Browder Calls for Aid to "Daily Worker"

DEAR READERS of the DAILY WORKER:

Of course you realize the importance of having a paper which gives you every day those vital facts of work ingclass struggle, of the heroic Pittsburgh miner's battle, of the Scottsboro Case, of the hunger marches, of the struggle against war. You understand that without the Daily Worker it would have been impossible to develop such magnificent class movements, to put up such fights for our demands.

But you do not all yet realize that the Daily Worker can only live so long as its readers give it enough money to pay the printers, the engravers, and the paper houses.

You must realize this fact. Our campaign for funds must be given the help of every reader. YOU must also do your part---and quickly. EARL BROWDER

Readers, the Daily Worker is seriously threatened and there is no assurance that we can hold out to the nationwide Tag Days June 26-27-28. Speed funds to the Daily Worker. 50 E. 13th St., New York City

NERS! DRIVE OUT THE SCAB HERDING U.M. W

Smash the Enemies of the Miners!

EVERY worker throughout the country should rally to the call for relief to the striking miners who are battling against starvation and a united front of all enemies, open and concealed, of the whole working

It is imperative that these heroic strikers, their wives and babies be fed. Other workers must furnish the food which will be the municions of battle in the class war now raging.

But even the sending of relief funds, workers must guard against them falling into the hands of the strikers' enemies, because the socalled "socialist" party, which is supporting the U. M. W. A., the company union approved by the mine owners, has resorted to a despicable trick to prevent funds reaching the only relief organization chosen by the strikers themselves, the Pennsylvania-Ohio Miners' Relief Committee, 611 Penn Avenue, Room 517, Pittsburgh, Pa.

These "socialist" scoundrels have opened a so-called "Miners' Relief Fund" at the same street address-on the floor above! All workers should be warned that this "socialist" outfit is working against the strikers, playing the bosses' games, trying to drive the miners into the scab organization they despise, the J. M. W. A. of John L. Lewis and Pat Fagan, trying to break the strike.

Send relief funds only to the miners' own committee, the Pennsylvania-Ohio Miners' Relief Committee, 611 Penn Avenue, Room 517, Pittsburgh, Pa. Aid the strikers! Smash their enemies!

The strike will be won on the picket line! And relief will help the picket line! The strike will be won on the picket line and in defiance of the outrageous injunction of the capitalist courts! The strike will be won on the picket line by mass picketing, defying the injunction and the attempt of the bosses, the United Mine Workers company union, the brutal police and the hypocrite Governor Pinchot.

The miners are learning that the state law "against injunctions" is a farce; learning that capitalist laws and capitalist government are always against the workers; learning that the only way to win their strike is to tear up injunctions and defy them by picketing in masses!

These miners, who already have suffered betrayal after betrayal by the U. M. W. A., are seeing a new attempt at betrayal. The capitalist press reports from Pittsburgh on Wednesday openly states that Governor Pinchot is supporting the Pittsburgh Terminal Coal Company in driving the miners back at a wage cut in agreement with the U. M. W. A. It

"The company is willing to recognize the union (the scab U. M. W. A.-Editor), provided a satisfactory wage rate of 421-2 cents a ton for loading, instead of 45 cents, the highest rate paid before the strike."

The dispatch, which is from the United Press service, makes clear hat the company is making a deal with the treacherous U. M. W. A., to give this scab outfit the check off in exchange for betraying the miners into a wage cut. The dispatch says:

"The operating company desires the reduction in wages in return for union recognition, which includes the check-off." In short, the mine owners are bribing the officials of the U. M. W. A. the notorious Fagan and the rest, to sell out the strikers, to betray the strike against starvation into even worse starvation wages than before!

The miners will stand like a rock against this dirty game of sellout! Against the U. M. W. A. and the bosses and the governor who are trying to drive them back at a wage cut! They will fight like lions and break the capitalist court injunctions by militant mass picketing! And to help them do it, every worker everywhere must rush to their relief! Send funds to the Pennsylvania-Ohio Miners Relief Committee 611 Penn Ave., Room 517, Pittsburgh, Pa.!

