Forty Thousand PARTY LINES TO Garment Workers BE SMASHED BY on Strike in N. Y. FARMER GROUPS

NEW YORK CITY, July 1.—Forty thousand garment worker's pouring out of 1,600 New York shops at ten o'clock this morning in one of the greatest needle trade strikes in history, was the answer of these workers to the supposed "impartial" mediation board of Governor Smith that took two years to quibble over and finally deny the most vital demands raised by the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union in 1924.

The general strike call was authorized at Tuesday afternoon's huge mass meeting at Madison Square Garden, where twenty thousand union members packed the great auditorium and unanimously declared their readiness to fight on the picket polls, irrespective of party affiliation. line for the full demands of the union.

After reports on the negotiations were given by the I. L. G. W. officials and pledges of support from other needle trade unions and from the trade union movement generally by their representatives, the following resolu-

75 FUR WORKERS JOIN UNION AS STRIKE BEGINS

40-Hr. Week Big Issue; Bosses Negotiate

800 members of the Furriers' Union struck this morning at ten o'clock for the 40-hour week, full recognition of the union and other standard provisions of the national agreement

75 non-union workers have already registered to join the union since the strike was called.

The union states that only 29 shops have refused to negotiate and that a number of the manufacturers are ready to sign up for the 40-hour week for a portion of the year.

600 Furriers Attend Meeting. The union, however, is standing firm

for its original demand. Nearly 600 furriers attended the meeting held previous to calling the strike and enthusiastically endorsed the proposals and plan of campaign proposed by the executive committee.

The struck shops are being picketed Furriers reported vesterday afternoon that 12 shops had already signed up on the union terms. There are about sixty union shops that responded to the strike call.

LIBERAL GOVERNMENT IN CANADA FALLS ON RUM SMUGGLING ISSUE

A cabinet crisis in Canada has caused the collapse of the liberal government under MacKenzie King, above, who resigned and was succeeded by Arthur Mieghan, below, leader of the conservatives. For the first time in Canadian history the king's representative was assailed by a premier when King criticized Lord Byngg for refusing to dissolve parliament at the former's request. When King resigned he said that if the advice of a prime minister is not to be accepted by the governor-general to dissolve parliament, then Canada has descended in its status from a self-governing dominion to a crown colony.

LABOR PARTY FIGHT STIRS

Wheatley Hits Out at the Dawes Plan

(Special to The Daily Worker) LONDON, June 30. (Delayed)-The solemn hall where centuries of time have hallowed the British parliament rang to the epithets of "Coward" and "Liar" in turbulent scenes unprecedented in England's history when the Baldwin government advanced and financially passed the longer workday mining bill thru its second reading.

The riot started when Colonel Lane Fox, secretary of the mines department, speaking for the government said that the miners who thought of the welfare of their wives and children would not object to working longer hours. This brought a storm of aborite denunciation about his head. Regular Shindig.

"The dirty coward," shouted Mr. of these 632 were sentenced to Westwood, "he says that my father does not want to defend my mother! He is a coward! He is a dastardly coward!" Mr. Kirkwood vociferously seconded the idea and added some amendments of his own.

When they finally finished telling part of what they thought of the colonel, this gentleman said that if he had said anything offensive, he would withdraw it. John Wheatley, leading labor party member voiced the significant features of the attempt, international in extent, to lengthen the hours of labor, pointing out that the Dawes plan started the world wide attack on living standards of the working class. He said: Dawes Plan Started.

"Germany naving tost the war, we decided that the losers must pay, and to compell Germany to pay, the German miners have to work longer hours," he said. "You cannot have the victor and vanquished on the same economic footing so the direct result of the present bill must be to extend the hours of labor in Ger-

"If the Germans adopt the ninehour day the coal miners of this country will experience difficulty in competing with the German mine owners and will again say that the miners of this country must face the economic facts of the situation.

