[From the New York Tribune] SONG OF THE OPPRESSED. so for my, Mitchel!"-Devin Reilly

> O! thou who art wooing A plantom's embrace, A plantom's embrace, Yet Up, up and be doing Some good for the race! Say to each striver One bondmait to free, Promise for me, Brother, Promise for me !

See, see the blood freshen Our devious track, And the hounds of Oppression Come doubling back (Brothers and sufferers, Born not for slaves, Stir in your winding-she Rise from your graves

The day star is risen, But darkly between, The underground prison And chain intervene! Raze the dividing wall-Snap the dull chain, And let the still life-block warmly again

Course wermly again 1. What of the might, Watchman 7. What is the sign ? Stern, hard, near are firming And whiching in fullow, And coming like leavy average Of his rounced sea; Promise for me, Watchman, Promise for me, Watchman, Promise for me, Patchman, Att. Healbky, Okio