HARRISBURG. Pa. -Frank Borich, secretary of the National Miners Union who led a delegation of the Central Rank and File Strike Committee to expose the secret conference called by Governor Pinchot together with the United Mine Workers issued the following statement:

"The reason the Pinchot-United Mine Workers of America conference broke up without a scab agreement just now is not because of disagreement of wages. The Creighton and Ben Franklin agreements showed the UMW9 is not trying to raise the wage scale. The reason is the mass proetst of thirty thousand miners as preparations to smashing the scab agreement by mass picketing.

"The fake wage issue is designed to raise the UMWA prestige to try again later through state or federal mediation to effect such a scab agreement." The Pittsburgh Coal Co. now says they will operate open shop. It will be met by mass picketing. Arkansas Miners Robbed of Wages

Families Starving and Desperate

(By a Worker Correspondent) FORT SMITH, Ark.—The miners are in a terrible condition out here in Arkansas. They are not livingthey are merely existing. They have had very little work in over a year. Those who are working get only a couple of days work a week at $2 to $4 a day.

Then the miners are robbed of some of their pay by a fellow by the name of Bob Young, who has the contract of putting the coal on top. This Bob Young is notorious out here as a union buster and has done the miners more dirt than anybody in town.

The miners are now paying dear for listening to the hot air the bosses STEEL BOSSES and their agents peddled about "returning prosperity." I just met a miner who told me he had nothing for himself and his family to eat for two day s. A miner's wife, desperate from starvation, rushed into a store and seized a sack of flour. and a bucket of lard. She looked so determined that the merchant was afraid to try to stop her.

The Arkansas miners will have to do like the miners in Pennsylvaria are doing-that is, line up with the National Miners Union and strike against starvation.

Law Calls for $16 a Week Minimum Wage for Women; Thousands Toil Long Hours for $6, $8 Skilled Girls Kept On Payrolls for Years As Apprentices At Low Wages

LOS ANGELES, Cal.—A few sessions back, the Legislature of California, forced by pressure from the workers, passed a law requiring employers of women to pay a minimum of $16 per week. A severe penalty for failure to comply with this law was also forced into the act by popular demand. Since then, California, past master in the art of publicity, has let the world know that it was a state with a heart—a progressive state Worker Asks to Join that protected the "poor working girl" from the ruthless exploitation of greedy employers and the perils of the street.

The Costa Rican Trade Menace

MR. KNICKERBOCKER overlooked a Menace. just when Menaces are most necessary to explain why Prosperity didn't come back in sixty days. Look at Costa Rica, for example.

Who knows what deviltry is hidden there, in Costa Rica? Who knows, I ask! Listen, and I'll reveal to you some things, facts if you please, that all red-blooded Americans should be aware

Why are Americans discontented? Why was Warren Gamaliel Harding betrayed? Why did Coolidge choose not to run? Why was Hoover forced to bring forth a 20 Year Plan? Why was

And the answer, the cold-blooded truth, which it is high time all Americans who love their pork and beans must hear, is-Costa Rica!

Every American worker who sees his factory closing and the boss going to the seashore while he goes to the Board of Charities, must ask himself this question: What has Costa Rica to do with all this?

The traveller in Central America, admiring the palm tree lined shore of Costa Rica; the grocer of Cincinnati, busily short-weighing a customer: you, the reader, scanning these lines as you stir your coffee, never imagine, in your simplemindedness, the dark danger that lies there under the tropic sun, there in Costa Rica.

I'll tell you. But it's hard to stretch the thing out for two dozen articles. Yet I'll tell you, for I am the Prize Piffle Peddler of the World! (No. not of the World, but the Post). But don't expect me to be one day in Rome and the next day in Norway, because the editor of the Daily Worker refuses to fake the date line. He's no newspaper man. He actually studies Hegel, and under-estimates the peril of Costa Rica. Now that the history, flora and fauna of Costa Rica have been made clear to you, let us examine the menace of Costa Rican trade.

