Bureaucrats Allied With Bosses Conspire To Break Militant Trade Union Movement

Dring Light DECEMBER MUST BE THE BANNER MONTH TO KEEP THE DAILY WORKER

We have raised $22,819.03 to December 1st. This is an achievement of which we can be proud. We have established a record of which the labor movement can show few examples. But we must not crow until we are out of the woods. We must finish the job we have begun so well. Buffalo and Detroit have already finished their quotas. They are now determined to double this figure. The entire country must follow the lead of Buffalo and Detroit. Just a little more effort. Just a little more persistence. Just a little more of the go-getter spirit of Buffalo and Detroit and we will pass the $50,000 mark by a big margin. Let us put our shoulders to the wheel for the big December Drive, to Keep The DAILY WORKER as the fighting organ of the workers.

Maintain the Unions as Fighting Organizations of the Workers

Statement of Central Committee of the Workers (Communist) Party

THE reactionary bureaucrats who are the official leaders of the organized labor movement, in alliance with the employers and the capitalist government have launched a new attack upon the trade unions, which has as its purpose the destruction of the unions as militant fighting organizations of the workers.

SIGMAN, LEWIS, McMAHON AND WOLL PLAN NEW ATTACK.

The plans for this attack upon the trade unions as fighting organizations of the workers were made at a conference held recently in New York City at which were present, Matthew Woll, Vice-President of the American Federation of Labor; John L. Lewis, President of the United Mine Workers of America; Morris Sigman, president of the International Ladies' Garment Work-ers' Union, and Thomas McMahon, President of the United Textile Workers' Union.

According to a reliable report in the hands of the Central Committee of the Workers (Communist) Party this conference agreed upon the following points:

1.—BETRAYAL OF THE PASSAIC WORKERS.

That the heroic Passaic strikers who have maintained a solid front for over ten months must not be permitted to win their strike against the mill owners, because such a victory would greatly increase the prestige in the labor movement of the left wing and Communists, and inspire the workers in other industries to carry on a militant campaign for organization and fighting trade unionism in order to secure a higher standard of life.

2.—STEAL THE ELECTION IN THE MINERS' UNION.

It was admitted in this conference that the Save the Miners' Union movement supporting the candidacy of John Brophy, Stevenson and Brennan for the offices of president, vice-president and secretary treasurer of the United Mine Workers' Union, would elect these progressive leaders, but that they must not be permitted to take over the offices and leadership of the union. The Lewis administration will steal the election.

3.—BETRAY THE STRIKING GARMENT WORKERS.

A plan was outlined for an attack against the left wing which is leading the strike of the New York garment workers against the jobbers in an effort to drive these leaders of the workers' fight out of the general strike committee and make a settlement with the jobbers and contractors against the interest of the workers.

The first step in carrying out this agreement has already been taken thru a mass meeting held at Cooper Union on Thursday night, at which the right wing in the International Ladies' Garment Workers mobilized their forces against the General Strike Committee. This meeting demanded that Sigman take over the leadership of the strike and the resignations of the left wing leader in the General Strike Committee,

Coincident with this mobilization of the right wingers the jobbers and contractors, against whom the garment workers are continuing their strike, issued a demand that they be granted the right of reorganization of their shops with the right of discharging workers and that there must be no limiting of the number of contractors. The jobbers threatened a lockout of the 20,000 garment workers they employ on Monday, if the union does not settle on these terms.. Sigman and the right wing are willing to settle the strike on these terms.

The methods which the right wing proposes to use in destroying the fighting trade union movement in New York is further indicated in the mobilization of the gangsters of New York thru a meeting held at Beethoven Hall on Wednesday night, at which a campaign of fascist terrorism against the left wing leaders was mapped out.

BUREAUCRATS ALLIED WITH EMPLOY-ERS AND GOVERNMENT.

The program adopted by this conference of trade union bureaucrats has as its purpose to destroy the movement for fighting trade unionism in those industries in which this movement has manifested itself.

The purpose of the alliance of trade union bureaucrats, capitalist employers and the government is to rob the workers of the right to strike and to compel them to accept arbitration agreements which place them at the mercy of the capitalists and their allies in the trade union movement.

