Sinister Tone of Capitalist Press Shows Need of Labor Aid for Mexico, Nicaragua

There is a sinister tone in the American capitalist press when it speaks of Mexico these days. Especially is it sinister for labor. The same tone can be noted in the news and editorials deal-

Off the coasts of both countries there are huge American war fleets. The general tenor of the press is the same as when America was intervening and favoring armed intervention by other powers in Russia. The burden of the tales dealing with Mexico and China is of disorder-uprisings and atrocities, a menace to foreign lives and property, and an obvious attempt to create the impression that civilization is in danger.

Such stories, generally the product of the crudest faking, invariably precede and follow organized attempts at conquest of weaker nations rich in raw materials and having a population which can be enslaved by the foreign investors and their governments.

The Chicago Tribune, one of the most vicious propagandist agencies against Mexico, heads its two column tale of uprisings and civil war in Mexico, in its issue for Jan. 14, with the following: "Catholics Rise in 10 States to Oust Calles".--"Mexican Youth Rallies Army; Gets Cash in U. Capistran Garza is named as the leader of the American financed reactionary movement. His program, as given in The Tribune, entitles him to the support of Wall Street and its state and war department. There is little doubt that he is getting this support. His program could not be improved upon for Wall Street purposes if written in the offices of the house of Morgan. Dispatches state:

Senator Johnson, one of the men responsible for Tom Mooney's imprisonment, thundered against the government policy in Nicaragua, but now declares that American interests must be protected and since "we" are inrolved in a mess an American senator must be an American first. That was Johnson's stock-in-trade when seeking popular favor by attacking the league of nations.

Make the Lenin Memorial Meetings Demonstrations Against Imperialism!

Statement of the Central Committee of the Workers (Communist) Party of America

THE mass meetings which have been arranged by our party to honor the memory of the great leader of the proletarian revolution, Lenin, will be held this year at a moment when the American capitalists and their government at Washington are giving the workers and farmers a concrete example of the dangers of new wars with all their consequent sacrifice and suffering for the workers, which are the logical developments of this epoch of capitalist imperialism.

The invasion of Nicaragua, the threats against Mexico, the mobilization of naval forces in Chinese waters all show clearly that the government of the United States is the tool of the financial oligarchy which rules the country from Wall Street, and which carries on its imperialist exploitation in all parts of the world.

It was one of the great services of Lenin to the proletarian revolutionary movement that he pointed out to the workers that the development of capitalism leads inevitably to the sacrifice of the lives of the workers and farmers in the shambles of imperialist wars, into which they are sent to fight for the super-profits which the capitalists win thru imperialist exploitation.

It was also one of Lenin's great contributions to the principles which must guide the workers and farmers in their struggle to free themselves from the oppression and exploitation of the capitalists, that the peoples of countries exploited by the imperialist capitalist countries are the natural allies of the workers and farmers in their fight against capitalist imperialism at home.

There is no better way of honoring the memory of Lenin on the third anniversary of his death, than thru the application of the principles of Leninism in the crisis which American imperialism has created thru its imperialist adventures in relation to Nicaragua, Mexico and China.

The Lenin Memorial meetings must be made great mass demonstrations against American imperialism.

JOHN L'LEWS BACKS MELLON GANG'S CHOICE

Supports Cyrus Woods

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14. - (FP) Confirmation of Cyrus Woods of Penn sylvania, millionaire paymaster of the millions spent by the Mellon machine in the Pepper senatorial primary last spring, to be a member of the interstate commerce commission, is backed by John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America.

This disclosure was made before the senate, committee on interstate commerce, Jan. 11., when Sen. Dan Steck, democrat, and Senator-elect Brookhart, progressive republican, of Jowa, faced each other on the issue of Stock's charge that Brookhart was a "paid lobbyist" for Woods' confirmation. Steck had not made the direct charge; he made public a statement that it was "rumored that" Brookhart was so engaged. For a senator-elect to take money for any such action would subject him to expulsion, and Steck was summoned to make good his attack. He withdrew it, after some evasive answers to questions.

