

The following original observations... not written for this paper...

Man is his own reward... Virtue is its own reward...

That man is a social being, the very nature and the circumstances necessary to the development of his natural capacities...

Now sympathy is the true principle of all attractions and adhesions. It is sympathy which rightly associates the human family...

Who can reflect for a moment upon the present practice of business transaction—pecuniary, social and moral throughout the world...

Deploable indeed! but we have all participated in modeling the fabric, consequently why should we complain of our tenements...

The most worthy work for the day... The first design—anticipates the necessities of his patrons...

How are our systems of government, domestic and political, affected? They are big with the tortures of error...

We are hampered by superstitious customs, which we are compelled to live and die by, to gain the privileges of social being...

in the most nearly degree of respectability... Dams nature will submit to no such arbitrary restrictions...

What We Labor For... The abolition of slavery was not the prevention of industry, virtue and intelligence...

OUR NATIONAL ANNIVERSARY... This eventful day, so hallowed by the American people has again returned and passed us by...

Intellect is its present auxiliary condition, is but the instrument of circumstances—moved to action by effects witnessed, which are the most general of all individual physical temperment...

The feelings of charity which prompt upon investigating the horrible condition of his race, may be the most truly expressed in the words of 'the mad poet'...

THE MAD POET'S GAY... O, let me dwell in the regions of fancy... Where might be the clear sky seen...

How can we improve but by social intercourse... Where are the demands of nature to be learned that where they are proclaimed freely...

VOICE OF INDUSTRY... What We Labor For... The abolition of slavery was not the prevention of industry, virtue and intelligence...

OUR NATIONAL ANNIVERSARY... This eventful day, so hallowed by the American people has again returned and passed us by...

Has the unhallowed lust for sordid wealth and ignoble power been overruled by a love of justice and humanity...

Every American man and woman should not themselves the question, seriously and candidly, are we a free people? are we realizing that freedom and enjoying those 'unalienable rights'...

A very appropriate song was then sung by Mr. Reed, and an original poem delivered by Mr. J. M. L. Babcock...

without regard to party, sect, creed, or color... Mr. Linsley of Charlestown took the stand, and occupied the attention of the audience...

REPORT... A Convention of the workmen and women of New-England, was held on the 4th inst at Woburn in a beautiful grove...

At half past 10 o'clock, the meeting was called to order by Mr. Wm. Todman of Woburn, and on motion of Mr. Lewis Furst of Boston...

The meeting having been fully organized, Mr. Ryckman, of Brook Farm Association took the stand—encouraged all to more universal interests...

Mr. Hyman Seaver, of Boston, next took the stand, referring eloquently to the condition of factory and tailor operatives...

Mr. James Campbell of Boston, arose and addressed the assembly in a very forcible manner—the object of this association...

Mr. Dana, of Brook Farm, was called for and gloried in an elegant and truthful speech...

Mr. A. J. Wright, of Boston followed, and said if we judge of future times by present conditions, the sign of the times was indicative of the long looked for millennium...

Mr. Mellen, of Boston followed, his remarks brought in reply from Mr. Linsley, of Charlestown...

We are happy to announce to the literati and lovers of elegant literature, that the highly accomplished and courteous editor of the Fitchburg Sentinel...

We freely confess that we have never fully appreciated the presentment talents displayed in the editorial paragraphs of this wonderful sheet...

To correct all misapprehensions, and illustrate the error which our ignorance (in supposing that the classic editor wrote to express ideas or opinions) led us into...

Now, we supposed that words arranged according to the law of language, would be the human mind ideas, and therefore concluded that the first paragraph, 'Antinomy'...

POETRY.

MISCELLANY.

INDUSTRY AND INTEGRITY.

There is nothing possible to accomplish which industry and integrity will not accomplish. The poor boy who...

DEFINITIONS.

Modern Philology. Writing in the name of the "deplorable condition of the poorer classes," and kicking a name...

Commendable.

Attempting to shut up a three cent rum shop, and discharging a person from his parish because he dares to preach a temperance sermon.

Christian Spirit.

Pronouncing the Christian church a den of thieves, and stealing a man's property because there is a difference of opinion as to whether he ought to hold it.

National Pride.

Aping the "manners and customs" of a Parisian dandy by wearing English boots, while a Yankee boot maker is starving in the same street.

Encouraging Home Industry.

Paying a Parisian chemist maker, four dollars for a shirt, and allowing an American sempstress to earn but two dollars per week, working night and day at it.

Regulate sons of noble sires.

The Boston aristocracy, with one or two exceptions.

THE INFIRMITY OF MODERN SCIENCE.

Few persons seem to be aware of the utter want of faith in any high, spiritual reality, which characterizes the thought, the feeling, the expression, the aims and purposes of modern society.

THE JOURNAL OF PHYSIOLOGY.

Though for several years, the Journal has contained more or less physiological fact and information, yet its space has been too much occupied by those who fall into the error of...

TO THE REVOLUTION.

A Beautifully Illustrated Volume—purely American in its character and design, forming a large and handsome octavo of two hundred and twenty pages...

A BOOK FOR EVERY FAMILY.

Which can be mailed at Periodical Postage for sale of the United States.

THE PICTORIAL HISTORY.

With an account of the Early History of the country, the Colonization of the United States, and a Chronological Index. Illustrated with several hundred Engravings.

THE PICTORIAL HISTORY.