"With the German working nine hours they will say that the mines of this country must work nine hours. We are drifting toward a state of society in which no people will have an interest in preserving the social order." A new uproar began when Bridgean, first lord of the admiralty, tried to act as spokesman for the government, "Baldwin, Baldwin," the labor-Dist. Council Seeks Gar- ites began to sing out at the top of their voices and continued in spite of the assurance of the chair that Bridgeman was "a responsible member of the cabinet."

That the new administration is going to keep a keen eye on the Chicago district was intimated by President Wharton when he stated that opposition would be met by a divorce from the payroll of such elements. Chicago was an Anderson stronghold in the last election and is generally known as anti-administration territory.

Charles Frye, business agent of Local 126, outside machinists, identified himself with the administration by announcing to the assembled members, in reference to the array of international officers on the platform, "This is my gang. They were with me and not with you in the last election."

No direct reference to the Watson-Parker bill or the B. and O. plan was made by any of the speakers altho President Wharton stated that "the union would co-operate with employers that were ready to go along with it." 400 members of the union were at

Offer Strikebreakers $50 Four Year Convention Proposal Defeated

The convention of the Railway Department was addressed by Donald Richberg, attorney for the railroad unions at the session Tuesday. Mr. Richbkerg spoke on the wonders of the conductor call the station that the so-called Watson-Parker Law they knew they were being brought which he claimed was a revision of the Hovard Barkley Bill and said was almost midnight. No sooner had that under this law self government would be established in the railroad they were snatched into taxicabs and industry (whatever that means).

For "Public Interest,"

This law, according to Richberg, forces both employes and employers to realize their duty to the 'Public' on the question of mediation boards. Mr. Richberg claimed that it not exercise any power until the carriers and the men could not come to an agreement and that arbitration would only be resorted to when they could not

He also made the statement that if committee appointed by the Presient of "Our country" can not make fair decision he could not see who could. He claimed further that courts would not be resorted to under the act but contradicted himself by the statement "that this law is based upon contract and courts are very effective in enforcement of contracts."

The overwhelming majority of the convention supported this progressive proposal.

Proposal for Proportional Representa tion Defeated. A proposal to change the present laws to give the various affiliated unions representation according to numerical strength was brought into the convention in the form of a minor ity report and supported by the Executive Council of the machinists, but was defeated after long debate and strenuous effort on the part of the officials of the small unions.

Law Committee Proposal Adopted. Wednesday session and today's session witnessed a spirited debate on the members of the crew of the Norge, in question of proposals to give more power to the international officers for the case. He began his testimony short time ago, arrived in the Twin and the contradictory proposal to let the delegates from the system federations vote on ave and nay vote, but not on roll call. An amendment was offered by Delegate Wright of the blacksmiths to have respective dele gates determine the vote at the con vention and another amendment that all questions decided upon by the de partment convention shall be the law providing it does not interfere with the constitutions of the various affiliated International unions. Both the amendments were lost and finally the recommendations of the law committee was adopted.

Yesterdays session was addressed by John Fitzpatrick, president Chicago Federation of Labor, and Ed Nockels, secretary, who extended invitations to visit the radio station established by the Federation.

Fess Bill Revealed How Coolidge "Farm Relief" Was Attack on Farmers Fess Amendment Is

By J. LOUIS ENGDAHL.

THE present session of congress is dying and on the issue of farm relief alone the Coolidge administration ought to die along with it. There ought to be joint obsequies. Defeated by a vote of 26 to 54 on its own pet Fess bill, for aiding the bankers, food speculators and other profiteers, the Coolidge administration ought to resign and get out, thru ordering new elections immediately. But the particular form of Wall Street tyranny that exists at Washington permits of no such response to the wrath of the masses. Coolidge will hang on, even by the skin of his teeth, for two years more, while some of the dollar senators will stick to their seats for even four years.

If the workers and farmers of the corn and wheat belt in the north, and the cotton belt of the south mean business, however, they can take a wallop at Coolidgeism in the November congressional elections. This cannot be done, however, by losing themselves in the old parties. They can do it with the club of independent political action.

This is being written as the workers and farmers in North Dakota are going to the polls casting their ballots in a state-wide primary in which the farmer-labor party has a ticket in the field. There is no contest among the farmer-labor candidates. They will be nominated. The fight comes in November against the republican party.