This movement had already gained great headway in the passage of the Watson-Parker bill directed against the railroad workers, which the government proposes to extend to the miners. The official bureaucratic leaders of the trade unions are supporting the B. and O. plan, Lewis forced an agreement upon the anthracite miners which compelled him to submit their demands to arbitration in the future and Sigman stood for accepance of the Governor's Commission's report on the garment industry. The whole development of the policy of the official leaders of the trade unions is toward stripping the workers of the right to strike, thus sacrificing the workers' strongest weapon against the capitalists.

This movement is given a new impetus by the proposals to betray the garment workers and textile strikers and head off the movement for a fighting policy in the United Mine Workers, at a time when the capitalists are boasting of their enormous profits and great prosperity. Its purpose is to stifle the growing movement of the workers demanding higher wages, better working conditions and shorter hours, to secure for themselves some benefits from the greatly increased amount of wealth they produce thru their labor.

The alliance of these forces of reaction is directed particularly against the left wing movement which thru militant fights in the interest of the workers won the forty-hour week for the Furriers, achieved gains for the garment workers in the same direction, and which has fought the hard battle to rescue the Passaic workers from unbearable conditions and is heading the fight in the miners' union for a leadership which will defend the interest of the workers in the wage negotiations which take place at the beginning of the year.

The capitalists are determined to destroy this movement, which is endangering their right to unlimited exploitation of the American workers because it is inspiring other groups of workers to similar fights in their interests. In this effort the capitalist employers have the support of the trade union bureaucrats, as well as the government. The

Secret Meeting is Held in New York By Black Reaction

An audacious conspiracy has been perpetrated in New York City to break the strike of the cloakmakers and the strike of the textile workers of Passaic, New Jersey.

Never in the whole history of the American labor movement has such a treacherous and dastardly move been taken against thousands of militant and courageous workers who for many long months have been fighting most bitterly to maintain their organization and improve conditions.

The chief figures in this conspiracy are men who are prominent officials in the American Federation of Labor, men who are expected to be devoted and loyal to the interests of the workers.

Information has reached this office that a secret meeting was held in New York City in which the cloakmakers' strike, the Passaic textile strike and the progressive campaign in the miners' union was considered. This conspiracy gathering was attended by Morris Sigman, president of the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union, by John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, by Thomas McMahon, president of the United Textile Workers of America and by Matthew Woll, WIDOW OF vice-president of the American Federation of Labor and president of the Photo Engravers Union.

At this meeting it was decided that every measure should be taken to smash the cloakmakers' strike and that under no circumstances must the that under no circumstances must the Passaic textile workers be permitted to win their strike. This outrageous step, this union-smashing tactics, was advocated by all present as a necessary step to defeat the militant leadership that is leading these two great and historic labor struggles. John L. Lewis insisted that the fight must be made with all the power at their comprogressives in the unions.

John L. Lewis informed those preswould sweep the progressives into power in the elections that will soon

Send Money, Presents to Class-War Victims

By JAMES P. CANNON. Secretary of International Labor Defense.

The appeal by International Labor Defense for a Christmas Fund calls sharply to mind the workers who are still imprisoned in the penitentiaries of capitalism in the United States. It is a reminder of the duty which we have to fulfill towards these men who have sacrificed their liberty for the movement of the working class.

Have First Claim. The class-war prisoners ought to have first claim on the militant workers. They are the outposts of the labor movement and they have been seized by the capitalist enemy in the front line of the struggle and at the most dangerous points. The blows that have, fallen upon them have found them firm. The Christmas Fund of the I. L. D. which will enable us to send little gifts and comforts to the men in prison and their dependents on the outside, and to provide legal defense for those who are menaced with prison, is intended to strengthen this firmness and courage. It is meant to keep the hearts of the class war prisoners high in the realization of the movement on the outside which grows more determined to work for their liberty.

World Wide Custom.

It is a world wide custom of revolutionaries and the advanced working class movement to send money and other gifts to the imprisoned fighters in the Christmas season. It is one of especially applicable, for the stringent those who have to do without them. Not Charity.