Lewis Supported.

Then a press dispatch and two telegrams from lowa were read, showing that John L. Lewis of the U. M. W. of A, had urged lows labor men and their friends to endorse Woods. J. C. Lawis: president of the State Federation of Labor and a close friend of Brookhart, had taken action accordingly. He asserted that this was done without consulting Brookhart. The latter told the committee he had not endorsed Woods and had not been paid to work for any action of any kind in Washington.

Sen. Goff of West Virginia declared that "Some of the most prominent coal operators of my state, in whose interest and behalf I have taken the stand I have in this matter, asked me to trace the source of these telegrams" which the lowa labor leader sent in support of Woods.

Lewis Backs Mellon.

John L. Lewis action is explained by the fact that Woods is a Mellon . lighting the freight rate advantages, given thus far to the West Virginia, Kentucky and Virginia coal fields, which happen to be non-union. Coal from western Pennsylvania is mined, to a large extent, under union conditions. Lewis seeks to maintain the jobs of union , coal diggers in Pennsylvania by helping Mellon to reduce the freight rate handicap of Pennsylvania as against West Vir-

Sen. Wheeler of Montana, pro-labor democrat, is fighting Woods because he represents the Mellon crowd's attempt to increase the value of their operties-coal and railroad-thr manipulation of the freight rates on the interstate commerce commission.

Lenin Points Out Basic Meaning of Imperialism, Exploitation, War and Relations to Workers

The following extracts culled from the works of Lenin illuminate with the clarity that Lenin alone commands the basic questions of the meaning of imperialism, the relation of imperialism to colonial exploitation and oppression, to war, and to the working class and its movement. American workers faced with the task of fighting American imperialism, the most powerful in the world, should ponder well what Lenin says and should pass from these questions to a further study of Lenin's teachings-the only reliable guide for the workers struggling to overcome imperialism and capitalism.

What Is Imperialism?

Imperialism is monopolist capitalism.

Imperialism is the rule of finance capital, the rule of the financial Imperialism is a special stage in the development of capitalism. It has three peculiarities: Imperialism is (1) monopolist capitalism, (2) parasitic or stagnatic capitalism, and (3) dying capitalism.

Imperialism is capitalism in the phase of its development in which the domination of monopolies and finance capital has established itself; in which the export of capital has acquired very great importance; in which the division of the world among the great international truets has begun; in which the partition of all the territories of the earth amongst the great capitalist powers has been completed.

Imperialism and Colonial Exploitation.

What do we have? A few of the richest and most privileged nations living like parasites off the rest of humanity, living like lords thru the exploitation of the Negro, the Hindu, etc., and holding these masses in subjection thru modern militarism.

The interests of finance capital (thru the export of capital) press on to the conquest of colonies, to the driving away of competitors, to strengthening of the necessary "connections," etc.

Spheres of investment for capital interest finance capital. Sources of raw material interest finance capital. But finance capital is also interested in new possible sources of raw material.

A handful of rich countries have developed colonial exploitation to gigantic dimensions. They receive millions and billions of super-profits, oppress millions and hundreds of millions of people in the colonial and "backward" countries, and struggle among themselves for a division and re-division of the rich spoils.

Imperialism demands the continual division and re-division of the "backward" countries among the big imperialist, powers.

Imperialism and War.

War is no accident. It is no result of "sin" as the preachers and the liberals make out. It is an unavoidable stage in the development of capitalist militarism.

The development of capitalism, when it reaches the stage of imperialism, gives rise to imperialist wars.

War is no more than the continuation of the regular policy of imperialism thru special means.

Under imperialism there is no way of finally settling controversies over markets, investments, etc., except war.

Imperialism and the Working Class.

imperialism has a tendency to create privileged sections among the workers and to detach them from the main proletarian masses.

The bourgeoisle of a capitalist power is able to win economically the upper sections of "its" working class thru scattering among them a few millions of the billions of super-profits it gets out of its imperialist

The receipt of high monopoly profits by the capitalists (thru industry at home, thru exploitation of colonies, etc.) gives them the economic possibility of corrupting certain individual sections of the working class and especially its "leaders" and attracting them on the side of the eapitalists and against the rest of the workers.

