Bloomington, Ill., 'uly 21.—William onovan, a coal miner, employed by e Assumption Coal Mine company. risked his life to save others from de struction by entering a blazing office of the company and carrying out 150 pounds of dynamite and a keg of gun-powder, which had been left there for powder, which had been left there for safekeeping. Electric light wires set fire to the bu'lding.

When Dono an reached the scene he remembered the explosive stored in the structure, and, forcing the door, carried the dynamite and powder to a place of safety, although covered with sparks, while the rescue was being made. He was given a bearty cheer, his only reward, for his presence of mind and bravery.

HAPGOODS' LAST HOPE IS LOST

Unable to Show Why It Should Continue: Injunction Refused

Happeods' employment agency could not show that it had the right to go on and swindle jobless men vesterday in the circuit court, and Judge Mack refused to save an injunction against the state commissioners of labor restraining them from investigating it. The court held that the bill was vague and indefinite in its allegations; that there was nothing in it which gave him any authority to issue the writ, and that it was not shown that there were any 'mlawful practices on the part of the 'ommissioners to injure the business of Happoods.

Attorney L. E. Hart, for Happoods, withdrew the bill and asked leave to file an amended document. He was given urtil 11 o'clock today to do 1.

THE HUSTLERS' COLUMN

By H. G. Creel

* WHAT THE SUBSCRIPTION HUSTLERS DID YESTERDAY

Chicago Hustlers! Chicago! Get busy with those city subs. Nothing short of 25 every day should be tolerated. You CAN get the new ones. But you've got to ASK for them. While getting around among Chicago Hustlers I find some too dignified to ask for subs. (This doesn't apply to YOU, of course, but to source one else.) Few people in or out of Chicago are going to change their way of thinking, reading and voting—just because. YOU didn't. Some one INTER-ESTED YOU in Socialism. Some one GOT YOU to read. It must be so in the case of your neighbor. Go after him. Tell him about the Daily Socialist and what it means to HIM as a member of the working class. Suppose you Do have to unbend a little. A new subscription is worth it. Read what Josh Billings says about the dignified man:

phant, and gay and kussid like the hippopotamus or wild sea hoss."

This second week of the Daily's increased subscription rate is the one that will TBY THE METTLE of the Hustler army. Most of the "standbys" lave already been heard from—and with good reports. New comes the time when ALL the others MUST rally to the standard if reaction is to be forestalled.

And this UNIVERSAL action must be participated in by YOU, THIS WEEK. One suh at the new rate means 50 per cent more than formerly. You Hustlers can make that increased rate a tremendous UPLIFT for your paper. This added income will come, too, at a time when the paper can use it to an advantage never before possible. Now, while the comparign of the opposition is gathering itself together for a rush against us we should be strengthening at every point.

Remember that YOU command one unit of this army. That one unit MUST-take up the fight or turn its back to the battle AS YOU DICTATE. Other units will press the fight or desert the firing line according to the action of YOUE unit.

More than you imagine depends on YOU. Get in at least one sub. THIS

Some of these leaders are undoubtedly sincere. They have come to believe that relief can be secured through the political parties of facts they can be reconciled somehow capitalism. So far as such men are concerned we can only quarrel even though we are not able to explain with their logic and wonder at the sort of mind that accepts the idea the harmony. that because a party owned, financed and controlled by the bosses, BUT DEPENDING FOR SUCCESS UPON WORKING-CLASS VOTES, has made some smooth promises for the sake of securing settled all the deeper problems of life those votes, therefore labor's interests can be secured by swallowing those promises.

There are other leaders who seem overly anxious for the spoils | There is in reality no contradiction of office, and who seem to be much more willing to believe in a between the intelligent self-interest the party after they have been promised a fat job.

None of those leaders who are trying to deliver the membership to capitalist parties seem anxious to have a referendum on the matter. They do not ask the rank and file what they think about the question. When they do, as in Toledo, the answer does not seem to be quite as the would-be bosses would like to have it. Here the membership voted nearly three to one in favor of supporting the Socialist party. Will the officers of the trade unions in Toledo carry out the orders of the rank and file as meekly as the officers of some national and local unions expect the rank and file to carry out the States, should not lay themselves open orders given by the officers?