North Dakota is a republican state. Labor has tried to function within the republican party, entering its primaries and seeking to elect "good men" to office under this Wall Street standard. The nonpartisan league was organized for this purpose. After many bitter experiences, the result of this hopeless 'experiment" is announced in the declaration for the farmer-labor candidates in the following words:

"No headway in their fight against the capitalists who exploit them is possible by working thru this party (the republican party)."

The above is good advice for every other state, whether it is dominated at the present time by republican or democratic politics. The non-partisan league made a little organizational headway in Minnesota, but the farmer-labor movement in that state outstripped it by far, with the result that Minnesota labor now has the leading, and practically the only state mass movement for independent political action in the nation. Minnesota labor refused to waste time with the nonpartisan league "experiment." It drove directly toward action independent of the two old parties. Followers of the league "idea" of working within the old parties now constitute the reactionary right wing of the farmer-labor movement, where they have not actually returned to capitalist politics.

The Fess bill for "farm relief" sponsored by the Coolidge administration exposes the real character of the republican party's alleged legislation on behalf of the farmers. It is in reality merely legislation in support of the profit-taking interests that fatten off the farmers. It is impossible for the Coolidge administration even to think in terms of aid to the actual dirt farmer. The Coolidge-Hoover-Jardine-Mellon sponsored "Fess bill" merely proposed loaning $100,000,000 to so-called farmers' co-operative marketing associations. It is the Coolidge gang in Washington that would have dictated how that $100,000,000 was to have been spent and it would have gone into their own pockets. Even the conservative farm spokesman, William Settle, president of the Indiana Farm Bureau Federation, was forced to declare that the brain behind the Fess bill was the same scheming brain that foisted the Armous-Rosenbaum sponsored Grain Marketing company on the farmers, attempting to unload on them a number of worthless grain elevators. Sec'y. of Commerce Hoover and Sec'y. of Agriculture Jardine joined with the Armour Co. and Manny Rosenbaum in this holdup of the farmers, putting forward the Grain Marketing company as a prospectively farmer-owned agency for the marketing of grain products. The deal was so rotten that even the state of Illinois stopped the sale of stock as a swindling proposition. Other states had to follow suit. The scheme blew up and now this same gang of burglars is trying to unload on the government. They were abetted in this nefarious scheme by the Coolidge-Hoover-Mellon-Jardine regime in Washington, but the deal was too raw even for the senate, and the thieves were temporarily foiled in their venture. Under the Fess bill the Grain Marketing company could have annexed $26,000,000 and gotten a new start to profiteer off the farm-

This is just one isolated example of how the republican party "helps" the farmers by robbing them blind. Yet LaFollette, Jr., and Blaine in Wisconsin; Brookhart, in Iowa; Frazier and Nye, in North Dakota; Norbeck, in South Dakota; and Norris, in Nebraska, all remain within this republican party of the landlords, the food gamblers, the bankers and the great industrialists. That is treason. And the treason is just as great for Wheeler to remain within the democratic party.

Let the workers and farmers be loyal to themselves by increasing heir struggle to "Build the Labor Party!" by calling on all who toil to, "Leave the capitalist parties!"

Seeks to Put Over Anti-Union Judges

Edward E. Gore, of the Chicago Crime Commission, of which union smashing State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe is a principal member, is now in the midst of a controversy with a number of court judges. In a public statement Gore declared that many of the judges now sitting on the bench were unfit for their office.

Judge William N. Gemmill, immediately sent out an interview declaring that Gore should not make blanket charges but that should tell who the unfit judges were. Gore countered with a slanderous attack on Gemmill.

PLOT AGAINST CO-OPS SEEN BY

Coolidge Ruse

By LAURENCE TODD.

Federated Press. WASHINGTON, July 1.-(FP)-Charging that the Fess substitute for the McNary-Haugen farm relief bill was designed to utterly destroy the farmers' co-operative marketing associations, democratic and republican senators alike riddled that measure in debate. Thereby they defied Prestdent Coolidge, who had issued a formal statement endorsing Fess' cheme.