Men have been killed in Costa Rica! Fair young girls have been ruined in Costa Rica! Mosquitoes bite like the dickens in Costa Rica! Ah, ha! Malaria and mystery lurk behind its

Think of it! A man with a name like Don Cleto Gonzales Viquez is bound to be against America! The very syllables smell of intrigue, banditry, plots! Is he loyal to the Stars and Stripes? What an absurd question! Bananas Bring Dismay.

For Costa Rica, with Don Cleto Gonzales Viquez at its head, is carrying on a ruthless campaign to ruin the young American song writers. And many more besides! You doubt it? Look at the facts! In 1926, Costa Rica exported 8,561,000 bunches of bananas valued at $6,421,000. By 1929 it had increased its banana exports to 6,112,170

What of it, you'll say, thinking that 6,000,000 bunches of bananas are less than 8,000,000. Huh! That is only a superficial analysis of those who

What are the objective conditions? 1) the exist-

Rico are showing signs of combativeness and willingness to organize in class trade unions;

3) the oppressed non-proletarian masses of the turn their backs to the native bourgeois politibe seen by the response of the masses to the calls of the Comunists-although not yet or-

What song writer, making an honest living out of selling songs such as "Yes, We Have No Bananas," can stand up under the avalanche of millions upon millions of bunches of bananas! More, imported into the United States, while the lawmakers at Washington sleep with chorus girls, imported (the bananas, not the girls) over the protest of the American Legion, these enormous quantities of bananas are crowding the warehouses of our coastal cities, flooding the market in a yellow tidal wave of bananas that has put literally thousands of unemployed apple

sellers out of business!

What may be said of coffe we leave to your imagination. More than 44,000,000 millions pounds of coffe were exported by the Dictator Viquez in 1928—enough coffee to keep the whole world awake nights!

But the world awoke too late! Now in 1931, Brazil, driven to the wall by Costa Rican competition, is forced to burn its surplus coffee or dump it far out at sea! The world is getting a terrible lesson on Costa Rican trade methods!

An Accident? No! Bolshevism! Naturally, all this is not accidental. It is deliberate! Few know that the money gained by this cut-throat competition in coffee and bananas is going for Bolshevism! Of course the Bolsheviks will deny that it is Bolshevism, but Congressman Fish has decided that it is!

For Costa Rica, on August 4, 1928, passed a law which nationalizes all electric power available throughout the country! An insult to Insull! A defiance of the very laws of electricity, so to

And, again, Americans will be surprised to learn that Costa Rica has frequently modified its Constitution. Laugh that off, if you can! For any country that modifies its Constitution is suspicious! Ask the Daughters of the American Revolution!

So the Costa Rican trade menace goes on, gaining slowly but surely on the United States. While from 1922 to 1930 U.S. exports to Costa Rica fell one per cent. Costa Rican imports into the U. S. A. fell only one-half of one per cent, and anybody can see that if this keeps on for two hundred years. Costa Rica will have reaped a harvest of gold from the dumbbell Yankees, while they argue about the tariff. In closing, we again call attention to the menace of Costa Rica, and the fact that anybody with a name like Don Cleto Gonzales Viquez can mean no good to the American people

WHILE this is written over 30,000 Western Pennsylvania. Ohio and West Virginia coal miners are striking under the leadership of the National Miners Union. The strike is spreading like wildfire. When these lines will reach the the Daily Worker readers additional thousands will be striking and the tempo of its spreading will increase.

It will spread because this is a strike against the devastating mass hunger among the miners and their families, hunger unparalleled in American history. THE MINERS ARE DETER-MINED TO DEFEAT THE HUNGER.

Every single mine now on strike has elected Broad Rank and File Strike Committees. Thousands of miners have joined the National Miners Union. Dozens of mass meetings are being held daily under the auspices of the N.M.U. with thousands of miners attending. A mass picket line is organized and led by the N.M.U. in front of every striking mine with men, women, children, negro and white, participating, Marches of the striking miners and the unemployed miners are being led by the N.M.U. daily to spread the strike. General Strike Committee meeting of the unanimously elected miners representatives is being held Wednesday in Pittsburgh to formulate the demands and the policy of the strike.

