GENERAL MANUFACTURING BILL.

The Legislature of New York has rece-beed this important measure. It is goo r as it goes. If corporate privileges ar a made avauate aristocracy of advantage is associating in business, let us all know what it is, and its benefitied by it. We blick there cannot be a glosolon as to the importance and necessity of such a law. The whole more-ment of society, is in the direction of associa-tion; of co-partnership in business. But unfor-tunately all legislation has been too partial—too much characterized between the users is while the tunately all legislation has been too pa much characterized byfavoritism towarc. The result has been, that between mar and bankers on the one hand, and sg on the other, the laboring classes hav and uniters of rule (not many many permitters) end to oller, the lafeting classes have experi-enced a constant degression in their senges-ters and the sense of the large sense of the large sense of the large sense of the large sense large sense of the large sense of the large sense respectively end to be the sense of mean large sense large sense of the large sense of the large sense of basiness percentaries even all decrys in high denormality of the large sense of the large sense of the large size senses of the large sense.