While these opponents knew that Coolidge's public endorsement was given before Fess offered the most lestructive clause in his measure, they assumed that the Ohio standpatter did not act in any instance without orders from the White House. The whipping administered to Fess was given in the belief that Coolidge TAMEN BURNE vould wince.

Robinson of Arkansas, democratic loor leader, analyzed the so-called amortization plan which Fess added o his $100,000,000 federal loan fund measure. He showed that it directed that when a farm co-operative marketing association got a loan from this fund, to handle a crop, the association should lay an amortization tax on its members, covering a term of 33 years, for repayment of the loan. The effect would be to have the association spend or lose the money borrowed, whereupon its individual members would begin to drop out and no new ones would come in, since they would be bound for 33 years to pay back the lost loan. This, said Robinson, would be the most effective way that could be devised to destroy the co-operative marketing movement among American farmers.

For Armour Co. Then a clause authorizing the use of loans for acquiring marketing facilities was shown up. Caraway and Hiram Johnson described this as being a scheme to use government money to pay the Armour Grain Co. and other corporations some $26,000,-000 for obsolete or useless storage warehouses worth about $3,000,000. He was referring to the properties that the Grain Corporation, headed by Gray Silver of the American Farm Bureau Federation, tried to induce the farmers to purchase last year.

RAILWAY BARONS PLAN GIGANTIC CONSOLIDATIONS

To Submit Plans to Commerce Committee

WASHINGTON, July 1.- The big railroad executives apparently convinced that the interstate commerce commission has abandoned hope of consolidating the railroads into 19 major groups, as outlined in the transportation act of 1920, are now centering their plans on merging various lines to meet their own individual requirements.

The fact that the commission has virtually scrapped its tentative consolidation plan was emphasized today after L. F. Loree, president of the Delaware & Hudson, had spent a commerce commission and several members of the senate and house.

Loree's Merger. Loree's mission was to explain his project of merging the Kansas City Southern, of which he is chairman of the board, with the St. Louis Southwestern and the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railroads. The Loree application is expected to be filed with the commission some time this week.

Van Sweringen Merger. On its heels will come the renewed Van Sweringen application to merge the Chesapeake & Ohio, Hocking Valley, Pere Marquette, Erie and Nickel Plate, followed by the plan of the Rock Island system to absorb the St. Louis-San Francisco lines.

It is possible that the commission will have these three gigantic railroad mergers under consideration at the

40,000 Cloakmakers Strike

Forty thousand cloakmakers, members of the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union, have struck in New York. The had asked Berger to demand a federal beginning of the strike was spectacular as are all needle trades investigation of the disaster. strike actions-20,000 garment workers packing Madison Square Garden to endorse unanimously the resolution calling them out.

As in the Furriers' strike, the 40-hour week is an outstanding Garnett, secretary of the investigating issue and the cloakmakers also are demanding a 36-week yearly committee minimum of employment.

Limitation of contracting, the development of which threatens to become a menace much the same as the old sweat-shop system, is another demand of the union.

The union demands further the right to examine the books of employers to determine the extent to which these and other provisions of the proposed agreement are being lived up to.

These demands alone indicate that the International Ladies' Garment Workers, at least in New York where the joint board is in the hands of the left wing, are trying to secure a large measure of industrial control. Their method of securing it is the only one by which this can be accomplished—exerting the maximum pressure upon the bosses.

This strike is therefore of more importance than such strikes usually are because it comes at a time when the heads of many large unions are following the will of the wisp of B. and O. plans, will help in some other way, if pos-Watson-Parker bills, mediation and arbitration-co-operation with employers in many forms and under many guises, telling the union membership that this is the road to industrial control, but-

Always with the boss as a partner.

The New York Garment Workers reject such schemes and in so doing they show that as a union they have developed to a point far in advance of the A. F. of L. unions in other trades.

