Lincoln, Neb., June 16 -- William J Bryan's paper, the Commoner, publishes a table showing that Bryan has 630 a table showing that Bryan has 630 instructed votes of the 1,002 in the Democratic authoral convection. In addition to these, according to the Commoner table, he has 6 personally pledged to him from states not instructed, or losand by unit rule, making a total of 657, or 59 more than the necessary two thirds required to nominate. Bryan's friends in Lincoln say he will be nominated on the first ballot. They claim he will have further support in the ten states yet to boid their state conventions.

TEACHERS' BODY IS MUCH ALIVE

Federation Not Dead; 700 Union Pedigogues Attend a Banquet

The banquet held by the Teachers Federation of Chicago, at the Grand Federation of Chicago, at the Grand Pacific hotel, pointed out that instead of being dead, as thought by enemies of organized labor, it is now more enthusiastic than ever. The banquet was attended by over 700 teachers and each and all agreed that the year just closed was the most strenuous ever gone throught in the public schools. It was proved at the bander that the plot started by enemies of organized labor had failed.

The coup to break up the teachers federation was looked upon as being one of the most brilliant ever hatched by its focs. It was expected that by keeping the teachers as busy as pos-

CHICAGO DAILY SOCIALIST POST PAYS FOR

Calls G. O. P. Platform Yellow for Catering to Labor Votes

Another "paid" brainstorm must be hecked to C. W. Post's already long list. This time it is the Republican platform and Theodore Rocevelt that has brought out a delirious bit of sentimental word carving from the fleey're After You. The main object of Post's writing is the anti-injunction law, of which he is so afraid.
Post is so afraid that the law mightbe passed that he has gone as far as calling Roosevelt names and accusing him of hobnobing with criminals, meaning the labor leaders, and saying that the promosed Remphiless platmeaning the tabor leaders, and saying that the proposed Republican platform has a "Streak of yellow."

In a paid advertisement headed "The Platform's Streak of Yellow,"
Post tells of how the "manly Americans" in congress fought to prevent the passing of the terrible anti-injunction law. He tells of how they three tion law. He tells of how they three times stayed the attempt of Roosevelt when he tried to win the labor vote by giving it anti-injunction as a bait and how those "manly Americans" saved the country from a dishonor by doing so.

"Sluggers and Toughs"
As the brainstorm proceeds it increases in its intensity. Post has the following to say of labor leaders and unions and Roosevelt:

"Labor union leaders and their sluggers and toughs have been prevented (at times) by an injunction of a court, forbidding them to do things which they were known to be contemplating, that would result in slugging or killing American citizens, destroying property, etc., etc.

stroying property, etc., etc.

"The courts can now be called upon to issue such injunctions and pro-on to issue such injunctions and protect persons and property.

"The sluggers and dynamiters don't like the law, and particularly bate this one, for it prevents them from committing acts of lawlessness under penalty of contempt of court and imprisonment.

penalty of contempt of court and imprisonment.

"Therefore they demand a law to prevent the courts from issuing any the such restraining orders for protection of men, women, children, and property. They now say, the up your courts so we can insult, attack and slug men, picket and destroy property, and force all other men to pay lies to our leaders and obey.

"It makes an honest American sick Waf heart to see a President of this country stoop to pander and offer to exchange the eternal Principles of Right, Justice and Honor for the hope of a few voies for his party. And it sickens one to see a great career thus besmirched and black-weened.

"If a man does not intend to assaul man's home, aynaming tory, strip the women who ride on tory, strip the women who ride on cars, cut the tongues out of some horses, or wreck a passenger train, an order of court to prevent will not hurt him in the slightest degree; but intending criminals hate the people's law and their courts, and particularly have injunctions."

law and their courts, and particularly hate injunctions."

In closing his vituperations, Post very earnestly calls upon Roosevelt to awake to the danger that would result to the American citizen if antimjunctic, I laws were passed and says:
"Here's hoping your friends will save you from the proposed trade with intending criminals." There's a Reason, Mr. Roosevelt, and a big one."