HANKOW, Dec. 3 .-- Foochow has fallen to the Cantonese. The occupation of the city was facilitated by the further desertion of many troops from Marshal Sun Chuan Fang. The fall of Foochow marks the virtual possession of Fukien province and makes the way open for the capture of Cheking province. Foochow is the key to the railroad running from the coast to Nanchang and will make the march on Shanghai easier for the Cantonese.

A huge labor parade was held at Changsha as a preliminary to the declaration of a strike in the foreign communities there. The strike in Hankow continues and will become general on Dec. 5. Pickets have been posted around a large British cigarette factory, which is entirely closed

Five American and six foreign warships are in Hankow. All the foreign concessions are being guarded by bluecoats and volunteers. There is no evidence to indicate that foreigners in Hankow run any danger of molestation unless they themselves provoke trouble. The policy of the labor unions is to conduct an effective strike and to avoid clashes.

In Shanghai the population is showing considerable elation over the victories of the Cantonese and are prepared to welcome the sputhern troops and a manufacturer. North Dakota Labor Is Not Interested in Mere Fight for Political Job

By J. LOUIS ENGDAHL.

 $M_{
m and\ not\ struggles\ on\ principle}^{
m ANEUVERS\ for\ getting\ the\ jobs}$ divide the "old guard" and the socalled LaFollette wing of the republican party in congress. This is again revealed in the reported teapot tempest raging between President Coolidge on the one hand, and the two senators from North Dakota. Lynn Frazier and Gerald P. Nye, on the other, which threatens to scuttle republican power in the senate. There are a host of issues on which the North Dakota senators could thunder against the "old guard," especially that of farm relief. But instead the battle rages over the appointment by "Silent Cal" of his loyal henchman, Colonel C. F. Mudgett as United States Marshal for North Dakota. It becomes a question of who is to get the "pie" in the appointments.

The appointment of Mudgett is merely another indication of the sleepless determination of the "old guard" not only to maintain but to strengthen its "machine in this as well as in other states of the restless wheat and corn belts. Coolidge is reported to have made the appointment at the suggestion of L. B. Hanna, "old guard" campaign manager in 1924, the guardian of the republican reaction's power in the state. This is the Hanna who sought to keep Nye out of the senate this year, with the good wishes of the White House. He failed in the primaries and Nye had a walkaway in the November poll. But the voters, who put Frazier and Nye into the senate and are keeping them there for the time being, are anxiously trying to find out where the difference is between the 'old guard" and its Frazier-Nye offshoot. They will want to know, what difference does it make whether they suffer under the Coolidge-Mudgett-Hanna machine, or under the Nye-Frazier regime that has lost all its old flavor of protest.

United States marshals, who are the federal policemen, like the postmasters, especially in the large cities, are very important cogs in the capitalist political organizations. They have no important functions to perform, all actual work being assigned to assistants, enabling the appointees to give all their time to building and mending the fences of the bosses that they serve.

The strenuous efforts being made by the Coolidge administration to grab off the appointments in North Dakota, indicate that the Wall Street gang, speaking thru the bankers, landlords and grain gamblers of the northwest, is eternally active in building up its strength. That it has ambitions to bring the erstwhile non-partisan leaguers within the fold is shown by the fact that no opposition was offered last month to the re-election of Governor Sorlie and Senator Nye. The bankers, the merchants and the outside business interests could have opposed the Sorlie-Frazier-Nye combination at the polls in two ways: (1) by getting up an independent republican candidate, or (2) by supporting the democrat as the Coolidge-Butler crowd did successfully in Iowa, ousting Brookhart, altho later turning the tables and helping to elect him this year.

But the infamous instrument of the North Dakota exploiters, the socalled "IVA"-the notorious Independent Voters Association-did none of these things. It remained absolutely quiescent, permitting the Sorlie-Nye ticket to sweep all of its strongholds, especially Fargo, Bismarck and Grand Forks, always anti-league centers. This was certainly not a tribute to the non-partisan league as a political power independent of the republican party and fighting in the interests of the masses of workers and farmers. Rather was it a confession that the "leaders" of what still poses as the non-partisan league are satisfactory to the predatory interests that fight the workers. Sorlie and Nye were thus, to a great extent, the actual candidates of the "IVA." In fact. William Lemke, the farmer-labor candidate for governor, actually charged during the campaign that Sorlie was the candidate of the bankers.

