secretary feels in collid account wonders. Every ward organization is demanding more meetings and, more speakers. As these amost be furnished the agitation is materially orippled. With a good force of agitators, not only could the city be developed into a bee hive of Socialist meetings; but the suburban organizing could be carried on with much more vim.

With the present force of organizers and speakers the following towns have been organized: Desplaines, Arlington Heights, Palestine, Hawthorne, Lamoni, Phoenix, Lansing, Berwyn and Cleero. All of these towns are demanding meetings. Every day there is a call from some one of them for more speakers and more meetings for the week. The secretary would gladly bill more speakers for each, for the calls show that at last a turning point in the politics of suburban towns has been reached, but he is powerless. The number of meetings held in the city almost censumes the present supply.

FOREST FIRES

Winnir & Man., Aug. 17.—A special from Cr. orook, B. C. says: "A Canadian Pacific fire ranger just in from Kimberiey says the fire is in a worse condition than ever if the wind changes. The Sullivan buildings are in danger and Kimberley by no means is out of it. Heavy clouds of smoke from that direction can be seen from Cranbrook." The ranger is trying to get fifty men to go out to fight the fire.

Contributions to the Fernie relief fund continue to rome in. The total to date, is 180,000. The Canadian Pacific rallway wired, $10,000 yesterday.

N. R. Nyman, 26 years old, 1468 Indiana avenue, was struck and probably fatally injured today by an automobile at Michigan and Rugh streets. Nyman dian Facilia fire ranger just in from Kimberley says the fire is in a worse condition than ever if the wind changes and Kimberley by no means is out of it. Heavy clouds of smoke from that the fire.

THAT WE ARE PRACTICAL

FOR THE WINTER?

Mobs and Mobs

It makes a very great difference in the treatment of a mob if it is composed of drunken criminals inspired by race hatred and lust for blood instead of honest trade unionists who are seeking for better conditions of living and work. When workingmen gather about the place where they have been producing profits, or upon the street where scabs are expected, the slightest excuse is seized to riddle

But when the creatures of the slums, with no individual griev ance, seek to murder men, women and children who are innocent of all criminal intent, then the troops will permit themselves to be driven away, and will practice a weakness which but increases the fury and bloodthirstiness of the mob.

There is not the slightest doubt but that had a body of union men ever committed one-tenth the crimes that have been committed by the negro hunting mob in Springfield during the last three days that the regular army with cavalry and artillery would have been on the spot and the paving stones would be dripping with the blood

In all the history of trade union conflicts in America there has never been anything to correspond to the acts of this Springfield mob. Never did a body of strikers set fire to the houses of employers, or seek to lynch every capitalist who showed his head.

The very suggestion of these things on the part of a Socialist or trade unionist speaker would lead to his instant imprisement and prosecution to the limit of the law.

Compare the treatment which has been visited upon the Springfield mob of murderers with that meted out to the unemployed paraders last winter. How many heads were broken by the Springfield police? How many prisoners are there in the jails?

The fact is that, deplore it as much as they may make pretense of doing, this race hatred, with its arson and lynchings, is one of the strongest bulwarks of the present social rulers. In every industrial fight the effort is made to set the negro against the white man. The scabs are recruited from the negro slums. Then, when the white striker, who really has a terrible personal grievance against the man who has taken his job, dares to make any protest the police and the militia are quick enough to protect the negro scab.

During the great stockyards strike of a few years ago every effort was made to provoke some attack by the white workers uponthe colored scabs, and there is not the slightest doubt that some of the negroes would have been attacked had it not been for the efforts of the Socialist speakers who addressed tens of thousands of strikers daily and pointed out the trap which was set for them. There is also no doubt that had such an attack been made the stockyards streets would have been swept with gatling guns at the behest of the beef

The negro has come to know t'ent the only time he is assured of the protection of all the powers of the state is when he is acting as a strikebreaker. At other times he is the legitimate prey of any mob of drunken ruffians that may choose to vent their lust for blood and

The object of this policy is not hard to see. It is to encourage race hatred until the black and the white worker can be pitted against one another whenever their antagonism will increase profits.

Breaking Up the Family

Cificials of charity organizations, societies, settlement workers and others who gather facts about the poor are reporting that the panic has caused thousands of men to desert their families. The deserters are being roundly berated for their "selfishness," "cowardice," "lack of love for their families," etc.

If just a few of these professionally "good" people were forced pretty frequently, to endure what these "wife deserters" suffer they might stell a dif-

The man who goes out day after day, from store to mill and factory, and suffers every form of abusive repulsion to his request for opportunity to use his strength and skill in the production of things for which his family is suffering, is not lacking in family instinct. He certainly makes a much better showing in that respect truly repented the offense, and said with the average Pittsburg millionaire than the average Pittsburg millionaire.

When he has repeated this weary discouraging journey day after day for months, when he has sat out the afternoons in the parks, be- pater familias detected a small Saphir cause he has nothing to take home but an empty stomach of which there are already too many there, when he reads the lies about prosperity in other cities that are published in the capitalist press, he omniscient person (who could inf naturally concludes that love for his family as well as the instinct one that the sky was not really blue and that the stars were no small balls that he break the home ties, no matter how dear, and start out on the search for a chance to live.

