A Spectre is Haunting Europe"

IN 1848, Karl Marx and Frederick Engels wrote in the opening statement to the Communist Manifesto:

"A spectre is haunting Europe—the spectre of Com-munism. All the powers of Europe have entered into a holy alliance to exercise this spectre . . ."

TODAY, this spectre has grown into a reality of gigantic proportions—a living element that has forced the pow-ers of Europe—and America—"into a holy alliance" to keep the working class from assuming power.

THIS spectre of 1848—the great reality of today, ever growing larger and under whose guiding principles one sixth of the globe is already entering into a new stage of society—