Under these circumstances the plundered masses in North Dakota cannot be expected to get very excited about the sham battle between Frazier and Nye on one side and Coolidge on the other over the appointment of a United States marshal. If Frazier's man crowds out Coolidge's appointee at the pie counter, as he may be permitted to do in order to assure the votes of Frazier and Nye for the "old guard" in the senate, those who constitute the "IVA" may still rest easy since nothing will be radically changed in the state.

This does not mean that the Coolidge-Butler outfit will always be satisfied with Frazier, Nye and Sorlie. No doubt, just as soon as they have served their usefulness to great capital in betraying the interests of the workers and farmers, they will be dropped in the political gutter.

This does not mean that Coolidgeism will become triumphant in North Dakota. On the contrary, it means that the class lines will become clearer than ever, the preliminary condition to the building of the Farmer-Labor Party as the independent political power of the workers and farmers. This party is already in existence, in organized form, in North Dakota. It did not show great strength in the November elections. This is easily understood. The workers and farmers had been led to expect much from the non-partisan leaguers, and the disillusionment has not yet set in. But Sorlie and Nye have now made peace, aside from minor and unimportant skirmishes, with the business interests and are now very far removed from the workers and farmers in the state. North Dakota labor will learn its lesson and press forward to real and lasting victories. Western Ave., near Division St.

BRATIANU GANG HOLDS DESTINY OF ROUMANIANS

Queen and Carol Rumors Only Wild Guesses

(Special to The Daily Worker)

BUCHAREST, Dec. 3.-With the European and American press agitating itself about a possible palace revolution led by the ex-Crown Prince Carol, the establishment of a regency with Queen Marie at its head and many other guesses about Roumania's lynastic future in the event of King Ferdinand's death, the following facts are enlightening:

King Ferdinand's illness is of a nature that may carry him off at any noment and he is an old man. But for the time being he is well enough to go about his routine state duties and is expected to meet Queen Marie at the station when she arrives from Paris. But the rumors about possible uprisings over the question of Ferdiand's successor are considerably lampened when it is known that the eal rulers of Roumania are not the oyal household.

The most powerful individual in the country is Jan Bratianu, former remier and son of Roumania's "Garipaldi." He and two of his brothers are wealthy capitalists and fiannciers who may be said to have Roumania's rich mineral and oil resources in their pockets.

The present government of Averesco exists by grace of the Bratianu brothers. It is recalled that prior to the last election. Averescu's party controlled only several seats in partliament. During the last election, as if by magic, his party became the majority. The magic consisted in the ability the oligarchy to control the polls. Soldiers were freely used at the ballot boxes, as in all Roumanian elections. and Averescu's majority was secured in advance.

There are various reasons for verescu coming to power. The chief eason was that Bratianu's own interest required a change of government. But the accession of General Averescu to the premiership did not lessen the enormous power of Jan Bratianu who, it is openly declared by the opposition parties has more real power in Roumania than Mussolini has in Italy.

Bratianu is definitely set against Carol's return. This means that Carol will not return to Roumania despite the "informal" conversation Marie is reported to have had with her son in Paris where she stopped to do her Christmas shopping on the way home.

That, in brief, is the political situation in Roumania. The capitalist and financial oligarchy of "Greater Roumania" under the leadership of Jan Bratianu and his powerful brothers, is the dominating force in the country and, incidentally, the power responsible for conditions that the Roumanian censorship does not permit to be talked about in news going out of Roumania and only in a muffled tone within the country.

Lay Offs in Detroit Is Given as Reason

(Special to The Daily Worker) WASHINGTON, Dec. 3. -(FP)-Due to the slump in employment in the automobile plants in Detroit, the trade union organizing campaign there has been postponed until January, according to Vice-Pres. P. J. Conlon of the Intl. Association of Machinists. The organizing force has been laid off for five weeks.