The United Mine Workers, with the best speakers and organizers in the field, with gangsters and thousands of dollars at its disposal with the widest publicity of the capitalist press and the widest distribution of leaflets by the jaid gangsters, was not able so far to hold a single mass meeting in spite of many attempts. The miners refuse to attend. The U.M.W.A. organizers are being driven out of the field. Few of their followers are trying to scab. They are organizing back-to-work movements. Not one miner in course of the strike joined the U.M.W.A.

And yet, in view of these undisputable facts, the capitalist press of the whole Western Pennsylvania is printing miles long stories playing up the U.M.W.A. as the leader of the strike. This is being done in an attempt to prevent the spreading of the strike which means a defeat of the strike. They know that the miners will refuse to strike under the leadership of the U.M. W.A. The capitalist press, in long editorials and special articles, is urging the coal operators to sign an agreement with the U.M.W.A. if they want to prevent the growing strength of the National Miners Union. The claim that the U.M. W.A. will co-operate with the coal operators to "stibilize" the industry. Unheard of campaign of lies is being organized against the N.M.U. In order to counter-act these lies, in order to expose the strike breaking role of the U.M.W.A., in order to bring the militant program of the N.M.U. to the miners. we need tens of thousands of copies of the Daily Worker every day, especially as we have no official organ of our own. But the Daily Worker finds itself in a severe financial crisis which threatens its very existence and cannot afford to send us th nessary.

Therefore, in the name of the striking and starving miners, we appeal to all the readers and sympathizers of the Daily Worker to rush funds to the Daily Worker enabling it to send tens of thousands of copies every day to the striking miners. In this way you will help tremendously to win the miners' strike which is directed against mass hunger.

3. The most urgent task of the Communists is the organization of the agricultural workers in the plantations. These workers are the most exploited in the island and constitute the mafority of the wage earners. The comrades must elaborate a program of partial demands in accordance with the existing conditions in the plantations. The organization of agricultural workers into revolutionary unions and their strike actions will shake the rural population and as Lenin said:

"Only the strike struggle is capable to shake off the lethargy of the countryside, to wake the class consciousness and the understanding of the complete necessity of a class organization for the exploited rural masses, to reveal to them in a practical way all value of their alliance with the workers in the cities."

The Fifth Congress of the Red International of Labor Unions has elaborated concrete suggestions as to the close collaboration and alliance that we must strive to establish between the city and agricultural workers. It is, therefore, fundamentally important, that we must organize the thousands of unorganized workers in the cities into revolutionary independent unions. This, of course, does not mean that we must not organize our left wing opposition in the reform-

4. The Communists must be in the leadership in the movement for the national liberation of Porto Rico. The bourgeois political leaders are using more demagogy than ever in an attempt to retain their influence among the masses and check the growing demand of the people for complete independence. They also are for the "independence" of Porto Rico but in reality they work hand in hand with Yankee imperialism. The socialist party sends its representatives to the White House for more American loans the huge interests of which are to be paid by the workers and peasants. The Nationalist Party is more demagogic with its "left" phrases on this burning issue before the people of the islands. They must strive to win the toiling masses and the petty bourgeoisie, the students and city poor for the struggle for the independence of the island. On the basis of a concrete program of partial political demands, the Communists will succeed to lead the working class of Porto Rico for the hegemony in the struggle for national

In carrying out the above outlined tasks, the Communists will gain strength and prestige among the warking class and the oppressed people. In the course of their activities, the Communists must and will secure the most militant elements in the trade unions, mills, plantations, shops, etc., for the building of the Communist Party of Porto Ptico. The members of the existing Communist groups must be immediately organized into shop or street nuclei They are to regularly pay their monthly dues at their unit meetings.

The passivity of the Communists and the lack of initiative for Communist work, is due to the lack of understanding of the daily tasks. However, we feel certain that the above given suggestions as to the immediate tasks of our comrades, if carried out, will ensure the way to the formation of a strong militant and mass Communist Party capable to lead the oppressed masses to the overthrow of imperialism and the rule of native bourgeoisie in Porto Rico and the establishment of a Workers' and Peasants' Gov-

Some Notes from St. Louis A Note from A Migratory Worker

1) Three Negro workers became interested in the movement. After some discussion among themselves they decided to join the Communist Party. One of them came to the Party headquarters on a Monday. There was a meeting of the unamployed council then, so he joined it. The second worker came on a Tuesday. The Party unit met then. He filled out an application and joined. The third one came on a Thursday. The International Labor Defense met that night. So he joined the International Labor Defense. For three months after this happened, the three of them thought that thy belonged to the same organization, the Communist Party.