Not only because we want the garment workers to get their demands and defeat the bosses, the police and the agents of the bosses within the ranks of workers, but because such a militant struggle when crowned with victory cannot help but be a powerful factor in arousing the workers in other industries, do we want to see the 40,000 cloakmakers, backed by the rest of the needle trades unions. win this strike.

Police Torture

American workers read with horror of the tortures inflicted upon Polish, Lithuanian, Bulgarian, Roumanian, Finnish and Italian workers charged with and imprisoned for carrying on a revolutionary struggle against their capitalist governments.

But in the United States one needs only to be a strike picket or just a striker to be tortured by the police.

It is only necessary to be arrested and the police and special deputy sheriffs are very accommodating in this respect.

Word comes from Passaic, for instance, that a picket captain has been arrested for the tenth time and horribly beaten after his arrest. He was charged with disorderly conduct and released on bail, but only after he had been pounded into unconsciousness with a rubber hose by two police thugs.

The weakness of the labor movement nationally alone makes it possible for the police to satisfy their sadistic instincts and please the bosses by beating up workers.

Part of its weakness comes from the fact that labor officialdom is tied up thru the democrat and republican parties with the political machines to which the police belong.

Once labor charts its own course on the political field and announces its determination to hold responsible and punish the per- tioning of shop nuclei and in parti- he had heard Papcun's speech, althou petrators of these outrages, there will be a sudden decrease in the cular factory papers will be taken up he admitted that he was standing out-

But one of the preliminary necessities for this is the organization of the unorganized.

Much is being done in this direction in Passaic, but a national drive with the full force of the labor movement behind it alone can prevent such outrages as the one mentioned—in itself only an incident in a deliberate campaign of brutality against the Passaic strikers characteristic of all American industrial struggles.

The most dangerous tendency for the labor movement would be to accept official violence as something which cannot be stamped out. War against it should be a major part of all struggles of the

Penna. Cossacks Testify Against Union Miner

UNIONTOWN, Pa., July 1.—The ury that is to try George Papcun under the criminal syndicalist law of Pennsylvania was completed this morning and the state began to present its case against the young union mine worker, the offense being based on his attempt to organize coal miners into the United Mine Workers of America.

Of the eight veniremen examined. the defense challenged two and the state three, the three finally selected being Mary Ralston, a housewife; L. V. Lepty, ticket agent of the Baltiditions that led up to the death of the more and Ohio railway; and E. E. Williams, a farmer.

Union Breaking Police on Stand. District Attorney Brown opened the case by reading the indictment. The Address Grand Rapids first three witnesses for the state "July 4th" Meeting were all state troopers—the notorious coal and iron police. These were subjected to telling cross-examination by the defense and their conflicting testimony shown up.

> The testimony by the prosecution was directed to showing that Papcun was active in the Republic miners' strike, trying to organize them into the U. M. W. of A., urging the miners to strike and fight for higher wages third witness was State Trooper William J. White, who arrested Papcun on January 24. White created a sensation when he began to give testimony from previously prepared notes. Defense counsel objected but was overruled by the judge.

Testimony Needs Corrections. The first witness was State Police Onko, who had to be recalled to the witness stand several times to make 'corrections," after conferences with Assistant Prosecutor Newell.

Under cross-examination White was place of the Chicago Shop compelled to admit that the major side the hall and the windows and doors were closed.

> White caused general laughter when he stated that Papcun had said: "We will send a delegation to Russia to organize the workers there" and that-'We will have to bust this imperialized capital and bust it right."

Various copies of labor papers, including The DAILY WORKER were introduced by the state.

It is expected that Bust Legger, who was exposed as a spy on the strike committee,, will testify for the prose-

SECRET MEET OF SENATORS O. K.'S

Anti-Labor Men Given Committee Approval

WASHINGTON, July 1. --(FP)-All five of President Coolidge's selections to the railroad mediation board which is soon to begin consideration of the wage increase demanded by the train service brotherhoods were favorably reported by the senate committee on interstate commerce, after a meeting June 28. This meeting was held behind closed doors.