That the reduction of force in the factories is only temporary and largely seasonal is Conlon's belief, based on reports from the field. Production of new models for the spring trade is counted upon to restore a high rate of activity, which will provide more favorable conditions for union agitation. Conlon is convinced that many railroad companies are about to establish lines of motor trucks for local freight traffic, and that these trucks will be a big item of production in many plants in 1927.

To the extent that railroad companies establish freight truck service the trade union campaign in garages will be assisted, officials of the shop crafts say. The more trucks are run into one garage for maintenance, the simpler will be the problem of union-

THE FIGHT OF ALEX HOWAT AND THE MINERS OF DISTRICT No. 14; A CHAPTER IN LABOR HISTORY

ARTICLE III

By WILLIAM F. DUNNE

Coal operators toed the line when Howat was president of District 14. There is no dissent from this—even from the operators—and when Howat recently became eligible to run for district office again something like a panic seized the bosses.

I was talking to a group of miners about the situation in District 14 I was talking to a group of miners about the situation in District 14 where, since the absence of Howat from office, the membership has dropped from 10,000 to less than 7,000 and where the coal operators now do as they please regardless of the contract provisions.

An Italian coal digger, who understood but little English, listened for some time and then made his contribution:

Stepping up to me and tapping on my chest with a stubby, cracked and very hard finger he said: "Howat gooda man for da miner."

This terse sentence expresses the general opinion of Howat among all of the Lewis machine. In securing nominations for district president, resulting as before stated in his getting endorsement from 90 per cent of the membership, Howat never visited a single local except the one to which he belongs, while the machine carried on a continuous campaign.

"Company Always Wrong." Another Italian miner (there are many Italians in District 14) told me of a typical instance:

In a certain mine where he was by systematic short weighing of their then demanded payment. The pit boss agreed to pay for the day the discovery was made, but refused to reimburse the miners for previous thefts.

My informant said:

"I pulled the bell and engineer stopped hoisting. We stopped the work and sent for superintendent. The super came and said 'pay for one day,' I said we'll send for Howat. The super said 'Goddamit, I pay you for Los Angeles Radical He thinks company always wrong." In 1919.

In 1919 District 14 was on strike with the rest of the union. One mine

The officials of the union were ar rested, tried and convicted. Then a whole series of protest strikes broke out and 62 other officials and members were arrested and indicted.

Huge Meetings at Jail.

Enormous meetings were organized front of the jail by the miners and short coal. I know what Howat do. at first Howat was allowed to speak But sentiment for his release was

(Special to The Daily Worker) WASHINGTON, Dec. 3. - Demoratic leaders in both houses assemb ed here for the opening of congress are trying to find some way of jug gling farm relief legislation in order to save the farm problem as a political football for the 1928 presidential campaign.

That George F. Harding will be given the certificate of election as county treasurer over Martin J. O'Brien was indicated by the Cook county election commission. A Message from Maine

The following letter has come to our desk from a Swedish lumberman of Clark Island, Maine, the northeastern end of the United States:

To The Daily Worker, 1113 W. Washington Blvd., Chicago, Ill.

Dear Fellow Workers: Komrades:

I have resived your letter of Nov. 15, and I see that The DAILY WORKER is wery hard up, I have many paper, Swedis Kommunist paper Solidarity and other paper, but I gone to halp so long I cane. I feel bade when I know some of my Freand have to strave, so I gone to halp little. I cane not wrait English very good, so you have to exkause me.

Yours for Fredom for all Workers, CLAUS THORWALDSON.

It is interesting to note from this letter, which is a sample of many others we are receiving, what a close bond The DAILY WORKER has already established with the foreign-born in the three short years of its existence. Instinctively these workers realize the necessity of an English Communist paper as well. It is evident that some of the foreign workers are developing a deep and wholesome resentment against the inhuman exploitation practiced by their one hundred per cent American employers and that this resentment is finding an outlet in their support of the only English newspaper which is fighting for them-The DAILY WORKER.