2) Comrade K. became interested in the Party last November. He read about it in the capitalist press. As a worker he learned from his own experience that his place was in the Communist Party. He wanted to join, but he couldn't find the Party or any of the organizations connected with the Party. He couldn't even get a hold of the Daily Worker or of anything at all to get in touch with us. Only a few days before May Day one of the workers in the shop where he is working came over to him and gave him a leaflet, that was given out on the street, saying, "Here, you were talking about communism, they are going to have a meeting." That, finally, brought him to us after six months searching for

3) A Party speaker calls upon an audience of workers, in the name of the Party, T.U.U.L., I.L.D., Unemployed Council, L.S.N.R., Y.C.L., to join the movement. A worker, who came to the meeting having in mind to join the Unemployed Council, asks another worker, "Does he want us to join the whole bunch of them?"

A NOTE FROM A MIGRATORY WORKER. I Joined the Communist Party May 1, 1931, but until now it is impossible for me to send you my address because I am unemployed and have no home. In the meantime, do not destroy my application card.

When I find a job in Chicago I will send you my address. I will help the Party financially and also through agitation. I am spreading propaganda from town to town as I look for work, especially the farms, among employed and unemployed. In small towns we are given a place to sleep for one night and some bread to eat and the following morning we have to leave.

This winter I traveled about 50,000 miles all over the U.S. A. and I find great sympathy for the Communist Party, but the Party doesn't know about it because these workers are scattered throughout the small mining towns and when there is a parade like May 1st, again we don't find them there.

Capitalist vermin are spreading lying propaganda against the C. P. in the U. S. A. and against the Soviet Union. There are many workers who are misled but for that very reason we must work hard to expose these lying capitalists and their tricks.

(An important article on Trade Union and Party work will appear in the next Party Life Column.)

Red Sparks On Fraternal Orders

By BURCK

Recently a worker, who correctly opposes the so-called "fraternal orders" under capitalist control, which stultify class struggle, wrote us, adding an objection to the I. W. O. (International Workers Order) which he claims has "high rates which keep many out," and that "one reason is the $100 a week jobs and so on." He

"The average worker's wage is $25 a week and less. A worker's organization should have executives that live like workers and act like us on the same average pay. Those that get more are opportunists.'

Well, opportunism must be measured by something more than a salary. We chaps on the Daily Worker once in a while make opportunist mistakes right when we miss pay days entirely. And the I. W. O. officials are, we think, keeping the class struggle pretty well to the fore. But we inquired about all this and are informed by the I. W. O. secretary that:

"The I. W. O. as a fraternal benefit society has lower rates than any other fraternal organization, much lower than the German Kranken Kase, Woodmen of the World, Workmens Circle, etc." As to those supposed $100 salaries, he tells us: "There can be no question but that the officials of the I. W. O. are getting salaries which are scheduled for the proletarian fraternal organizations. The scale of wages for the officials cannot be higher than $50. This is a decision of the I. W. O. National Executive Committee."

So it sems, comrade, that you're a bit mistaken on both complaints. There are no high rates" and no "$100 a week jobs." And if you still think they are both too high, well, we guess you better join the I. W. O. and undertake, with the rights of a members, to change em.

Not the Same Appeal

The guy who sidles up to you and offers you a bottle which he calls "Pre-War stuff," is logically to be suspected. The same applies to the attempt by Haldman-Julius and Fred Warren to palm off a paper they are starting as the pre-war "Appeal to Reason."

The old Appeal to Reason was a paper, in prewar days, of socialist agitation, fearfully vague on basic theory but striking a popular note of protest at capitalism dished out with utopian promises that "under socialism things will be different.