But for the masses of the workers-something else. The trusts, the financial oligarchy, the increase of prices, the intensification of exploitation, etc .- all of which makes possible the corruption of the upper layers of the workers-this means the ever greater oppression, torture, and the misery of the masses of the proletariat and the semi-proletariat.

U. S. Airmen Bring the Threat of the Dollar to Latin American People

By J. LOUIS ENGDAHL.

THE news dispatches from San Salvador, Republic of Salvador. tate that the so-called United States "good-will" Pan-American lyers this morning (Jan. 13) hopped off for Amapala, Honduras, on he next leg of their 20,000-mile flight.

They come just 16 years after the armed forces of the United States government (in 1911), with the plunder of Santo Domingo as a precedent, first hoisted the stars and stripes of Wall Street over this Central American republic "on behalf of a banking syndicate headed by J. P. Morgan & Co."

The quotation is from "Dollar Diplomacy" by Scott Nearing, while additional information on this subject can be secured by scanning Stuart, "Latin-America and the U. S.," p. 278 and U. S. "Foreign Relations," 1911, p. 573 ff.

The "good will" mask worn by the American flyers hides the grinning skull of death to such libertles as still remain to the peoples of Latin-America.

Senator Borah, in his speech to the United States senate on Thursday, telling of American efforts to saddle the people of Nicaragua with a loan stated:

"The American minister (this was in 1909) represented that the loan negotiations were in danger because the people opposed the plan. THE MINISTER ASKED FOR A WARSHIP,"

Right now, when discontent rages thru Latin-America, as a result of the vicious aggressions against Nicaragua and Mexico, the United States sends a fleet of airplanes thru Mexico, Central and South America, not as a message of good will, but as a threat of the power of the Washington government that rules at the will of Wall Street.

Senator Borah states further, in regard to the pillaging of Nicaragua against the will of her people, that: We made the loan treaty, and we made the canal treaty WITH OUR-SELVES. We encamped upon the White House grounds of Nicaragua for 13 years. We will camp there for a hundred years unless we go back and secure the judgment of the Nicaraguan people.

"After the canal treaty was ratified, Costa Rica and Honduras, claiming that the treaty was in violation of a treaty which they had with Nicaragua, took the matter before the Central American court. The Central American court had heen set up under the auspices of this government. AND THAT COURT. 4 TO 1. DECIDED AGAINST THE VALIDITY OF THE TREATY. WE (THE UNITED STATES) IGNORED THE DECI-SION." . . .

It is to be hoped that there is some spirit in Honduras today courageous enough to flaunt in the faces of Wall Street's airmen the fraudulent "good will offering they claim to bring, and to tell them to go back to their masters in Washington and ask about the treaty that was torn to shreds like a "scrap of paper" and the court decision that was kicked out the window because it did not satisfy the desires and ambitions of American imperialism. Honduras lies next to Nicaragua on the north. Amapala is on its western coast, looking out on the Pacific Ocean.

It was at the time of the invasion of Honduras by the Morgan banking syndicate that Secretary of State Knox, the Kellogg of that day, who had developed "dollar diplomacy" in China and Latin-America, summed up the assistance given by the Washington government to American investors as follows:

"During the course of a year it is many times necessary for the U.S. to send forces to the ports of some of the Central American republics in order to afford protection to foreign life and property. This is done at an enormous expense, an informal estimate from some of the naval officers showing that the annual cost to this government amounts to over $1,000,000."

But that cost is not borne by the international bankers, not at all, It is shouldered by American producers, the workers and farmers, who who must pay the bills incurred by the "big navy," the "big army" and now the "big air fleet."

The cost is also borne by the peoples of Honduras, in common with all other subjects within the borders of the Morgan empire.