THE HUSTLERS' COLUMN

Almost without exception there's ne good reason or valid excuss for ANY-BODY lagging at this time. The few futhful ones who work ALL THE TIME report subscriptions far more easily secured now than during the winter. Note that two Hustlers turn in 20 subscriptions today. And these men dare not let their names be known. They must work under cover. What, then, ought the Daily to expect of YOU who can work openly and fearlessly for your paper? YOU. MUST be heard from with SUBSURIPTIONS before another 24 hours passes. You can. You've done it before and under conditions far more unfavorable than those of tedaw.

passes. You can. You've done it before and under conditions far more unfavorable than those of today.

YOU are one of the army of Hustlers which gave their paper an average weekly increase of 400 for 20 consecutive weeks last winter. The same subgesting "stuff" that enabled you to contribute to the increase THEN is in you NOW. Get it out and put it to work. There's nothing wrong with the workers except that they must be CALLED UPON; the paper is far better NOW than it was last winter; the capitalists ARE MAKING SOCIALISTS EVERY DAY; the weather is better and the days longer than formerly. But there's a whole lot of latent ABILITY in YOU that YOU'RE ALLOWING TO GO TO MASTE!

Hustlers, your paper NEEDS that ability; it NEEDS you; it needs YOU worse than it needs anything else; it will always need you. But it shouldn't have to fit you'll give YOURSELIF half a chance!

Buckle up! Work for an upward sweep this work that will make the plute convention in Chicago take notice. THEY'LI BE LAX'HING AT US NOW. That's right. We deserve to be laughed at, just as we laugh at a bird popularly supposed to hide its head in the sand when confronted with danger. Subscriptions by the thousand are all around us waiting to be picked up. AND WE'RE HIDING!

Geo. New, Chicago, takes worth of due stamps and sta show other workers about this sustaining the Daily.

"Here's a dollar for a new subscription and an extra fifty cents for ammuni-tion," writes J. W. Taunt, Belleville, Ili. Mo., pulls

The officers of the American Federation of Labor, who are begging favors of the Republican national convention, complain because they are criticised by the Daily Socialist. They claim that if the Daily is working for organized labor that it should assist them in their efforts.

There is a slight break in the logic by which this conclusion is reached. It presupposes that the efforts which are being made to get the Republican Party to place some deceptive planks in its platform are in the interest of organized labor. It is easily possible and highly probable that President Gompers and the others who are highly probable that President Gompers and the others who are heavily for highly probable that President Gompers and the others who are heavily for heavi

If the Socialists really believed that the cause of organized labor would be benefitted by any promises that might be secured from the Republican Party, then the Daily Socialist and all Socialists would be busily engaged in assisting Gompers, Mitchell and the other trade union officers who are now button-holing delegates.

If it is easily possible and high declare to protest, for any longer and forebare to protest any longer and f

There never has been a time when these men were fighting the cause of Labor that they did not find the Daily Socialist with them. She if you were not an 'inndesirable cit.' you would have thought some them all for rent and living expenses, and, of course, you know the latest of the interest of the licity. Whenever the courts have attacked organized labor this paper has never hesitated in its fight for the unions.

ON ALL THESE OCCASIONS, WHEN THERE WAS NO DOUBT ABOUT THE INTEREST OF LABOR BEING AT STAKE, THE PAPERS THAT ARE NOW SUPPORTING THE REPUBLICAN PARTY WERE OPPOSED TO GOMPERS

Today many of the very papers that approved of the court decisions that sought to disrupt organized labor are aiding him inhis effort to secure an anti-injunction plank by which to secure votes for "Injunction Bill" Taft. The Daily Socialist will not become a party to any such scheme to deceive Labor.

Moreover, it is possible that the time is not so very far distant when Samuel Gompers will be forced to admit the correctness of this opinion. Not so very many years ago he was denouncing anyone, and most all the Socialists, who dared to suggest that Labor should use its political power as a means of fighting for freedom. Today he has accepted this much of the Socialist philosophy... He has been forced to admit that through all these years he was wrong and we were right.

For this much we are thankful. The Socialist recognizes that it is a sign of progress when organized labor awakes to the necessity of ANY SORT OF POLITICAL ACTION.

But the mere fact that the Socialist advised political action does not compel him to endorse political action in the interest of the

The Socialists would be traitorous to the working class if they were to join hands with trade union officials in an effort which cannot but end in the disruption of the very trade unions in whose name it is made.