Then arises the smug, well-fed moralist to denounce the "wife deserter.

Inciting to Diolence

Once more the Federal officials will have an opportunity to decide whether there is anything that can be done against strikers that is illegal. When the Goldfield Gossip demanded the blood of the metal miners of the West its editor was left unpunished, its right to the mails was never questioned, and no one connected with it was branded as "undesirable" by the White House autocrat.

Now it is the coal miners who are battling against inhuman conditions, against dishonesty and trickery in the weighing of their product, against literally starvation wages, and the attempt at disruption of their only weapon-their union. It is the Birmingham. Ala., Free Lance which now takes up the work of the Goldfield Gossip and calts for the blood of those who dare to seek to make this a better place for human beings to live and work in.

This paper plays with devilish skill upon the murderous race hatred that is slumbering everywhere in the South, just ready to break into a hideous conflagration. The editor uses this race feeling to stir up the spirit of murder against the officials of the United Mine Workers and then calls for the killing of the miners.

This stuff has gone through the mails without a question, just as similar stuff went through at Goldfield. There has been no protest from the postoffice officials. They were all too busy persecuting the papers that are trying to stop the system that incites men to and race war, that drives men to suicide, women to the brothel and children out upon the streets to die.

The garden patch where the ever jolly Pat was busy with his spade, the distant crowing of the cock over the returned warmth of spring, the mysterious mudhole into which my rubbers had once disappeared, never to appear again, having no doubt been carried underground by those subterranear goblins of whom one reads as one laysprawling upon the rug in front of the grate fire on a winter's night; even the ffer of the kind-hearted cook to a disconsolate, small person 'to the syrup can and the heap of sweet smell-ing, newly baked bread, all these al-lured in vain.

Finally I sought comfort where all ise children age for it. wise children age for it. I asked my mether how she thought it would be well to cope with this emergency, and ane counseled a little pilgrinage to the effended earthly father, in order to make a confession of the fault.

SPECIAL LEGISLATION

He said again and again that Labor did not want special legislation, but content with laws that applied equally to all. Had the Democrats and Republicans agreed with him on that prope they would have AboLighted injunctions.

But the Democrats and the Republicans do not intend to give Labor rights

When workingmen commit crimes they are punished.

But that does not satisfy the Democrats and the Republicans. They want power of injunction so that they can make ANYTHING A WORKINGMAN DOES A CRIME and punish him at will. Our courts, as we know, often leave rich men go unpunished even unit a statutory crime, while poor men are given the full extent of the law. But that does not satisfy the Democrats and Republicans. They want the injunction also so that any judge can make A NEW LAW AT A MOMENT'S NOTICE and punish at will be who violates it.

Try for a moment to get some conception of the tyrannical power that lies the injunction. If the Republican or Democratic party PASSED, A LAW making free speech, peaceable assembly, striking, picketing, or any similar constitutional right illegal such a party would inevitably meet defeat at the polis However much they would like to pass such laws, THEY DARE NOT.

But with the injunction they are able at will to pass laws to meet just such SPECIFIC cases. In this way they get around the difficulty.

A judge enjoins you from doing what you have a perfect right to do. But if you exercise your right you do it at your peril. The question of your rights never enters into the matter, and you are condemned for CONTEMPT OF

In this way the Republicae and Democratic parties through THEIR judges make workingmen punishable not only when they commit crime, but even when THEY COMMIT NO CRIME

If there is an outery NEITHER PARTY IS TO BLAME, and only some miserable little judge, obeying orders from above, is condemned for such highhanded action. You can see, then, what a powerful weapon the injunction is. With such ower a judge can make or unmake laws. He can declare anything illegal which the employer desires to have illegal. He can override the constitution. and HIS WORD is of supreme power. Gompers seems to fear that to demand the abelition of the injunction is to demand SPECIAL legislation. That is a peculiar stand for a trade union leader to take.

EVERY INJUNCTION IS A PIECE OF SPECIAL LEGISLATION. It is so special and so undemocratic that no political party would dare become re-

Yet our wily politicians have pulled the wool over Mr. Gompers' eyes, and he leaves Denver grateful for a few words that promise nothing.

And Jump the fence and yell for anybody in order to get back at 'em.

Or to keep on saying we carried it when we didn't—

That is the question.

The delectable poetic outburst with which the Sharr-iner comes into being is authorized by the near-editor. He hereby approves both of the name and of the sentiments about that recount in New York. He does not particularly approve of cither personally, but what can a pror near-editor do?

The Sham-iner regrets to state that its first letter has come (carefully note that we say "come") from the west side, a territory bounded, as we suspect, by an archism, Socialism and several other isms on its insides, and by Charles S. Denecu on its outsides.

We say Charles S. Lencen on its outsides advisedly. C. S. D. does not seem to be loved over there, much to our regretfulness.

We should have loved to see C. S. B. libved more, but he seems to be loved less.

Here is the letter from the West Sider who cannot see the halo. Note that we have not spelled halo with a capital. There are some halos spelled that way.