In 1920 the American investment in Honduras was estimated by ingalls in his "Wealth and Income" p 56, at $18,000,000. This was a gain of $8,000,000 since 1916, fruitful war years in the fruit business. The major investments are the United Fruit Co. and the New York and Honduras Rosario Mining Co. The arrival of the American airships this week might be made the occasion of the celebration of a total investment of at least $40,000,000 at the present time, since the plantations and equipment alone of the United Fruit Co., in 1923, were valued at $24,232,275.

Business developed under the guns of American warships has been good in Honduras. That of the United Fruit Co., according to its own annual report, has grown as 1900. ..... $ 45,628 1916..... 7,614,535 1919.... , 9.983,288 1920.. 13,118,067 1921... 16,323,299 1922 19,077,752 1923.. 24,232,275

There is something for Morea airmen, with the dollar sign emblazoned on the wings of their machines, to use in taunting the perples of Honduras. In 1910 the sweated toil of Honduras was compelled to bleed for only 45,000 American dollars invested in their midst. Now they must bend under the task of producing profits on upwards of 25,000,000 dollars invested. When they complain the answer is-MORE WARSHIPS! MORE MARINES!

That is the way of imperialism that rouses all peoples against it and thus achieves its own doom.

The American airmen, encircling South America, are not heralds of good will. Instead, to all oppressed peoples south of the Rio Grande, they bring the threat of the growing imperialist danger against which all should unite and struggle.

happens to all they produce over and above their meager wages can find out by examining the information as to the financial history of the Fort company as brought out in this trial. In the same "magic decade"-1903-1913-the Ford company paid out

$23,000,000 in dividends and amassed $22,000,000 in property. Onward from 1913 the company "earned" 136 per cent on every dollar invested. The case of Mrs. Hauss, the sister of Senator Couzens, illustrates very well how big fortunes are built up thru hard work aand saving. In 1903 Mrs. Hauss lent $100 to her brother to invest in Ford's. In the ten years that followed Mrs. Hauss received $47.000 in dividends, rather below the average. When the Ford Motor company was recapitalized in 1915 she received $50,000 in stock. She saw her $50,000 stock grow to $260,000 four years later and in the meantime her dividends reached $460,000. Thus the $100 "grew" to nearly a million. "Irregular" Valuations.

All this information, which should provoke some that in the Ford workers and in all other workers, was brot to light in a general statement on the history of the Ford concern read today by Joseph E. Davies, senior counsel for the stockholders. It appears that round about 1919 Henry Ford decided to get rid of the minority stockholders who held about 41 per cent of the stock outstanding because they disagreed with his policy as to the disposition of the earnings of the company. Ford's threat to start a new company lead to negotiations for the sale of the minority stock. The minority stockholders expressed themselves willing to sell out if they were definitely assured of their income tax liability. In order to obtain this valution, A. G. Gregg, the general counsel of the treasury department says. Henry Ford made a special trip to Washington and saw Commissioner Roper who fixed the valuation at $9,400 a share by negotiations which Mr. Gregg asserts were "irregular." The treasury department subsequent-"discovered" the incorrectness and the irregularity of Commissioner Roper's valuation and is now claiming $31,000,000 more in addition to the $20,000,000 already paid by the minority stockholders on the basis of the Roper valuation. . Political Implications. Gossip as to the political implicaions of the trial is floating around in Detroit and Washington, Much of it has to do with a "memorandum" sent by an undisclosed outside party to the internal revenue bureau in 1922 relating to the sale of the Ford stock in 1919. It suggested the line of action the treasury department has taken. This "memorandum" dates back to the Ford-Newberry contest for the senaorship of Michigan in 1922. It was luring this struggle or immediately after that the mysterious memorandum appeared in the treasury department. The question now arises, as Senator Couzens asked on the floor of the senate some time ago why this memorandum was held up between 1922 and 1925 when the treasury department suddenly discovered the old "irregularity."

This trial has many lessons for the watchful worker who can dig out its economic and political implications.

