Doth our weary voices rise;
Hushed, confused by the city's roar,
And the curious smirk and leer
Of Greed's luxurious band—

The pallid faces gleam, and gasp for air;
Lung-wrecked, flesh pinched, lank, loose wights,

NEW YORK UNIONISTS ECHO SENTIMENTS.

The same sentiments prevail in the New York unions, whose members are inclined to resent the action of President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor in pledging support to Bryan. The officers of some of the hnions said that Gompers could not talk for them: Secretary Hourigan of the New York branch of the International Association of Machinists said:

said:
"My organization is affiliated with the A. F. of L., but that does not give Gompers the right to promise the support of my union for Bryan. I would like to know just what he means by stating as president of the A. F. of L. that he will support Bryan. He cannot call on the unions to support any political party, and as to influencing them by argument the voters know how they are going to vote and can think for themselves."

Julius D. Davis, a member and former officer of the United Garment Workers, who has been in touch with the workers throughout the country predicted that Bryan would be defeated.

With $100,000 Loot Will Be Out in Three Years.

Percy Nagle's Criminal Lieutenant In Accorded Every Coursesy—Is Kindly Treated In Tombs and Will Be Gently Handled at Sing Sing-Such Is the Strength of "Pull."

Burgiar Gormley picked out a sentence of four years and five months for Judge Foster, loyal Tammany judge, to hand him yesterday, and smiled as the farcial sentence was imposed upon him with a faint-hearted pretest from the dignitary of the supreme law of the State.

The throng of low-brows crowding the court room nudged one another and grinned as the judge protested, and whispered: "All to the good! That means three years, a couple of months, and twenty odd days. Nuttin' to it!"

months, and twenty odd days. Nuttin' to iti"

With all the modest dignity of a presidential candidate, backed by the powers, Gormley strode proudly back to the special cell in the Tombs in. which he has been confined and received there the congratulations of his friends upon his ability to defy the laws of the State of New York which would have conferred upon any not affiliated with Tammany a life sentence as a habitual criminal.

He knows that his title of rank as criminal lieutenant of Percy Nagle outranks that of the keeper of Sing Sing, and that the keeper and his subordinates will be his personal servants while he remains their guest.

It is not to be supposed that he will three

visit New York surrepitions of course and see his friends. But as iong as he is there when the time comes around for his formal release, the bluff will hold in the eyes of the public and that's all that's required of him.

Besides Percy Nagle will need his gives within the next three years, and so loyal a servant of Tammany will not be denied.

The humor of the Gormley sentence can only be appreciated in its grim satise upon the law of the State when it is remembered that only a short while ago a valet of Mortimer Schiff, who pleaded guilty to the theft of a diamond valued at $125, and to an assault upon Banker Schiff, the valet being a man whose sanity was questionable, was sentenced by this same court in General Sessions to Sing Sing for twenty-five years.

This sentence is virtually a life sentence, although the vectim was not a habitulal criminal and had previously borne a good reputation.

A comparison of the sentences places a habitual criminal who acts as the agent in the dirty work of a Tammany district leader upon a partith a leader in the baking circles of the plutocratic society of the city, judging from their ability to sway the judiciary of the State until its members dance Salome-like at the command of the Gods of Things As They Are.

Said Judge Foster, after he had

dictment, which is all that is before me."

Content him forscoth!

That was when Gormley smiled.

And the newspapers, the loyal defenders of the people who read and support them, devoted about one inch of space to this flagrant outrage of the law, Had it been a Socialist meeting broken up under orders from Tammany a column would have been spared, devoted to arraigning the speakers as disturbers of the law and order of the land.

No News of Scoring Methods.

American athletes made a gain on the British yesterday in the stadium, but as yet no light is forthcoming from the other side as to the exact method of point scoring. If the minor sports, such as the swimming and cycling, are included in the total England still leads with a total of 42 points to 31 for America. Taken the and swimming and count only the track and field events, America leads with a score of 31 to 20 for the Britishers. ## COUNT DE CASTELLANE SUES FOR CHILDREN

PARIS, July 17 .- Count Boni de Castellane yesterday formally filed suit for such revision of the decree of divorce obtained against him by his wife, who was Miss Anna Gould of New York, as will give him the of New York, as will give him the ustody of his three children. The caring has been set for July 27.