In the room were Chairman Jim Watson and Senators Cummins, Sack ett, Pittman, Bruce, Fernald, Pine and Couzens. Sen. Howell arrived after confirmation had been voted, and did not know of it when the meeting broke up. Senators Wheeler and Dill were at the capitol but did not come to the meeting

Without A Fight.

Thus the four anti-labor men chosen by the White House to deal with a naonwide wage movement have been ecommended to the senate for its formal ratification, without a fight. Development of serious opposition in the senate itself is deemed unlikely.

Samuel Winslow of Massachusetts former chairman of the house committee on interstate and foreign commerce, will be chairman of the board, with a five-year term. Former Gov. Morrow of Kentucky, member of the old railroad labor board, gets a fouryear term. Carl Williams of Oklahoma, editor of a farm paper, gets three years; G. Wallace Hanger of the Disrict of Columbia, member of the railroad labor board, gets two years, and Hyvel Davies, former president of the Kentucky Coal Operators' Association, gets one year.

In the same senate committee action was taken on the shipstead resolution calling for investigation of the strike of locomotive engineers and firemen on the Western Maryland road. This is the coal road whose dominant stockholder is John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and whose engine crews struck when the company tried to force them to sign "yellow dog" contracts last October. Hearings were had on the resolution a month ago, at which mayors, preachers and other prominent citizens of towns along the line demanded federal intervention against the company.

Officials Still Have Hopes.

The senate committee recommended that the mediation board take up this matter at an early date. Because of the committee's action on the West ern Maryland case, opposition to confirming the members of the board is still further diminished.

Many of the rail labor officials beieve that the senate committee has indicated to the new board the policy it will be expected to pursue-one of vetoing the refusal of certain rail executives to discuss grievances with their organized employes.

In this way the ment by the "official and bona fide labor movement" as their "bill of health" and recommendation, which means on the surface that Tammany Hall is the party of the workers.

Democrats-Not the Party of the Workers.

This is selling out to capitalism with a vengeance! Tammany Hall which is synonymous with the lowest and crookedest in politics, a party of graft and corruption, is not and never can be, the party of the work ing class. As a part of the democratic party it is allied with the southern democrats, most of whom do not even today recognize that amendment to the constitution which gave the Negro the right to vote as anything more than "a scrap of paper." to use the phrase that made the former kaiser of Germany famous. The democratic party is an open enemy of the work rs who can never expect anything but betrayal from it. Under its regime 700 furriers were arrested for picket ing in the recent strike and Tammany judges issued the infamous Interna tional Tailoring Co. injunction.

But what do we find? The John Sullivans, James P. Goughlins, the Abraham Lefkowitzes and the rest of the tribe, go the entire length of servile and menial servitude to the Tam many Hall machine, congratulating Gov. Smith and Mayor Walker or practically every important speech and action that they take irrespective of the fact that almost all of the election promises to labor of these gentle- FURNISHED ROOM, for one or two men are nothing but election "promses" to be forgotten the day after

Need for a Labor Party.

This kind of action on the part of the New York City trades unions must be stopped. The rank and file should demand the cessation of support of Tammany Hall and expecting favors and privileges for a few labor council leaders from the political party that is supported by the bosses of these same workers. These bosses are the ones who furnish the money to carry on the political campaign of Tammany Hall and as such demand and obtain its support for any antiworking class legislation and activity that they deem necessary.

A labor party based upon the trade unions which will include all working class political parties and organizations who can agree on a common platform is the remedy for the situation sketched above.

Let all workers raise this issue at their union meetings: No support of Tammany Hall, and the formation of a labor party in New York!

PHILADELPHIA POCKETBOOK WORKERS STRIKE

Demand Recognition of Union

By a Worker Correspondent. PHILADELPHIA, July 1. - The Pocket-book Workers' Union of Philadelphia is conducting an intense organization drive in an attempt to unionize the leather goods workers.

The leather goods workers here most of whom are young workers, are forced to work 48 to 49 hours a week at miserable pay. The average wage of the operator is from $9 to $12 a week. A cutter receives from $15 to $25 a week and a framer from $15 to

In its drive to organize the industry the union has called a number of meetings of various shops. Among these shops was Sugber and Co., 1307 Market street.