Back Concessions

(Special to The Dally Worker) SHANGHAI, Jan. 14.-Great Britain is massing an imposing naval force in Chinese waters and it is felt here that London has decided to resort to force that were taken over by the nationalists following the shooting of Chinese by British troops. Charge d'affairs O'Malley, of the British legation, is now in Hankow conferring with Eugene Chen, Kuomintang foreign minister. It is understood he will demand the return of the concession. Failing this, it is the belief here that British warships will sail up the Yangtze to enforce the British demand.

Foreigners Arm.

The international council here that governs the affairs of the various foreign concessions is continuing to arm a large force in preparation for the occupation of Shanghai by the nationplist armies. They rely upon the foreign warships in the harbor that have been rushed here by the States, Britain and Japan.

Resent U. S. Moves,

A statement issued by the nationalists at Hankow declares that the Kuomintang will give entire protection to all foreigners in cities under their control. Eugene Chen is understood to have stated that the nationalists take unkindly to the reversal of the American attitude, referring to fame. the sending of a big naval force under Admiral Williams which just arrived in Shanghai to co-operate with Great Britain.

Nationalists Advance.

The nationalist armies under eGn. advance into the Yangtze delta. Supporters of the Kuomintaug in Shanghat say that the presence of foreign warships in the Yangtze in large force is giving comfort to the northerners under Sun Chuang Fang and that Great Britain will do everything possible to prevent the nationalists from occupying Shanghai.

DIAZ CATCHES COOLIDGE IN A LIE

"HE U. S. state department has not been functioning with its oustomary amouthness with regard to the constitutional law of Latin republics as evidenced by the bare discrepancy between the explanation of President Coolidge and that of the Niceraguan brother and servant, Procident Diaz, touching on the legality of the latter's regime.

Coolidge's message to congress on the Nicaraguan question said that the Nicaraguan congress was within its constitutional rights in choosing Diaz as president because the elected incumbent, Salozorno, was residing in Callfornia after having resigned office, while Dr. Saepes, his vice-president, "was in Guatemaia."

Diaz. on the other hand, in his last news release (like all his others written by an agent of the U. S. state department) claims that Sacasa was denied his rights of succession because in the judgment of the congress (packed for Diaz) he had ferfeited his office by seeking aid from a foreign government "to make revolution against the government." (One might ask here, what government? Secesa was the rightful president by succession from the moment Salezorno resigned.)

The Nicaraguan constitution provides in article 106 that in the absence of the president and vice-president the congress shall designate one of its members to complete the unexpired term of president. #### Imperialist War Clouds Gather in the Far East There are evidences of a new policy towards the Chinese national liberation movement on the part of the United States of which American workers and farmers should take note. These evidences consist not only in the assembling of a huge American war fleet in Chinese waters, but of developments indicating at least a temporary agreement between Great Britain, Japan and America to prevent the capture of Shanghai by the people's armies and the consolidation of Kiangsu province, in which it is located, under the people's government.

The largest port in China, and the third largest in the world, the great bulk of customs receipts for all China are collected in Shanghai. The possession of this port would greatly increase the Inappeal resources of the people's government and at the same time deprive Sun Chuang-fang and Chang Tso-lin, imperialist tools, of a great source of revenue.

It can be said without exaggeration that the capture of Shanghai and the extension of the people's government to Kiangsu and adjoining provinces which, with the exception of Shantung, would be the natural and immediate result, will be the end of imperialist and militarist rule in three-fifths of China. In the north, with the exception of Manchuria proper, now under Japanese control, this would leave only Shangtung and Chili provinces to Chang Two-lin and his imperialist and militarist allies.

The imperialists, confronted with the reality of losing all control of the port of Shanghai and consequently of the whole rich valley of the Yangtze river, are casting discretion to the winds. A dispatch from London under date of Jan. 13 says:

England immediately will adopt whatever measures are necessary to protect the interests of British citizens in Shanghai and Hankow, and it is understood at the foreign office that the UNITED STATES WILL ACT IN ACCORD.