The principal ground set forth by Jount English that the past record of the care of the lawn tennis championship of New York State, in singles and doubles, close this evening at 8 o'clock, and the drawings will take place at the New York A. C., Central Park South. custody of his three children. The hearing has been set for July 27.

Count Boni is that the past record of the Prince de Sagan, his late wife's new husband, makes him anworthy to be in close relationship to the chil-dren. The conduct of the Princess in dren. The conduct of the Princess in traveling with the Prince prior to the marriage of the pair is also invoked as an additional ground. If allowed to remain with the Sagans, the summons declares, the children would be brought up to dislike their father. As a corollary the Count asks the court to order the mother of the children to contribute $20,000 annually toward the maintenance of each child.

There was no hurry to decide the case; to place it on the county clerk's calendar means to side-track it for several years, during which time the company will continue to enjoy its million annually.

Denies the Right of the City Officials To Act. · · "The railroad is not

* The railroad is not a street, but simply a railroad," says Justice Bischoff in his opinion. "It is a highway upon which the public have the right to travel upon payment of a fixed fare or toll. As such. its construction was for a city purpose, but it was not essential to constitutionality of the statute which devoted the city's money to the purpose, that any particular, and then existing ministerial officers of the city should have control of this highway ordinary street. Provision was made for a competent body of agents to exercise the necessary incidental ontrol of the property, in behalf of the city.

Thus has the learned justice taken out the right of action from the city officials and has turned it over to the Rapid Transit Commission. He is plain in giving his reasons and tells that he does it to save the noney for that company that would otherwise be lost. The opinion con-

The right of the city to remove the signs and other property should arbitrarily determined by a city officer, by resort to his own interpretation of the statute, and this contract, but in view of the importance of the question and of the serious financial injury which would result through the carrying out of the expressed intention to remove this property, if the question of right be ultimately decided favorably to the plaintiff, the interference should restrained UNTIL THE ISSUE HAVE BEEN FINALLY DETERMINED nd the right of the party fixed.

The opjinion does not even touch upon the clauses of the contract that are violated by the introduction of the advertising signs. Instead an effort was made to show that it is customfor railway companies to have advertisement matter in their

On the contrary I am informed and have reasons to be-lieve the subway railways in opera-tion in the city of Boston, Mass., do not permit any advertising whatever in its stations. What indeed has the custom of other railroads to do with the Subway? The other railroads were not built with the people's money, and they did not sign the contract which demands requirements and prevents privileges that were quoted.

For example: The contract de-mands that two tollets should be installed in every subway station. the fact that there is only one toilet in the Long Island station justify the violation of this clause? The contract clearly sttaes that the I. R. T. should operate the railway carefully should operate the railway carefully, and skilfully, according to the high-cest known standard of railway operation. And it is strange indeed that after that we stoop to the Long Island and New Jersey railroads for a standard of beauty and comfort.

THE STRUGGLE FOR BREAD.

By GEORGE D. HERRON.

Whatever terms the struggle may ap For President pear in. it is none the less true that For Vice-President the history of the world has pivoted itself upon the struggle for bread. Up For Governor of New York, to the present time economic conditions have been the compelling motives of great historic changes or of the lack of changes. All real revolts in their analysis have been motived by intolerable economic conditions, and wars of con-quest, however disguised, have been wars of theft, the predatory expeditions f economic might. History has been the struggle on the part of those who made bread, but did not have it, against those who had bread, but did not make it, the word bread" here symbolizing all the things that go to make up opportunity and privilege. Bread to eat means opportunity to live and means power in one To be certain of one's bread is to have the ground of liberty beneath one's feet, and to have power over another's bread, power to give it or take t away as may serve one's interest, is to have the power of life and death over another.

And this is the one and only blaspflemy, the supreme and desecrating sacrilege, from which all blasphemies desecrating sacrilege, from which all biaspnenies and sacrileges and human wrongs spring, that some people should control the lives of other people, their thoughts and deeds and aspirations, their judgments of right and wrong, the labor of their hands, the uplifting or the prostrating of their souls. And or the prostrating of their souls. And the basis of this ancient and universal wrongdoing, making history seem but a flood for the destroyer of the human spawn, is the ownership of bread.