The approaching session of congress will be marked by a strenuous effort to secure the passage of legislation against the foreign-born. Powerful interests are at work to put this legislation thru. To combat this legislation, the foreign language press is important but not sufficient. It is necessary to have an organ, printed in the official language of the country, to call the attention of the English speaking workers to the menace involved to the working class in general by the proposed legislation. Politically the English-speaking workers are the most powerful section of the working population. It is to these workers that the call of the foreign-born must be directed, in the strongest possible terms. This responsibility The DAILY WORKER has shouldered and will carry out to its fullest capacity.

BERT MILLER.

Disabled Veterans Say War Is All That Sherman Reported It

CINCINNATI, Dec. 3. - Soldiers who were disabled while doing their bit for God, Woodrow and country are still fighting. Thru their organization, the Disabled American Veterans, they are fighting the veterans' bureau of the government almost constantly for better hospital care. Their publi cation, Disabled American Veterans Weekly, published in this city, proclaims that they have now "started a movement in several directions" t improve conditions.

One of these directions seem to be via the alimentary canal. They have secured a ruling from the bureau that each officer of the day, on his tour of inspection of the hospitals, shall eat each meal of the day with the patients in their mess hall. This system, the veterans hope, will "bring to Wash ington more reliable and specific reports than have filtered thru up to this time. Which suggests that the hash which is now fed to the disabled soldiers ill. who fought for Woodrow, God and country marks a difference from the days when conscripts who had volunteered en masse, as Woodrow politely explained it, were on their departure for French bombarded with hon-bons and Camels.

Two Mexican News Stories

On Thursday, December 3, the Associated Press sent out a Washington dispatch stating that the Mexican government had paigns into organizational strength. agreed to a policy of non-intenference with the oil land concessions | The organized strength of the party, to foreign capitalists made previous to the enactment of the consti-las represented by its membership, has not kept pace with its influence

This statement, if true, meant that the Mexican government had surrendered to the American state department and had agreed to the circulation of the party press in all its demands.

The statement was credited to the Mexican embassy by the the party. The combined circulation

On Friday, December 4, the Associated Press sent out the following dispatch under a Mexican City dateline:

The foreign office asserts that it has no knowledge regarding a statement issued at the Mexican embassy in Washington yesterday concerning the new Mexican oil lease. It was stated that the Mexican government's policy regarding oil has not been changed, that it remained exactly as defined by the old law and the regulation thereof, which in any case must be harmonized with other Mexican laws.

We can quickly reject the theory that the Mexican embassy in Washington defined the policy of its government without consulting | More thousands of workers are reachits foreign office and the immediate denial of the story by the Mexican foreign office shows that no such change in policy as the statement implied had been made.

From what source did the story come and for what purpose was it distributed thru the biggest press agency in the world?

We can conclude only that the Associated Press was tricked badly, in which case its reliability on other important international questions is open to question, or that knowing the story to be a fake, The party activities today in the it sent it out anyway.

The purpose of such fabrications is clear.

The Mexican population, with the exception of the catholic hierarchy, foreign capitalists, the big landlords, and the subsidized agents of these three reactionary groups, is a unit against Ameri- new tasks to reach even a larger can imperialism.

A story in which the Calles government is pictured as capitulating to Wall Street would tend to discredit it among large masses of the population. There is, of course, the possibility that the Calles government contemplated some sort of a compromise on the question of oil and mineral concessions, but the complete surrender indicated in the Associated Press statement would destroy its base of popular support.

The incident should serve as a warning to American workers and others who sympathize with the struggle of Mexico for an independent existence, to take with several grains of salt the Mexican news sent out by the capitalist press services during this period when the American government is bringing the maximum diplomatic pressure on Mexico in order to maintain in that country a system of American capitalist ownership of the natural resources and rigid time definite instructions were re- defeated—we had the will to win and oppression of the Mexican working class.

THE DAILY WORKER How to Strengthen the Party

The fact that the influence of the party has been extended during the past year was strongly emphasized in the discussions and by the resolution of the Central Committee. The party s breaking its isolation and has established contact with greater masses of workers who are entering into common struggles with it.

The party has not, however, thus far been able to crystallize the influence it won as a result of its camamong the workers.