Reversal of the pacific policy followed a conference between Prime Minister Baldwin and Sir Austen Chamberlain at the foreign office. . . . . It is said here that the plan will be left to the British and AMERICAN authorities in the vicinity of Thenghai. . . . . Co-operation BY THE JAPANESE GOVERN-MENT IS UNDERSTOOD TO HAVE BEEN ASSURED. (Emphasis ours.)

Only such a concentration of foreign naval and military forces so is now taking place in and around Shanghai can prevent its speedy capture by the people's armies. The Chinese population, Lenin and continue his work for the emancipation of toiling masses the especially the workers, are already preparing to welcome the people's armies. If the great powers try by force to wrest victory from the people's government the bloodiest fighting yet seen in China Speakers and halls are indicated wherever possible: will take place.

It is not only for the sake of the Chinese national liberation TROY, N. Y. S. O. H. Hall, 309 Lecture on China movement as such, and because of its tremendous importance to the River St. etruggle of the masses the world over, but because of the danger springfield, Mass., J. P. Cannon. of a world war arising out of the rival ambitions of Great Britain. Japan and America in the Far Past, that the American masses STAMFORD, Conn. should insist on the withdrawal of all armed forces from Chinese WORCHESTER, Mass., J. P. Cannon. waters and territory. The struggle for the trade and the remaining territory of China outside of the domain of the people's government has been made sharper by its recent victories.

It is only that for the moment these rivalries are dwarfed by LOWELL, Mass., 19 Union St., J. P. the GENERAL danger to imperialism that the imperialist powers are enabled to unite to keep Shanghai in their hands. (It is an international settlement altho British interests predominate.)

War can come in the Pacific area without further warning and catch us unprepared just as the threat of war against Mexico contained in the invasion of Nicaragua has found the labor movement unprepared to resist it.

It needs only an "incident," similar to the Sarajevo affair which ROCHESTER, N. Y., 580 St. Paul St. preceded the world war, to set the whole East aflame and involve PROVIDENCE, R. I., J. P. Cannon. all the great powers.

The slogan of "Hands Off China!" must be joined to that of Hands Off Mexico and Nicaragua" and be raised in every section of the American labor movement.

The prince of Wales has again fallen from his horse and the compire breathes a sigh of relief since it is now clear that the prince is still normal.

Now that London and Washington can express their cordial feelings for each other over the phone, they will find it easier to WASHINGTON, D. C., Playhouse, C. declare war on each other when the proper time arrives.

Senator Reed expressed his confusion over the identity of the president's spokesman," but what we would like to know is: who s the president?

lidge and Kellogg, is becoming clearer day by day. The protests in congress and the senate have not stopped its progress

This policy is to threaten Mexico, to invade her sovereignty by refusal to recognize Mexican law, to arouse public sentiment against her thru lying stories in the American press, to encourage internal strife by the activity of such open agents of reaction as Garza, to utilize the catholic church to the utmost, to cry "Bolshevism" when caught red-handed plotting war on the Mexican people and, if all these measures fall, to withdraw recognition, blockade Mexican ports with the huge war fleet now assembled in southern waters, recognize some such black reactionary as Garza and if necessary invade Mexico to install him as president.

How the official spokesmen of the American Federation of abor can remain silent in the face of such an obvious conspiracy against the Mexican and American labor movements will be a mystery to many. The call for the convention of the Pan-American Federation of Labor, with President Green and Vice-President Woll endorsing it, has been sent out.

It contains not one word relative to present grave crisis with its menace of Wall Street war, the date for the convention is the eighteenth of next July.

Surely, if a special convention of this body was ever needed it is now. Such a gathering, adopting unanimously a protest against the bludgeoning of Nicaragua and Mexico, and calling upon the labor movements of all countries involved to oppose would do more than all the speeches in Washington to halt Wall Street aggression.

When the leader of the reactionary opposition in Mexico announces openly that he will abolish the labor laws of the republic and give imperialists a free hand to dispose of the natural resources as they see fit, it is a challenge to every worker and farmer on the North and South American continents.

