Both the out-of-town Hustlers and the Chicago boys gained over their figures of yesterday. The day before was a record breaker for torrid weather, and if such a gain can be made on a sweltering day such as yesterday it shows that you are all starting in to work hard. Let us keep it up, bot or cold. We know you are working with that "do or die" spirit, but see if you cannot send the figures up to the 200 mark. were before the flood. The Daily Social's, your champion, your defender, is in danger. The very fortress which is holding the upper class in check, which is keeping the flood. Capitalism, from distranchising you, is in need of your support now. Are you going to let Capitalism wash the Daily Socialist away and wash you away with it?

Do not say this who was the property of the pro

you away with it?

Do not say this plea is false. Those at Johnstown would also have declared false the plea for the strengthening of the dam. Don't be deaf to entreaties of reason, don't be blind to on-coming dissater when it stares you in the face.

But you must do more than to recognize the Daily's need of immediate re-enforcements; you must recognize that it is your own individual effort that must contribute to supply this strength. If you have done well in the past, do still better now; if in the past you have not done anything, now is the time to begin.

It is not necessary to be a working mule to have an active interest in the Daily. You cannot tell how soon your neck will be in the collar, and you will be drawing the parasites' burden. It is better to keep out of harness altogether than to let yourself be hitched up and then have to kick locas.

But the Daily Socialist needs and deserves more than a meager support. It should have an endowment fund which will provide against the future necessity of asking for funds. Let us join hands and put the Daily up where it belongs—beyond the danger point. Let us act before the flood.

A New Accident In surance Company to Be Owned by and Managed in the Interest of the Workers of the Country

There is being organized in Chicago accident insurance company which is be owned and managed entirely it the interest of the workers of the cour the interest of the workers of the country. It is not generally known that there is over $19,000,000 paid out each year for secident insurance by the workers of the United States. This fact becomes doubly significant when it is known that the secident insurance companies which receive this snormous sum from the tollers are themselves owned. from the toilers are themselves owner and controlled by men who are not only and controlled by men who are not only in their private sympathies hostile to the interests of injured men, but the companies themselves are so managed that they do everything in their power to defeat their own injured policyholder if he attempts to secure damages from the corporation or concern that is re

Preferred stock is to be sold that has a guaranteed dividend of 7 per cent, but if the experience of the other companies is equaled it will probably pay from 20 to 10k per cent per year. One company has earned during the past three years nearly 200 per cent per year on the capital invested.

The entire capital of an accident insurance company organized in illinois is held by the state in the form of first mortgages, etc. on which the company mortgages, etc., on which the compan-draws the interest. An additional in dication of safety is the fact that n

Thus, from the standpoint of safety and large profits, there is no business in the country that begins to be so attractive, and well informed insurance men who are familiar with the plans and prospects of the new company predict that it will in a few years have a larger business than any other company. In fact, the company already has an immerse volume of business in sight from some of the great labor organizations.

Of Gaylord Wilshire, editor of the magazine that bears his name, it has been said: "He is of the magazine that bears his name, it has been said: "He is the greatest journalist in the American Socialist movement, and has chosen to sing the song of Socialism Inevitable, basing his argument on the Significance of the Trust, as foreshadowing a huge unemployed problem." This work contains the strongest of his writings, and deserves a wide circulation. They are perhaps the simplest presentation of Socialism and the sanest discussion from the Socialist viewpoint of current problems.

The Call of the Wild-JACE LONDON

THIS story takes hold of the universal things in human and animal nature; it is one of those strong, thrilling, brilliant things which are better worth reading the second time than the first. Entertaining stories we have in plenty; but this is something more—it is a piece of literature. At the same time, it is one of the best dog stories ever written, and an unforgettable picture of the whole wild, thrilling, desperate, vigorous, primeval life of the Klondike regions in the years after the gold fever set in. It ranks beside the best of Kipling's jungle stories, besides the best things of its kind in English literature.

Now, for the first time in all these centuries, the current is "That tells me low to die." And as reversed. For several months the army has been marching back he finished reading the first. "Now The old man's mind was lost to all toward the east.

That such a change has taken place in a movement so long there." And the aged pair clasped each established and so powerful as this one is a fact of tremendous other's importance.

The lure that has drawn mankind ever onward toward the setting sun has been the possibility of fleeing from the oppressions which so-called civilization has laid upon those who do the work been ill in the little town where I was the replies of the world. These workers have always sought to escape to a land where natural resources were still somewhat freer, where exploitation was less severe, where the opportunity to receive the reward of toil was greater.

Today the east has met the west, and the west is driving back this army that has been marching westward through the centuries.

Se this great world movement of mankind is turning upon itself. Such a change means the end of an era. It means that man- with him the music of church bells filled became inflated with egotism and greed kind, having fled from oppression clear round the world, must now the air like angels on high summoning the venerable pilgrim home. And I de ENDURE that oppression or CURE it.

Fifty millions of the workers have ceased to FLEE and have turned to FIGHT. They have given up seeking some far-off paradise under the setting sun and have set about the work of transforming the land in which they are forced to live into something more nearly a paradise than this world has ever known.