Why the Republican Party Should Succeed

The Licerary Bureau of the Republican Congressional committee at Washington is advertising that it will pay $150 for 'he best article of 1,000 words telling "Why the Republican Party should be successful next November."

The Daily Socialist does not consider that the subject is worth the space named and does not expect to get the prize, but it is willing to offer a few suggestions that the committee is at liberty

The Republican Party should be successful because it best expresses the spirit of capitalism and capitalism is in the saudle today. Republican officials in state and nation have shown their ability to keep the workers in submission, and that is the mai. purpose of government at present. The better to do this they have not hesitated to use the courts, the police, the army and all other powers at their disposal.

The Republican Party should be successful because of the piety of its leaders. No other candidate for President has had the sublime faith in the power of Providence to solve all problems. and especially that of the unemployed, that was expressed by "Injunction Bill" Taft, in his infamous "God knows" speech.

The Republican Party should succeed because it has kept as free as possible from showing any sympathy with the working class and history would seem to show that a majority of the workers like being kicked.

The Republican Party should succeed because four more years of the present brand of Republican prosperity ought to give such a liberal education to the laborers of this country that nothing on earth would keep them from voting the whole capitalist system

There are any number of similar reasons that might be given, most or all of which apply equally well to the Democratic Party.

Overproduction Under Socialism

A. W. Brey of Ontario, Wis., is troubled over the question of how a Socialist society would prevent over-production. He says:

There will always be some people who will work hard and save up money and some who will not. Capitalism will leave us a heritage of these saving, penurious people and they will draw their labor checks and leave their products in the government markets to pile up over-production and indus-trial stagnation; while at the same time there will be thousands of people, who not having saved up for a rainy day will be deprived of work and a means of making a living.

A society in which the working class through its government owns the means with which wealth is produced and distributed will calculate each year how much of a given commodity is needed, allowing always a sufficient surplus to meet emergencies. When this amount has been produced, if there be any workers who desire further employment there are untold directions in which labor can be expended in permanent improvements, in the production of things of beauty and social interest, of which there can never be an over-

If any individual should be so obsessed with the desire to work and save that he insisted on laboring throughout the year there could be no objection to his action by anyone else. No matter how much he accumulated he could never invest it in a manner that would give him power to exploit others.

Daily Socialist Not Wanted

There is one place where the Daily Socialist is decidedly not wanted, and that is on the floor of the Republican national conven-tion. It is doubtful if there has ever been a similar act on the part of any great political gathering in the history of this country.

The fact that the Daily Socialist has a larger circulation than "The only Republican paper in Chicago," did not prevent the Inter Ocean, which carries this motto at its head, from getting all the privileges it wished, while the Daily Socialist is practically debarred from the hall.

Evidently the last thing the Republicans wanted was the publication of the truth about their gathering. Nevertheless the truth will be published. Watch the Daily Socialist and sec.

LABOR PRODUCES ALL WEALTH

Other than the resources of nature, Socialists maintain that Labor of brain and brawn, Labor of mind and limb, proeduce all wealth produced liwalth.

Because Labor produces all wealth we maintain that those who do the Labor shacld have all the wealth produced.

There are those who will tell you that capital produces wealth and that money makes money. Let us consider it a moment.

Good old pious Deacon Rockefeller no doubt has capital to the equivalent of a billion dollars. The Call for Woman = BY AGNES H. DOWNING Kipling once wanted to make some [And the dead child dripped on he en look base in the eyes of the world; nen lock base in the eyes of the world; And her own in the shroud lay stark; was wanted to make them look mean "And God forgive us, mother," she said, "We let it die in the dara." and unworthy of belief, and in doing this he compared them to comfortable women. The lines stung me at first. I wordered if the wordered if the wordered if there could be women who, safe and comfortable themselves, cared not for the rest of their brothers.