Labor officials who remain silent now, in the face of proof that silence aids the blackest reaction, are equally guilty with Coolidge and Kellogg and the Wall Street financiers, in a conspiracy against the masses of North and South America.

Every local union affiliated with the American Federation of Labor should demand an open statement in support of the Mexican and Nicaraguan labor movements and against Wall Street aggression by the executive council of the American Federation of Labor now in session in St. Petersburg, Florida.

As part of the labor movement every local union should also send their most emphatic protest to congressmen, senators and President Coolidge.

Let the Wall Street rulers know that American labor is not fooled by its attempt to identify its program of conquest with the interests of the American masses and that labor will not be

'FIGHT AMERICAN IMPERIALISM!' 'FLIMSY PIECE OF SLOGAN OF BIG LENIN MEMORIAL MEETINGS THRUOUT THE COUNTRY

THE struggle against the Imperialist attacks of the United States government upon the peoples of Mexico, Nicaragua and China at the behest of the Wall Street banks will be the keynote of the sories of Lenin memorial meetings organized by the Workers (Communist) Party in the most important cities of the country. Tens of thousands of workers will meet towards the end of January to pay honor to the great leader of the world proletariat and to demonstrate their determination to follow in the way of Lenin and to accomplish the tasks he indicated in overthrowing the most powerful capitalist retary of State Kellogg following his

"What has Leninism to say to the American workers at this critical period?" This will be the great question that the speakers at the Lenin memorial meetings will answer.

The American workers and farmers are facing a gigantic responsibility in face of the pre-eminence of American imperialism on the world political dence in his statement indicating a stage. This responsibility can only be met by a clear and militant line of red plot between Mexico City and policy—a policy of Leninism. (Copyright, 1926, by Upton Sinclair.)

Eli possessed a sense of drama, and turned it loose in the devising of primitive little tableaux and pageants, which gave rapture to his simple minded followers. When he told how he had been tempted of the devil, the wicked One came upon the scene, hoofs, horns and tail, and with a red spotlight on him; when Eli lifted up the cross on high, the devil would fall and strike his forehead on the ground, and the silver trumpets would peal and the followers would burst into loud hosannahs. Or perhaps it would be the command, "Suffer little children to come unto me"; there would be hundreds of children, all robed in white, and when Eli lifted his shepherd's crock and called, they came storming to the platform, their fresh young voices shouting, "Praise the Lord!" And of course, there was the regular mourners' bench. and the baptisms in the huge new tank. You were never allowed to forget that you had a soul, and that it was of supreme importance to you and to Jesus, and that you were having it saved by Ell's aid. You were always being called upon to do something to stand up for the Lord, or to clap your hands for salvation, or to raise your right hand if you were a new-comer to the tabernacle.

But the great advantage Eli had over the other prophets was the pair of leathern bellows he had developed out on the hills of Paradise-Never was there such an electrify ing voice, and never one that could keep going so long. All day Sunday it bellowed and boomed-morning, afternoon, evening; there were week-day services every evening but Saturday, and in the mornings and afternoons there were prayer meetings and Bible schools and services of song and healing blessings and bantismal ceremonials and thank offerings and wholesale wedings and Bride of the Lamb dedications-you just couldn't keep track of all that was going on in the many rooms and meeting halls of this half million dollar taber vellous invention; the human voice became magnified a-hundred million fold, it could be spread over the whole earth. The population of America had gone wild over radio, and everybody had rushed to get a set. The first great public use made of this achievement in Angel City was to open a new three million dollar hotel for the pleasure of the very rich, and the opening ceremonies were broadcasted, and the newspapers were full of the wonder of it; but it proved to be dreadful, because everybody in the hotel got drunk, and the manager of the institution placed himself in front of the microphone and poured out a stream of obscenities such as farmers' wives from Iowa had never dreamed in all their lives. So it was felt that the new invention needed to be sanctified and redeemed, and Ell proceeded to instal one of the biggest and most powerful broadcasting stations. Thru the Lord's mercy, his words were heard over . four million square miles, and ft. was worthwhile to preach to audiences of that size, praise Jesus!