There being no new worlds to conquer they are going to capture the old one.

This is the meaning of the Socialist movement. This move ment will gain new strength when the mass of mankind realizes that it cannot escape from its slavery one by one. When the workers learned that the road from wage slave to master was barred they set about abolishing slavery. Having learned that the road FROM capitalism is barred they are setting about the destruction of capitalism.

WHEN THE WORKERS OF THE WORLD REALIZE THAT THEY CANNOT ONE BY ONE EMIGRATE TO FREEDOM THEY WILL CONQUER THE WHOLE WORLD FOR FREEDOM.

The Primaries

Next Saturday the voters of Illinois will select the men who are to be placed upon the ticket for the November election. The Republican and Democratic candidates are telling some very interesting truths about each other just now that will be worth remembering during the rest of the campaign.

The Socialist party, being already controlled by the rank and file of the voters, has no quarrel over its nominees. But one man is offered for each office and there is no doubt of the result. The fact that the Socialist party is the only one whose "machine" is not more or less damaged by the new primary law is significant, as there is some reason to believe that the law was designed in part to hit that party. But any sort of an electoral device that gives the mass of voters more power can only strengthen a machine which is ruled by the rank and file.

Because of the certainty of the result, however, some Socialists may be inclined to remain away from the primaries. There is one reason why this would be a very unfortunate thing if it shidled be general. A "precinct committeeman" must be elected in each of the precincts in Chicago. This man cannot be elected in any other has nominated these in nearly every precinct and their names must be written on the ballot. If any Socialist has not yet learned the nominee for his precinct he should find out from the Socialist head quarters, and in case no nomination has as yet been made should see to it that someone is found for the place.

MR. TAFT'S REAL VIEWS

By Robert Hunter.

If you want to know a man's real views do not seek them when that man is candidate for political office. At such times a man is NOT disinterested. He does not at such times go out of his way 10 OFFEND any section of the peo-

If his views are likely to offend Jews or Germans or Irish or the workers or the property-owners, he at least remains silent. He their lot in life. I confirmed his fears has everything to gain by concealing his real views and by uttering opinions which attract as many as possible of the different kinds of people, organizations, races and classes.

For this reason a wise man takes the views of a candidate for office with a grain of salt.

But now and then there comes along a candidate with a record. At such times the voters can, if they wish, find out the REAL VIEWS of that candidate.

Such an one is William Howard Taft.

When he was judge of the United States Circuit Court he senenced a labor leader to prison. It was part of an extraordinary judicial effort to crush the American Railway Union, of which Eugene V. Debs was president. In sentencing this labor leader, Mr. Taft said: "The gigantic character of the conspiracy of the American Railway Union staggers the imagination. The purpose, snortly stated, was to starve the railway companies and the public. . . . Certainly the star-vation of a nation could not be a lawful purpose of combination, and it is utterly immaterial whether the purpose is effected by means usually lawful or otherwise."

"To starve railway companies" is a term which no man whose class, unable to sestain the big fellow above, and at the same time prevent the little fellow below from easing in Pullman.

At this moment millions of men, women and children labor without hope. Yet, if these millions were to strike and assert their right to a living wage or to equitable conditions of livelihood, Mr. Taft would call that a dangerous conspiracy to "starve" railway companies and other property owners.

Mr. Taft also says it is, utterly immaterial when these men strike "whether their purpose is effected by means USUALLY law-

We had supposed that in this republic men had the right to bet-their condition, providing they ACTED LAWFULLY. But Mr. Taft says it matters not whether they act lawfully or otherwise, they are conspirators threatening to starve the railroads and the public. That ends the matter, and their leaders must then be clealt with summarily, and LAWFULLY or UNLAWFULLY, cast into Now, what is it that enables ONE MAN to exercise a power o great as this-a power that, indeed, staggers the imagination?

What is it that enables a judge to condemn a man or any group of men when they have committed NO illegal act? What is it that enables him to over-ride their constitutional rights and sentence them TO PRISON? IT IS THE POWER OF INJUNCTION. It is the power of king and czar-power that came direct from king and czar, which, when we abolished kings, we gave to EVERY JUDGE that sits on the bench.

Mr. Taft was one of the first of our judges to exercise that power in its most obnoxious form, and he well earned his title, The Father of Injunctions.

Today this judge, to whom the effort of workingmen to obtain honorable conditions of livelihood is A CONSPIRACY; today this judge, to whom the starving of railway companies is a thing that STAGGERS THE IMAGINATION; today this judge, to whom starving men, women and children are matters of no consequence; today this judge stands as candidate for the Presidency. The man who built up the American Railway Union and led the Pullman strike is also a candidate for the Presidency. Mr. Taft did noble and popular service for the "starving" railway companies. Mr. Debs did noble and unpopular service for the starving railway employes Mr. Tait was applauded and promoted. Mr Debs' heart was broken when the strike was broken, and for years he visited desolate homes, befriended blacklisted workmen, and tried to hearten the thousands of crushed and defeated strikers.

Well, that's an old story. But in November next the measure of manhood possessed by every union man in this country will be
