a. m., and crawling into Philadelphia at 4:23 a. m. the second morning. There are a number of other instances which might be cited, but space forbids.

As our time tables are made out now only the rich can get anywhere in good thne. The poor who can't afford to ride in Pullman cars must spend several days to make a trip that ought to be made in one day. Something ought to be done about it.

Plutocratic Suffrage for

The plutocratic doctrine that the rich should act for the poor is fluding expression in England from a source which is in this country also not wholly untainted with that pernicious doctrine. Agitators for woman suffrage here, where the conflict is at this time tremendously heated, are, proposing woman suffrage with a property qualification. This proposal is severely criticized by the London Nation in a protest against the re-establishment of the plutocratic doctrine of government by property "under so lofty a flag as that of woman's suffrage." The protest is just. It were better that suffrage should be withheld from women altogether than that it should be extended to some of them as a property right. To withhold it is only to stand still for a time in the democratic pathway; to grant it as a prerogative of wealth is to turn backward.—The Public. Among all the true things that John S. Mill has said of us—and one is allow the found capable of so accurately divining the situation—one of the most true is, that women have little or no "consecutive" time, and have to do their thinking at odd moments. The demands upon their attention are incessant, and make up in number for what they want in importance.

So various are they, so conflicting, and so unexpected the quarters from whence they come, that life from this

Carrot said

Cook the carrots, then cut into slices and finally into small pieces, and place on a bed of shredded lettuce. Whip one-fourth cupful of cream to a froth, add gradually two tablespoonfuls of vinegar, one-third teaspoonful of sait, a few drops of tobased or a dash of carenne, and two tablespoonfuls of freshly grated horseradish. Pour this over the carrots and serve at once. CHILD'S LOW-NECKED ONE-PIECE DRESS,

CHILD'S LOW-NECKED GNE-PIECE DRESS, Slipped On over the Head.
Parts Pattern No. 1919.
All Seams Allowed.

The influence of the reign of the jumper is shown invite little one-piece dress for a child that is silved on over the head. It is here illustrated made of white lines, with bands and belt of Delft hine. It is also a good model for gingham or madras, but could well be made in wool materials, such as any of the light, striped dannels or in cross-barred or plaid material.

The pattern is in 5 sincs—1 to 2 years. For a child of 5 years, the dress needs 4½ yards of goods 20 inches wide, or 2½ yards 26 inches wide, or 2 yards 27 inches wide.

Price of pattern, 10 cents. A new feature in veils is the striped effect with an edge trimming of satin or taffeta folds; preferably the latter. The veil itself is of bobinette, which is really the old-fashioned fabric revived and used for everything. Pin tucking is frequently its only trimming and it is worn over slips of white, pale pink, pale blue and corn color.