That doesn't answer the question today, when any movement has to responr to concrete struggle, and has to stand for socialism in its living form in the Soviet Union-or stop being a movement. The so-called "socialist" party, Abramovitch, czarist, white guards and all, has given its blessings to the idea of "reviving" the Appeal to Reason, so any worker can see what kind of counter-revolutionary dope sheet it will be.

But there has been an awkward thing to explain. If the Appeal is being "Pevived," why did it die? Why did it stay dead for over a decade? A Montana farmer who was once its supporter but who now knows that the only party of really socialist policy is the Communist Party, and the leading English paper in this country that fights for the toilers is the Daily Worker, tells us why the old Appeal to Reason died:

"Fred Warren and Emanual Haldeman-Julius of Kansas are trying to revive the old Appeal. They betrayed the workers during the war, by calling it the "New Appeal," and backed Woodrow Wilson. The militant workers quit it and now they say it went under during the war and if the workers will support them they will revive it.

"They are going to fight for 'so-called justice,' whatever that means. It is my opinion that they want to stem the tide of the workers to the Communist Party and betray the coming war just like they did in the last imperialist World War."

Listen how these scoundrels try to lie out of their past betrayal:

"The Appeal failed because of the black reaction during and after the World War, when for some years Socialist propaganda could find no audience and Americans in particular exhibited a bitter resentment or cynical indifference toward discussions of social reform."

Horse feathers! Just like social fascists to lay their own treachery to the masses!

And everything that Haldeman-Julius says in his present paper, the "Freeman," shows that the "revived" Appeal will do just what our farmer reader of Montana says. A lot of gabble about how beautiful everything "will be" under socialism, but-but the Soviet Union is not mentioned, and as an immediate aim he proposes "Justice and sanity in government."

Gentlemen, your "pre-war" socialism is fake!

appears that labor is sound asleep." People who write such stuff as that have no faith in the working class. Think! From the great mine strike we hear the following:

"The unadorned facts are that the menwomen and children of the Western Pennsylvania coal fields show no awe whatever in the face of the armed forces; that they have reformed their picket lines as many as four times and charged through tear gas barages behind which lay barricaded professional killers armed with machine guns. The workers had only sticks and stones."

Yet the S. L. P. says "labor is sound asleep." The Communists say that it is the S. L. P. which is sound asleep! The Communists get the support of the masses because they have faith in the masses. The Daily Worker is not just kidding you when it asks you; thousands of you workers who are not members the Communist Party, to form Daily Worker Clubs in order that the Daily may benefit by your advice and your criticisms. We mean every word

Only because we are Communists do we open our door to workers, to the masses. Comrade Stalin, writing about Lenin, who had deep faith in the masses, bitterly attacks those who lack that faith. He says, in part:

"The theoreticians and leaders of parties, who know the history of the peoples, who have thoroughly studied the history of the different revolutions from beginning to end, sometimes fall victims of a certain shameful disease. This disease is called 'fear of the masses,' lack of faith in the creative genius of the masses."

Comrade reader, we don't have that "shameful disease." No real Communist does. We mean what we say when we urge you to form Daily Worker Clubs, your own organization, a club which should be a socialble affair absolutely voluntary, free from dues, tiresome rules and "stiff-necked-ism," if you get our meaning, but helpful to your favorite paper, as we are helpful to you. We have faith in the working

FROM EDITOR TO READER

Faith in the Working Class

THE other day a reader wrote us about something called the "Industrial Union League," which held a meeting in a New York suburb, spending most of the time attacking the Communists. They put out a leaflet which speaks about "socialist industrial unionism." Sounds kind of "radical" to most people.

Now workers should realize what all this means. The "Industrial Union League" is neither "industrial" nor a "union" nor a "league." It is something that a few members of what there are in the "Socialist Labor Party" (and they are darned few!) play with in order to prevent workers from joining the Trade Union Unity League, the only revolutionary trade union central organization in the U.S.A. The only one supported by and guided by Communists yet open to all workers.