This fact is strikingly illustrated in comparison with the membership of of all party papers is over 200,000. There are that many readers of the daily weekly and monthly papers and magazines issued by the party. There may be some duplication in this figure because some of the party members and sympathizers with our movement read both the English and foreign language papers of the party, but not a great deal. Yet there are today only 10,000 members organized in the party.

The party influence extends beyond the circle of readers of its press. ed by the mass meetings held under the party auspices and thru the various struggles in the workers interest which the party initiates and carries

Here is a broad field in which to work to strengthen the party organizationally and thus create a stronger instrument for revolutionary work many fields in which it is working has reached the limit of the present organized strength of the party. The party organization must be broadened in order to enable it to undertake number of workers.

If the whole membership of our party were to throw itself into the work of winning new members, with the same enthusiasm and energetic work which has been developed in some of the party campaigns, we could quickly double the membership of the reorganized party.

With double the membership the party could go forward to greater influence and in mobilizing the work ing masses for struggle.

The same attitude which is mani fested in regard to the recruiting of new members showed itself in the reorganization of the party. Many members who were in the party before the reorganization were lost to the party because of the mechanical attitude manifested toward these members in the reorganization.

In place of considering each work er who had advanced far enough to become a member of the party as precious material for the building of a powerful Communist Party, which must be kept by the party at all cost, thousands of members were lightly dropped from the membership rolls because they did not immediately take the necessary steps to affiliate with the shop and street nuclei. In many instances even the lists containing the names of these members have not been kept.

Christmas had come, and the quail were calling from the hills at Paradise. There were not so many on the tract, but there was plenty of adjacent land over which an oil prince and his royal sire were welcome to shoot. And once you were out of sight of the derricks, and out of smell of the refinery, it was the same beautiful country, with the same clear sky and golden sunsets, and you could get the poisons of bootleg liquor out of your blood and the embarrassing memories out of your soul. Tramping these rocky hills, drawing this magical air into your lungs, it was impossible to think that men would not some day learn to be happy!

This visit corresponded with a great historic event, which put Paradise upon the map of California. Eli Watkins, prophet of the Lord. had completed the payments for the land upon which his tabernacle in Angel City was to stand, and he celebrated this event by coming back to the scenes of his boyhood, the little frame temple where the Third Revelation had been handed down to mankind, and there holding a novel and interesting performance of his own invention, known as a "Bible Marathon." You see, Eli had read in the papers about Marathon races, and tho he didn't know what the word meant, it was romanticsounding, and he had a fondness for strange words. So the disciples of the First Apostilic Church of Paradise announced that a "Bible Marathon" consisted in reading the Lord's Holy Word straight thru without a single pause; they would be told off in relays, and day and night there would be a little group in the church, and one voice after another would take up the sacred task, regardless of oil wells "on the pump" just outside the door.

This was Big Magic. Not only did it thrill the believers, and bring swarms of people to town, but it caught the fancy of the newspapers, and they rushed reporters to write up the event. Many new miracles were wrought, and many crutches hung up; and in the midst of the excitement the Lord vouchsafed a fresh sign of His mercy-Eli, preaching to the throngs outside, announced in the Lord's name that if the reading were completed, Divine Omnipotence would cause the rest of the money to be offered, and the Angel City tabernacle would be erected within a year. After that, of course, nothing could stop the "Marathon," and the epoch-making feat was accomplished in the time of four days, five hours, seventeen minutes, and forty-two and three-quarter seconds-glory hallelujah, praise the Lord!

Bunny saw the shouting thousands with their heads bared, their faces uplifted and a searchlight playing upon them; for Eli had money now, and used it for spectacular effects. His "silver band" was mounted upon a platform with electric lights shining upon the instruments; and the prophet would exhort, and then wave his hand, and the musicians would blare forth an old gospel tune, and the crowd would burst into a mighty chorus, and sway and stamp, their souls transported to glory, the tears running down their cheeks. There were many wives of ofl workers among the audience, and these would plead and pray, and persuade their husbands to attend. There is not much for a man to do out in a lonely place like Paradise; a third-rate movie was the only form of amusement-and here were the bright lights and the silver trumnets and the heavenly raptures. all free-and with a glambler's chance
