THE POVERTY STRICKEN MILLIONS.

Here is a book about our own land, written by a man who left his home of wealth to live among the poor. He is a University man, and a trained investigator. His name is Robert Hunter. His book is called "Poverty." It has just been published by the Maemillans, and costs $1.50 acce it by a better civilization, a civilization whose principle shall be ACH FOR ALL AND ALL FOR EACH.

THE ONE THING WORTH FIGHTING FOR.

My friend, George Sterling, speaking at the Ruskinl Chib to the Round he, "Why Am I a Socialist," said: "I am a Socialist because Socialism to note and investigation of the socialist, because Socialism to make the socialist because Socialism to note and the socialist because Socialism to the socialist because Socialism to the socialist because Socialism to the socialist because Socialism in the world today, there are many clean and noble in the social today. He said: Socialism is the only clean, noble, and thing in the world today worth fighting for.

And yet as I look over the universities of my land today, I see the tents, askeep in the tents askeep in the social to the social socialism to the social social socialism to the social social socialism to the social soc