If they do not it would be foolish to "prefer charges" against cialism. them. You cannot make a man a Socialist by "preferring charges."

That such tactics are now being attempted by some would-be decoys of the labor vote shows that they are getting desperate. It is only because they have realized the hopelessness of CONVINC-ING BY ARGUMENT that they are THREATENING TO USE DISCIPLINE

If they really believed in their ability to prove their case with argument they would appeal to the referendum of the membership and would throw open the union floor to a full and fair discussion of working-class politics. They would have a tremendous advantage in such a discussion. They could come on to the floor of the union backed by the prestige of their position and assisted in the arrangement of their arguments by the best minds that capitalism could buy. The membership would then have a chance to weigh and consider the political claims of all sides to vote as their REASON

The End of One Battle

The acquittal of Steve Adams ends the long-drawn-out battle between the Mine Owners' Association and the Western Federation of Miners-at least so far as the effort to judicially lynch the trade union leaders is concerned. Four juries have now passed upon the evidence gathered by the Pinkertons and the fine owners. There was not a single faember of the Western Federation of Miners among these forty-eight jurors. There were several who were admittedly prejudiced against that organization.

GOMPERS' VICTORY AT DENVER

By Robert Hunter.

Some trade unionicts are up in arms against the Democratic anti-mjunction" plank, and they ought to be. It is a direct evasion and an infamous attempt to delude labor.

The papers report that Gompers applauds that plank. If this is true he is applauding THE DEFEAT of labor.

The plank is a flagrant, and I have confidence enough in the intelligence of labor to believe, a vain attempt to betray labor.

An ANTI-injunction plank was demanded. A PRO-injunction plank was obtained. Labor has declared rightly, wisely and constitutionally, that an injunction should NEVER be issued in an industrial dispute. Such injunctions are a violation of our liabilities, issued in aid of the employing class to the injury of the working class. But what have the Democrats given us?

After lauding to the skies the judiciary the Deniscratic program declares that "injunctions should not be issued in any case in which injunctions would not be issued if no industrial disputes were involved."

Gompers says he is content with that statement. He says he does not want any special legislation. He does not ask the abolition of injunctions. He only wants them to be used against Labor in the same way they are used against others.

Well, here is an injunction that was NOT used against Labor. A gentleman in Texas asked a judge to enjoin another man from alienating the affections of his wife. The injunction was granted. It commanded the intruder neither to communicate with nor to speak to the wife, nor to go near her house, nor near any other house or place in the city of Dallas or in the state of Texas where this woman happened to be.

That I take it was not an industrial dispute. It was not an injunction used to assist capital at the expense of Labor. It was a domestic affair into which a judge insinuated himself and his authority as I think not even the Czar or Kaiser would attempt.

Yet Samuel Gompers says he is willing to leave to judges the power to issue such injunctions.

But if a judge can issue an injunction like the above he can enjoin (as judges have done) the Brotherhood of Carpenters from handling nonunion materials. He can enjoin a quarryman's union from solociting new members. He can dissolve unions as conspiracies. He can even enjoin a union from paying an eight-hour strike benefit.

Furthermore, he can enjoin Samuel Gompers from writing editorials or from having a private conversation with the President of the United States

If a judge can enjoin a man from alienating the affections of another man's wife he can enjoin Samuel Gompers from alienating the affections of an employe for his master. The Socialists do not want any special legislation. Labor does not want any special legislation. They want a fundamental legis-

MISS TRUST AND HER TROUBLES

New York clergymen resent Registrar Guilfoy's intimation that they neglect to file reports of marriages as required by law. They say that fewer marriages are taking place and attribute the falling off to the industrial depression. Yet, in all probability, these very clergymen will soon be telling their face, the old story—that it is necessary to uphold depitalism (hard times and all), because "Socialism would destroy the home."—New York Call.