This is why history is the struggle those who produce bread against those who possess it-the struggle of the breadmakers against the bread owners for increasing scraps of power which the ownership of bread puts into the hands of the world's masters. struggle for bread is the struggle for life in all its expression, the struggle for equality of power and opportunity to be and to blossom. Until bread and all that bread means are communized and equalized and made as certain and free s the air we breathe liberty cannot be said to have begun its real work. is not to say that man lives by bread alone: it is to say that until all men have free and equal bread no man may freely and completely live. This eco-nomic motive lies deep in religion and politics, even where it is least apparent

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor of The Call:
After reading the reports of the Democratic convention by Lincoln Steffens and Brand Whitlock I could not for the moment decide whether I was reading a paper which was con-sidered as voicing the views of So-cialism or one upholding the principle:

of the Democratic party.

Throughout the reports of these tw writers there was nothing to indicate that The Call was anything but a sup porter of Bryan. In fact, so stron was their commendation of Bryan Socialist would never suspect after seeing those articles that the pape which contained them was a Socialis

Now, do you think that such report are consistent with Socialist views and Socialist pretensions? Do you not think that a statement such as Branch hitlock makes, that "Labor is knock ing at the doors of most parties thes days preparatory, no doubt, to having a party of its own" completely ignore the existence and nature of the Social of the Denver convention let us hav reports which will aid the Socialist party in rolling up a large vote for Debs, and not reports which are virtually booming Bryan. Editor of The Call:

In a recent issue of the New York World comments editorially on the failure of the city to provide free bathing beaches for the people and says, "And out of all the invitation; the city has accepted not one free bathing beach." "Recurrent reminders may yet induce the men in contro of city affairs to give to matters o immediate vital concern to the peopl something of that prompt and effective attention;" etc.

There is one spot in this city where attention has been given to the need of free bathing beaches. Orchard Beach, at Pelham Bay Park, just north of the bridge leading to City Island, and about a half mile from Bartow station, is the largest and finest free bathing beach in the city accommodating perhaps twenty-five thousand people. Here the Park Commissioner has erected hundreds of free bathhouses, a large shelter pavilion drinking fountains, scores of tables and benches under spreading trees

Here in the largest city park in the world is a modern Arcadia, with gov-ernment by the people, for the people and of the people.

With thousands of children, hundreds of acres of water front, green fields and trees, with tiny horse cars running through miles of forest, here exists such idyllic simplicity as would ease the feelings of the m rabid Socialist.

GROWTH OF THE SOCIALIST VOTE.

COMMUNITY OF INTERESTS. By G. FLETCHER HALL

Despite the fact that the agitation against the railways is on the increase, those in control—through the capitalist press and otherwise—are endeavoring to create the impression that "the day of radicalism has passed." Their primary object is to lessen the growing discontent of employees prior to a day of radicalism has passed." Their primary object is to lessen the growing discontent of employees prior to a damy executive, offices has concerted move for the wholesale reduction of wages.

They know that so long as there is a prospect of anti-railway legislation the employees will be more disposed to apport their unions and demand the maintenance of the present wage scale. But if it can be made to appear that the people have tired of radicalism and are beginning to appreciate the efforts of those who have greated the efforts of those who have given efficient service at a minimum profit, through fear—it will tend to allay the discontent and—at the psychological moment—the easier it will be to enforce reductions and weaken the unions without serious troubles resulting therefrom. To accomplish this object the advocates of the open shop—it the Manufacturers' Association—have been enlisted and have entered heart and soul into the game.

A Sham Battle.

On the surface it seems they are strenuously opposing the railway magnates, who claim that their "properies are being operated at a loss; that "money cannot be borrowed to improve the roads or make needed extensions; that efficient service cannot be maintained and small dividends declared unless correspondents. not be maintained and small dividends declared, unless earnings are augmented; and that either rates must be advanced or wages reduced, otherwise the roads will dease to pay. It further is claimed that, "if such an advance on the part of the manufacturers or such a reduction on the part of the employees is not acceded to that grave danger exists that the roads will be forced into bankruptcy."

THE SOCIALISTS.

The transformation of the crowd into he people-profound task! It is to this labor that the men called Socialists have devoted themselves during the last he wished to catch up on the ne forty years. The author of this book however insignificant he may be, is one of the oldest in this labor. If he claims his place among these philosophers it is because it is a place of persecution. A certain hatred of Socialism, very blind, but very general, has raged for fifteen or sixteen years and is still raging most bitterly among the influential classes. Let it not be forgotten that true Social ism has for its end the elevation of the masses to the civic dignity and that, therefore, the principal care is for moral and intellectual cultivation.