With an account of the Early History of the country, the Colonization of the United States, and a Chronological Index. Illustrated with several hundred Engravings.

THE PICTORIAL HISTORY.

With an account of the Early History of the country, the Colonization of the United States, and a Chronological Index. Illustrated with several hundred Engravings.

THE PICTORIAL HISTORY.

With an account of the Early History of the country, the Colonization of the United States, and a Chronological Index. Illustrated with several hundred Engravings.

PROSPECTUS FOR VOL. VII.

OF THE

American Phrenological Journal.

To reform and perfect man—to bring out by culture the noblest faculties and abilities of his nature, are objects the most exalted that can possibly be proposed to man.

THE JOURNAL OF PHYSIOLOGY.

Though for several years, the Journal has contained more or less physiological fact and information, yet its space has been too much occupied by those who fall into the error of...

TO THE REVOLUTION.

A Beautifully Illustrated Volume—purely American in its character and design, forming a large and handsome octavo of two hundred and twenty pages...

A BOOK FOR EVERY FAMILY.

Which can be mailed at Periodical Postage for sale of the United States.

THE PICTORIAL HISTORY.

With an account of the Early History of the country, the Colonization of the United States, and a Chronological Index. Illustrated with several hundred Engravings.

THE PICTORIAL HISTORY.

With an account of the Early History of the country, the Colonization of the United States, and a Chronological Index. Illustrated with several hundred Engravings.

THE PICTORIAL HISTORY.

With an account of the Early History of the country, the Colonization of the United States, and a Chronological Index. Illustrated with several hundred Engravings.

THE PICTORIAL HISTORY.

With an account of the Early History of the country, the Colonization of the United States, and a Chronological Index. Illustrated with several hundred Engravings.

BANK REPORT TABLE.

Table listing various banks and their locations, including Bank of Montreal, Bank of New York, and others.

New Hampshire.

Table listing banks in New Hampshire, such as Bank of Concord and Bank of Portsmouth.

Vermont.

Table listing banks in Vermont, such as Bank of Burlington and Bank of Montpelier.

Massachusetts.

Table listing banks in Massachusetts, such as Bank of Boston and Bank of Lowell.

Rhode Island.

Table listing banks in Rhode Island, such as Bank of Providence and Bank of Pawtucket.

Connecticut.

Table listing banks in Connecticut, such as Bank of Hartford and Bank of New Haven.

New York.

Table listing banks in New York, such as Bank of Albany and Bank of Syracuse.

United States Bank Bill.

Table listing various bank bills and their denominations.

DELAID FAVERYS.

Table listing various faveris and their prices.

SATURDAY VISITOR.

Table listing various Saturday visitors and their prices.

REMOVAL.

Advertisement regarding the removal of a business or office.

BROUGHTON COMPTON.

Advertisement for Broughton Compton's services.

NEW MODES.

Advertisement for new modes or products.

30 HELPS OF CORNER LEAD.

Advertisement for 30 helps of corner lead.

THE PRESS.

By James Montgomery Esq.

The Press! What is the Press! I cried; When thus a wondrous voice replied: In me all human knowledge dwells...

I speak all languages.

I speak all languages—by me The deaf may hear, the blind may see, The dumb converse, the head of old Commanion with the living hold...

What is the Press?

What is the Press? 'Tis what the tongue Was to the world when 'Tine was young, When, by tradition, sire to son Conveyed what was known or done...

What is the Press?

What is the Press? 'Tis that which taught, By hieroglyphic forms of thought, Love, from the vulgar proudly hid, Like treasures in a pyramid...

What is the Press?

What is the Press? 'Tis what the pen Was three ten centuries to men, When sibil letters leant wings to birds, Or caged in books, they sang like birds...

What is the Press?

What is the Press? 'Tis what the pen Was three ten centuries to men, When sibil letters leant wings to birds, Or caged in books, they sang like birds...

What is the Press?

What is the Press? 'Tis what the pen Was three ten centuries to men, When sibil letters leant wings to birds, Or caged in books, they sang like birds...

What is the Press?

What is the Press? 'Tis what the pen Was three ten centuries to men, When sibil letters leant wings to birds, Or caged in books, they sang like birds...

What is the Press?

What is the Press? 'Tis what the pen Was three ten centuries to men, When sibil letters leant wings to birds, Or caged in books, they sang like birds...

What is the Press?

What is the Press? 'Tis what the pen Was three ten centuries to men, When sibil letters leant wings to birds, Or caged in books, they sang like birds...

What is the Press?

What is the Press? 'Tis what the pen Was three ten centuries to men, When sibil letters leant wings to birds, Or caged in books, they sang like birds...

What is the Press?

What is the Press? 'Tis what the pen Was three ten centuries to men, When sibil letters leant wings to birds, Or caged in books, they sang like birds...

What is the Press?

What is the Press? 'Tis what the pen Was three ten centuries to men, When sibil letters leant wings to birds, Or caged in books, they sang like birds...

What is the Press?

What is the Press? 'Tis what the pen Was three ten centuries to men, When sibil letters leant wings to birds, Or caged in books, they sang like birds...

What is the Press?

What is the Press? 'Tis what the pen Was three ten centuries to men, When sibil letters leant wings to birds, Or caged in books, they sang like birds...

What is the Press?

What is the Press? 'Tis what the pen Was three ten centuries to men, When sibil letters leant wings to birds, Or caged in books, they sang like birds...