What has this got to do with you? you may ask. Well, we just wanted you to understand how Communists are different than the S. L. P. Why Communists are attacked by the S. L. P. And what's all the row about. Because many workers think: "Why can't these radical groups get together? Why fight among yourselves?" Yet, if you really know the life of Lenin, you'll remember that the biggest part of his work was fighting against misleaders of the workers who pretended to be "socialists" and "revolutionists." Only by firm fight against such people was the Russian working class prepared to overthrow capitalism.

The S. L. P. leaflet mentioned talks abou capital and labor. But it says that "The fact !

brought the country on the brink of ruin and starvation. More than 60 per cent of the workers are unemployed today. American imperialist domination of Porto Rico for the last 30 years brought untold misery and physical degeneration of the nation. More than 600,000 people are iffering from the dreadful disease of hookworm. The "blessings" of Yankee occupation can be found in Governor Roosevelt's report. For the last 20 years 200,000 people died of malnutrition and 35,000 of tuberculosis in the last decade. Roosevelt's report presents the darkest picture in this history of Rorto Rico. The huge surplus profits of American sugar barons and bankers and the native latifundists are extracted from the very blood of the toiling masses in the city and countryside. Illiteracy is widespread. There is a meagre provision for children's education. The Porto Rican children sit at school benches with their stomachs empty. They are pale, emaciated. In the last years a series of spontaneous strikes took place. Because of the lack of militant and sincere leadership, the workers were betrayed by the yellow socialist leaders. The leaders of the American Federation of Labor are not interested to organize the workers. More than 40,000 women and children toil in the sweatshops. These yellow leaders consciously hinder the organization of the workers in the plantations (sugar, tobacco and fruit). The plantations constitute the key position of the imperialists and landowners in the economic life of the country.

In the face of this situation, important and urgent tasks confront the Communists of Porto Rico. The crystallization of Communist groups which must inevitably lead to the organization of a strong mass Communist Party, is conditioned by their daily activities in the class strug-The Communist Party can only develop and thrive through the participation in the daily struggles of the working class in all aspects of the work. Let us enumerate some of the most immediate tasks of our Communist sympathizers and groups in Porto Rico:

1. Within the existing trade unions, controlled by the reactionary yellow leaders, the Communists must strive to organize revolutionary opposition or left wing groups on the basis of a concrete program for the betterment of the conditions of the workers, for higher wages, sanitary conditions in the shops, insurance against accidents, recognition of the unions, etc. The Communists must be the live wire within the left wing groups who are to explain to the workers the necessity for the militant struggle against the yellow leaders and win over the majority to their side around the program of immediate economic demands.

2. The organization of the unemployed workers into unemployed councils. Here the Communists must elaborate a program of action for concrete demands: Social insurance to the unemployed to be paid by the government and the imperialist enterprises, the funds to be administered by committees of workers. The unemployed councils must strive to link up their

IX. The Cultural Advance of the Soviets.

The revolutionary advance of the Russian workers to the position of the ruling class created colossal tasks for them. The supposed high culture of the ruling landed aristocracy in Czarist Russia only emphasized the bitter antagonism of czarism to mass culture. The white spots of the "culture" of the ruling classes only brought into sharper relief the utter darkness in the cultural life of the Ruscent of the entire rural population could read. In the cities 40 per cent of the population were illiterate. Illiteracy gripped 64.5 per cent of the entire population of Czarist Russia. But even these fearful figures cannot give a complete picture of the problems which the cultural revolution of the Soviets must solve.

"The crucial need for relief for the miners' struggle against starvation has not been felt by the revolutionary workers. Relief is needed today-the strikers cannot go on starving and at the same time continue their heroic battle against the coal operators and their gunmen. The strikers have no food for their children, babies have gone unfed and we must sound the alarm. In such a situation there is serious danger for the strike. Strikers and their wives and children are canvassing the mining camps but there is little to be had. The steel workers and railroad workers are themselves elose to starvation even if they have work. But half are unemployed. So in the area close to the striking mines

"But relief funds and food can be gotten from the workers in the larger cities. Our collection must be immediate. Miners are coming with trucks to our relief headquarters for food and we do not have provisions to give them. But we must not and we will not turn them back emptyhanded. We must pack those trucks full and encourage and help these fighting miners and comrades of ours. Show your solidarity today!