Workers Walk Out.

At a meeting of the workers of this shop one of the men expressed himself in favor of forming a union. The next day he was fired. The men then went on strike demanding his reinstatement. The girls also held a meeting. Four of them were fired for favoring a union. The girls walked out on strike. There are 75 workers employed in the shop. 56 of these workers are striking. Nineteen or twenty are still in the shop scabbing. An effort is being made by the strikers and union to pull out the remaining work-

Recognition of Union.

The workers that have walked out are determined to carry on their fight against the bosses and have presented the following demands.

- 1. Recognition of the union. 2. 100% union shop.

ATTACK ON ALL BRITISH UNIONS BEGINS WITH FIGHT ON MINERS: ALL LABOR RALLIES TO SUPPORT

By LELAND OLS, Federated Press.

The aim of the British government and the mine owners is to break up the Miners' Federation as the first blow to smash trade unionism. That according to Lansbury's Labor Weekly, is the only explanation of prime minister Baldwin's speech proposing to suspend for 5 years the legal guarantee of the short workday in the mines. In this speech Baldwin admitted to have the freedom of speech which that the suggestion came from the coal owners.

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE.

WHAT MAS GONE BEFORE.

J. Arnold Ross, oil operator, formerly Jim Ross, teamster, drives with his thirteen-year-old son, Bunny, to Beach City to sign a lease for a new oil field. Meeting his "Lease Hound," Ben Skutt, in a hotel he goes to meet a group of small property owners whose land he wants for drilling. But other oil concerns have been intriguing and the meeting breaks up in a row. Bunny meet Paul Watkins, son of a Holy Roller, who has run away from home. They become friends but Paul leaves for other parts before their acquaintance is very old. Dad begins to drill in Prospect Hill near Beach City. He needs the roads fixed and smooths the palm of a city official. In short order his first well, "Ross-Bankeide No. 1," is begun. Dad spends busy days in his little office and Bunny is always with him—learning about oil. Bertie, Bunny's sister, comes home from finishing school on a vacation. She is very snobbish. Her Aunt Emma has been trying to make a lady of her. Bunny tells Bertie about Paul. Bertie doesn't like Bunny to know such "Horrid Fellows." They meet Mrs. Groarty, Paul's aunt, whose land has been taken over much to her sorrow by questionable oil promoters.

Scattered here and there over the hill were derricks and drilling crews were racing to be the first to tap the precious treasure. By day you saw white puffs from the steam-engines, and by night you saw lights gleaming on the derricks, and day and night you heard the sound of heavy machinery turning, turning-'ump-um-ump-um-ump-um-ump-um." The newspapers reported the results, and a hundred thousand speculators and would-be speculators read the reports, and got into their cars and rode out to the field where the syndicates had their tents, or thronged the board-rooms in town, where prices were chalked up on blackboards, and "units" were sold to people who would not know an oil-derrick from a "chute the chutes."

Who do you think stood first in the newspaper reports? You would need to make but one guess-Ross-Bankside No. 1. Dad was right there, day and night, encouraging them, scolding them if need be-and so Dad had not had a single accident, he had not lost a day or night. The well was down to thirty-two hundred feet, and in the first stratum of oil-sand.

They were using an eight-inch bit, and for some time they had been taking a core. Dad was strenuous about core-drilling: he insisted that you must know every inch of the hole, and he would tell stories of men who had drilled through paying oil-sands and never knew it. So the drill brought up a cylinder of rock, exactly like the core you would take out of an apple; and Bunny learned to tell shale from sandstone, and conglomerate from either. He learned to measure the tilt of the strata, and what that told the geologist about the shape of things down below, and the probable direction of the anticline. When there were traces of oil, there had to be chemical analyses, and he learned to interpret these reports. Every oil-pool in the world was different each one a riddle, with colossal prizes for the men who could Dad guessed that he was right over the pool, and so he had ordered his "tankage." There was going to be a rush for this, as for everything else, and Dad had the cash—and still more important, the reputation for having the cash. He would get his 'tankage" onto the lease, and if he were disappointed in his hopes for oil—well, somebody else would get it, and they would be glad to take the "tankage" off his hands. So there came a stream of heavy trucks, and stacked up on the field were flat sheets of steel, and curved sheets, all fitting exactly.