Yes, such women exist. The woman who will tell you that the workingment the world gives us today. The working woman is right in her sympathics. She knows that humanity is suffering, she has no delusions about the whole world being warm. She knows the needs and is willing to give herself would be all right if they would only to relieve them. Yet, when the sall save their money is such a woman. The comes she, too, is slow to interpret, woman who will tell you that working She looks to the needs of her own famwomen would be all right if they would ily and they engross her. The voice only all do housework is such a woman, calls, but she is not ready—she is lay. The woman with leisure, who does not interest herself in the great struggles the heaven of a successful marriage, or of humanity, is such a woman. To wo she is making the sign that is to give of humanity, is such a woman. It wo she is making ine sign that is to great man with even a little leisure, that does a great career to her son. So the is calling for economic justice that world lives, is, to some extent, such a will give shelter and protection to its woman.

What are the rewards of such lives? done that superstition or custom can be a superstition of extine and do for our own children, it may be

For the rest, the seum of the best minds of our own time and the pitving contempt of time to come. If life be worth more to thinking mankind than to dumb beasts, woman can only take that better part by engaging herself in that vital question—how people live.

Kipling gives quite snother picture of woman in "The Gift of the Sea." Here the wide, in her little cottage by the channel, watching over her dead hopes, not permitting the call of the drowning world's workers to bring us to the battling waters.

Inducements to Capital

I read in an investment journal the other day an inducement which Mexico offered capital. It said the laborer there was ignorant, had little or no wants, made no trouble, but could work as well as the Ameri an and he could be had on your own terms. A fine opportunity for the man with means.

Can you not see that the prevailing object is not to relieve misery, suppress vice or correct improvidence, but to make money out of vice, misery and vice or correct improvidence, but make money out of vice, misery mprovidence? The ignorance and of the many is a necessary condition to the economic supremacy of a few with all the advantages that economic supremacy implies.

A NEW TERM WANTED

By Robert Hunter.

A gentleman said to me the other day that Socialists were too bitter-that there ought to be more sweetness and brotherliness in all we say. For instance, we sometimes speak of our corporate masters as thieves. Now the word "thief" is an ugly, harsh word, a word to be used with caution and precision,

The other day in New York we witnessed a little muck-

A rich and powerful corporation which owns most of the streets of Manhattan WAS CAUGHT in a very disgraceful act. It was discovered that this corporation, beside owning the streets, owned a number of judges. Even this did not content the corporation. It fixed the juries. It went further. It paid five dollars a day to every policeman called as a witness into the courts.

In other words, it owned the judge, the jury, and the

Every day someone is killed and injured on our railroads. Fathers of little children are crippled and maimed. Widows and orphans are made. Every day biting grief and bitter anguish enter someone's home because of death or serious injury due to the street railway traffic.

If a citizen attempted to confiscate a single steel rail, or an old horse car, or a nickel fare, a piteous howl would go up from this mighty corporation. Yet every day this corporation CON -ISCATES SOME-BODY'S ARM OR LEG OR LIFE.

Heretofore our courts have decided that it is illegal to confiscate without compensation,

But this corporation found it had to pay too much compensation for arms and legs and lives. It therefore decided

Penniless widows and orphans come into the supposedly honest and incorruptible presence of the court, stricken with grief because something has been taken away from them that no money, not even the millions of the corporation, could

They expect in entering the court to receive fair treat-

Instead they are up against a bunco game that would make an ordinary pickpocket blush with shame if he were mean enough to practice it.

The judge is against them, the jury is fixed, and the policeman who picked up the dead body is paid to testify against them. Now the proper word to apply to this corporation es-

"Thief" is not the right word exactly. "Murderer" does not quite fill the bill. "Traitor to the institutions of one's country" applies only to a part of the corporation's conduct. The old Greek terms, "furies," "harpies," "fiends," are terms altogether too gentle. "Scribes, pharisees, hypocrites, whited sepulchres," are bitter, but not bitter enough. We need a new term.

Perhaps my sweet, brotherly gentleman friend may be able to supply it.

TWO SONNETS

I know-too well-a drear and dingy street Where pallid faces set in dumb despair, Untended children in the blighting air And hasten past in bare and suffering feet. The ginshop with an ample cheer doth greet And cast its tragic spell; the evening glare Doth bid despised men accept the face Of fellowship—and fellowship is sweet. What lost and godless land hath such a spot, Some eastern port fermenting in its sint Ali, no! my brothers, nearer; know you not The homes of England, these who dwell therein? I speak of where—O God, the thought appals— The shadow of the gray cathedral falls.