You may be sure the buyers of "units" did not fail to make note of that! They were hanging round the derrick day and night, trying to pick up hints; they followed the men to their homes, and tried to bribe them, or to get into conversation with their wives. As for Bunny, he was about the most popular boy in Beach City: it was wonderful how many kind gentlemen, and even kind ladies there were, anxious to buy him ice-cream, or to feed him out of boxes of candy! Dad forbade him to say a word to strangers, or to have anything to do with them; and presently Dad banned discussions at the family table—because Aunt Emma as chattering in the ladies their husbands, besides gambling "on their own!"

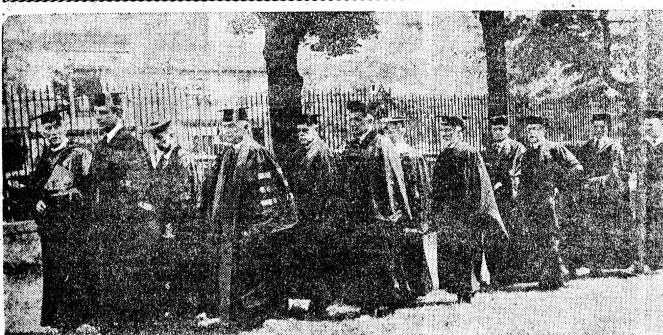

The core showed more signs, and Dad gave orders to build the foundations of the tanks; then he ordered the tanks put up, and the clatter of riveting machines was heard, and magically there rose three ten thousands barrel tanks, newly painted with flaming red lead. And then-hush!-they were in the real oilsands; Dad set a crew of Mexicans to digging him a trench for a pipe line; and the lease-hounds and the dealers in units discovered that, and the town went wild. In the middle of the night Dad was routed out of bed, and he called Bunny, and they jumped into their old clothes and went racing out to the well, and there were the first signs of the pressure, the mud was beginning to jump and bubble in the hole! The drilling had stopped, and the men were hastily screwing on the big "casing-head" that Dad had provided. He wasn't satisfied even with that—he set them to fastening heavy lugs to the head, and he hustled up a couple of cement men and built great blocks of cement over the lugs, to hold her down in spite of any pressure. There wasn't going to be a blow-out on Ross-Bankside No. 1, you bet; whatever oil came through that hole was going into the tanks, and from there to Dad's bank account!

It was time for the "cementing-off," to make the well waterproof, and protect the precious oil-sands. Down there under the ground was a pool of oil, caught under a layer of impermeable rock, exactly like an inverted wash-bashin. The oil was full of gas, which made the pressure. Now you had drilled a hole through the wash-basin, and the oil and gas would come to you -but only on condition that you did not let any surface water down to kill the pressure. All the way down you had been tapping underground streams and pools of water; and now you had to set a big block of cement at the bottom of the hole, solid and tight. filling every crevice, both inside and outside your casing. Having got this tight, you would drill a hole through it, and on down into the oil sands, thus making a channel through which the oil could flow up, and no water could leak down. This was the critical part of your operation, and while it was going on the whole crew was keyed up, and the owner and his son, needless

First you put down your casing, known as the "water-string." If you were a careful man, like Dad, you ran this "string" all the way up to your derrick-floor. Next you began pumping down clean water; for many hours you pumped, until you had washed the dirt and oil out of the hole; and then you were ready for the cement-men. They came with a truck, a complete outfit on wheels, ready to travel to any well. Another truck brought the sacks of cement, a couple of hundred of them; the job called for pure cement, no sand. They got everything ready before they started, and then they worked like so many fiends-for this whole job had to be put through in less than an hour, before the cement began to set.

Russian unions amount to more than $1,839,000, according to home secretary Joynson-Hicks June 17. This huge sum is the voluntary contribution of Russian workers. The attack Buffalo.
